FROM THE DESK OF RABBI PETER RIGLER

Shabbat Kulanu: For Families with Special Needs

What is the mission of our Inclusion and Special Needs Committee?

"For my house shall be a house of prayer for all people." (Isaiah 56:5)

These beautiful words from the Prophet Isaiah remind us of our sacred mission of inclusion. Yet there are Jews with physical, developmental, emotional, intellectual, mental health, and other challenges that do not have the opportunities to participate in the richness of Jewish life because multiple barriers still exist. It is only when these barriers are directly addressed and acknowledged by the community that we can really become a home open to all. Historically, people with disabilities have been perceived in light of visible impairments such as physical, communication, and sensory challenges. People can have disabilities that are not visible, including but not limited to autism spectrum disorders, learning disabilities, executive functioning disorders, and mood and behavioral challenges. Regardless of whether a disability is apparent, one of Judaism's core tenets is that because each person is unique and that we are all created in the image of God, every community is responsible to seek out persons of various abilities and disabilities, and ensure their inclusion in Jewish communal life. We should meet their needs so they may participate in personally and spiritually meaningful opportunities as full members of the Jewish community, who can contribute to a stronger and more vibrant community. In a short amount of time our Inclusion and Special Needs Committee has made remarkable changes that have helped us to live our core values. Among the many changes, large and small I am extremely proud to be part of the Shabbat Kulanu program. Services are designed to embrace a wide variety of needs and sensitivities, geared towards children with special needs and adults with intellectual disabilities. These services are short, interactive, musical, and include a craft activity. The next program will be held on:

Saturday, February 7th from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. See the front page for details.

Please come and celebrate and honor the work of our dedicated committee on Friday, February 27th, our Shabbat Service will celebrate Jewish Disabilities Awareness Month and will feature guest presenter, Gabrielle Kaplan-Mayer, Program Director for Special Needs/Family Engagement of the Jewish Learning Venture.

We have much to be proud of at Temple Sholom as we open our doors a bit wider!

NOTES FROM CANTOR JAMIE MARX . . .

*“Mishenichnas Adar, marbim
b’simcha.”*

“When one enters into Adar, joy increases.”

Every Jewish month has its mood and Adar has traditionally been associated with joy. Adar gets its reputation as a “joyful” month because it has the holiday of Purim, our celebration of all things joyful, silly, and goofy. We hear the story of Purim each year, exploring its themes of assimilation, justice, and being true to oneself. The Jewish community has always searched for creative ways to bring the story to life and that search gave rise to the Purim shpeil!

This year we’ll be presenting A Very Disney Purim Shpeil, featuring parodies of your favorite Disney tunes. Come see your friends and loved ones bring our sacred scroll to life with singing, dancing, and a lot of goofiness! The show is appropriate for all ages. Our Purim shpeil will be presented on Wednesday, March 4 at 7:00 p.m. in the sanctuary.

TEMPLE SHOLOM ANNUAL APPEAL FUNDRAISER

The Annual Appeal, now being held in March, contributes to our vibrancy and financial stability by reducing the funding gap between our membership dues and the cost of all our many temple programs. A member of the Temple Board will be contacting each member in March for your pledge. Please give generously within your means to help support all our temple religious, holiday, music, family, and social support programs.

More information will be provided on how you can help support the important activities of our congregation at the time of our Annual Appeal.

Your Annual Appeal donation in March can be used for tax purposes (all gifts are fully tax deductible), on your 2015 tax returns. Simply make a check out to Temple Sholom in Broomall and include “Annual Appeal” in the memo line or use The Temple Sholom Web Site to make a donation.

Those that have made an early donation to the Annual Appeal in December of 2014 will be recognized for their contribution this year and will NOT receive an Annual Appeal call in March.

DIRECTOR'S CORNER

Dear Friends,

We are always very busy at Temple Sholom.

We continue to strive to improve, to do better, to get to the next level for all in our Temple community, and are incredibly grateful to all our volunteers who donate their time, expertise, ideas and energy. Temple Sholom would not be the same without all of you! This winter has proven to be very busy, and I wanted to share with you just some of our improvements.

Each one of you should have received an email about our new online access to your own Chaverware Temple member account. With this secure online access, you can now manage and update any of your family's biographical information.

Additionally you can now easily make donations online. Although you may view your current invoice, you cannot pay your dues on line at this time. If you need assistance with your username or temporary password, please let us know. This is a new system for all of us. A special thank you to our Treasurer, Steve Granoff and our Bookkeeper, Betsy Blackburn

Goslin, for making this new access a reality.

With a generous donation from Irvin and Betty Berger, we are embarking on some exciting technology improvements including upgrading our WiFi and telephone systems. We will keep you posted on the details regarding this project and how it will impact all of us.

Our e-news has a new look. We are so grateful to our congregant and volunteer, Ebony Goldsmith for lending her expertise to help us redefine our e-news. This new format is easy to read and you will proudly want to forward it to friends and family. What a great way to put our best foot forward and showcase all that we do at Temple Sholom.

We always take great pride in our Temple Buildings and property. With the guidance of our Buildings and Grounds/Temple Beautiful Committee, we have completed some of our short term plans, and continue to plan for the future. Just to name a few of the projects we completed this winter: new toilets in the school wing girl's bathroom, minor cosmetic improvements to the Annex bathrooms, new door knobs for all the classrooms with safety mechanisms to lock the doors from the inside (a special thank you to our Security Task Force under the leadership of Margaret Husick for their guidance here), new electrical outlets in classroom #6 and on the bimah and a fresh coat of paint in classroom #6. These are just some of the highlights, and many more improvements are on the way.

A special thanks to our Buildings and Grounds/Temple Beautiful Committee: Vera Neumann-Sachs, chairperson, Linda Cantor, Ellen Covner, Katie Gray, Cindy Korenberg, Merraine Rein, Mitch Wolfson, Art Zabel, Rob Zamsky. If you would like to be a part of this committee, or volunteer your time to any aspect of our community, please let me know.

Please stop in and say hello, call or email me with any of your ideas or thoughts at any time. I look forward to discussing our improvements and future plans with you.

~ Warmly, Abbey Krain

Temple Sholom, Where you belong

BOARD GREETINGS

It's all about love...

The word for love in Hebrew is “ahavah”. Having just completed the Hebrew for Meaning class at Temple Sholom, I have learned that Hebrew words are based on roots. The root for the word ahavah is ahav which means, “give”. Love is about giving. God’s love for us is expressed in all the blessings God has given us - from the beauty of a blue sky and the change of seasons to our friends and family. Our love for God and for others is felt when we give to others by acting with loving intention.

Being able to receive love is as vital as being able to give love. Receiving God’s love means being aware of all of our blessings and being grateful for them. Receiving the love of our significant others means showing that we value the love they have given us. Tell those you love how much you value their support and encouragement. Let them know how much their love means to you.

Judaism commands us to love. “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.” (Deuteronomy 6:5). We might wonder how it is that we can be commanded to love because love is an emotion. How can we be commanded to feel a certain way? The rabbis explained that we are commanded to act in loving ways in the world that God has created and this is how we love God. Many of the commandments give us specific instructions as to how to act in loving ways. We are told to help neighbors with their difficulties, allow animals to rest, not to tell lies about a person, and to give charity to the poor and needy. The word mitzvah literally means “commandment”, but generally is understood to mean “good deed”. We are commanded to do good deeds and act in loving ways.

Our family loves Les Miserables and two of our daughters are often heard singing its beautiful music. Jean Valjean sings, “To love another person is to see the face of God.” How true this is! When we love, we have the capacity to see and feel the holiness in ourselves and others. By acting in loving ways, we can build loving relationships and do God’s work here on Earth.

Member of the Board of Trustees

SISTERHOOD NEWS: SORRY 'BOUT THIS

No Movie Night on February 28th

We've decided not to take any chances on the weather this year, considering every Sisterhood Movie Night in the past has taken place during snowy and icy conditions. Please think of Sisterhood and go by yourselves when it's safe to drive and see a Jewish-themed movie. Let us know about your experiences and we'll reimburse you a box of popcorn!

Meanwhile, we had quite an enthusiastic crowd show up for Sisterhood's "Sugar Blues Workshop" led by Cindy Harrington last month. It's safe to say that all audience members finished the evening having learned a lot about nutrition and diets that we hadn't previously known. Many thanks to Cindy for sharing her expertise with Sisterhood!

Please remember that on Thursday, February 12 at 7:30 p.m., Sisterhood Book Club members will convene at Lori Rowling's home to discuss The Invisible Bridge. On Thursday, March 12th, we'll be discussing The Paris Architect by Charles Belfoure. Keep reading!

We want to draw your attention to two ongoing Sisterhood services that are helpful to you. Our Temple Sholom in Broomall Sisterhood offers Jewish National Fund Trees to honor or memorialize people or special events in your life and the lives of your loved ones. We are proud to sell these at a price much lower than other congregations are selling them for.

Furthermore, Sisterhood also sells Happiness and Memorial Cards to make your life easier. Not only are both of these services acknowledged in the monthly Tidings edition, but you will receive a note as the sender. Our Sisterhood representative for both these services, Shirley Birenbaum, sends out both Tree Certificates and the Cards. Your price includes your personalized note and the postage. You may phone her at 610-328-2171, or email her with your order at surabassa@aol.com. Shirley will explain how to arrange payment.

Please contact us with questions, comments or anything else at sisterhood@temple-sholom.org. Thanks for helping us to be your Sisterhood leaders!

~ Your devoted Sisterhood co-Presidents, Frances Epstein and Donna Hendel

Plan to join us on Saturday, March 14 for our Social Action Event that benefits the Special Olympics. See page ?? for event details. This promises to be a very fun time that also includes doing mitzvot by you!

Be sure to stop by The Gift Garden during February. There is a special promotion on door mezuzahs as well as car mezuzahs. Is it silly of me? I love my car mezuzah that I purchased at The Gift Garden. For some reason, I feel it adds an extra layer of safety to my driving.

Be sure to check out our Sisterhood calendar of events, shown below. By now, you have probably noted that Deb Kirsch is chairing a theater trip for us to go together to Penn's Landing Playhouse on Sunday, May 3 at 2 p.m. to see the show, Respect. Contact Deb at dkirsch2788@icloud.com.

"CARMEN" BROUGHT TO LIFE AT HILLTOPPERS PROGRAM

A small, but enthusiastic, group of Hilltoppers braved the cold temperatures to enjoy opera expert Joseph Erdeljac's program on Carmen by composer Georges Bizet.

Joseph Erdeljac began his program by introducing the group to many interesting facts about Bizet. It was shocking to learn that the composer wrote the now famous opera at the age of 37 only to die three months later never realizing its success. Erdeljac explained that Bizet wrote Carmen as a tragedy, "a study of the psychology of uncontrolled passion that eventually became an obsession." Originally the opera had some speaking parts referred to as "Singshpeil". On the humorous side, he mentioned that there are two types of opera the "Park and Bark," when the players stand quite still on stage singing without much movement, or, as in Carmen, the "Prowl and Growl," when there is a constant flurry of activity on the stage.

Equipped with handouts that included a vocabulary of commonly used terms related to opera, audience participants were able to follow along, and in some cases, sing along with the English translation.

All in all, the Hilltoppers and guests were treated to the exquisite sounds of the opera as Erdeljac played familiar excerpts of Carmen and proceeded to entertain and educate the audience.

money to outsmart the Gestapo by devising unique hiding places for Jews, though he knows that anyone caught helping them will be tortured and killed by the Germans. Danger is everywhere: Lucien's mistress, Adele, a successful fashion designer, has an affair with a Gestapo colonel. Lucien's new assistant will betray him in a heartbeat. Offered a juicy German factory commission that involves working with a Nazi officer who admires architecture and art, Lucien's web weaves more complexly. And when he falls in love with Adele's assistant, rescues a child, and contacts some of the individuals he's saved, the stakes grow higher and Lucien's thoughts turn from money to vengeance. THE ETTA NATALIE ROSENBLATT PRESCHOOL

The month of January was very busy at the Temple Sholom Preschool. As soon as we returned from our winter break we began working on all of our January projects. Of course, there were lots of snowmen and some snow too in our hallways and classrooms. We have winter activities galore and are learning about how to bundle up in cold weather.

Learning about peace, justice and cultural diversity is very important as we began to prepare for our Martin Luther King, Jr. remembrances. This year the Preschool had a special Mitzvah Day to help others in our community. We collected hats, gloves, and mittens to donate to children in need. Dr. King dreamt of all children living together in peace and friendship. We make that a reality every day in our school and are very proud of our inclusive community.

This year, Tu B'Shevat, is on February 3rd. We will learn about trees, what they do for us and what we can do for them! Each class will have a special Tu B'Shevat Seder. Tu B'Shevat is also another important opportunity to learn about Israel and about how our Jewish tree festival is celebrated there as well!

We are planning our annual Pajama Day for February 18th. It should be a lot of fun as we all will wear our favorite pajamas to school and eat breakfast in our classrooms! Looking forward we will have our second Pajama Havdalah and Movie Night on February 28th! Be ready for a great time!

And thinking way ahead, registration for Camp Menchy at Temple Sholom this summer is just around the corner. We are busy preparing themes and activities for our campers. It promises to be a really great summer! And don't forget, registration for the 2015/16 school year will begin very soon.

We are back! We are busy and we are happy!

Shalom, Miss Liz

DOING MITZVOT IN THE HOME

Over the holidays, Daniel and I were invited to “cook and package meals” for Aid For Friends at the home of Susan and Eric Thomas. They originally got involved through congregation Beth David, which does several large cook-ins every year and supplies trays for people to use on their own. Over the last 8 to 10 years, just on their own, they’ve invited friends once or twice per year to bring food and pack meals, just as they did with us. They generally pack about 100 meals each session (this time we packed 117).

It’s an easy thing for people to do on their own, even one or two meals at a time, although I don’t think that’s how most meals get donated. The statistics in Philadelphia speak for themselves: 256,000 persons are age 60 and older. Philadelphia seniors’ poverty rate is almost double that of Pennsylvania and the nation. More than 120,000 seniors have trouble paying for life’s most basic necessities.

Aid For Friends (AFF) is one of the largest and most well established home delivery meals program in Pennsylvania, serving 400,000 free dinner meals, 58,000 soups and 42,000 breakfast bags to an aggregate 2,200 home- bound persons each year.

They also provide nearly 100,000 hours of friendly visiting annually; and have served more than 15,500,000 meals to 14,500 individual homebound persons over the past 40 years.

Aid For Friends’ volunteer cooks prepare 400,000 dinner meals at their homes, area churches, synagogues, organizations, and at their commercial kitchen. They donate most of the ingredients. This program serves people of all ages at NO COST since all food and services are provided completely free of charge.

Thanks, Susan and Eric Thomas, for inviting us. We’ll be happy to help cook and package more anytime!

Tu B'Shevat

"The Eternal One planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and placed there Adam, whom God had formed. ... The Eternal One took Adam and placed him in the Garden of Eden to till it and tend it." Genesis 2:8, 15

On Wednesday, February 4 we, as Jews, celebrate the holiday of Tu B'Shevat - the New Year for Trees. Though the branches are bare in our part of the world, in Israel the first signs of spring will appear as tiny buds on the almond trees.

Celebrating a New Year for Trees reminds us of all that trees provide us ... shade, wood, oxygen, and more. But did you know that it is a mitzvah (commandment) to protect and guard not only trees but all of nature? Tu B'Shevat is a time when Judaism reminds us that humans do not exist in a vacuum ... we share our world with all living things. We exist as God's partners in protecting and continuing the work of creation.

The Hebrew word for nature is teva. We are commanded to protect and guard nature - sh'mirat ha-teva. This lesson is taught in the story of creation found in the Book of Genesis, but also reinforced in the writings of the Rabbis. Incumbent upon this, as well, is the notion of ba'al tashchit - we should not be destructive, but rather work to preserve all that is wonderful in our world.

PJ Library Goes to School

We are so excited that Temple Shalom has been selected to participate in the PJ Goes to School - Complementary Schools test program. This program - focused on Jewish values - is designed to enrich and extend the curriculum and spark meaningful Jewish conversations in the classroom and home.

The theme of the this year's PJ Goes to School program is the Shmita, sabbatical year, which also happens to be the theme of our second trimester of exploration at Rimon. Focused on rejuvenation, balance, caring for the land, and strengthening community we will be engaging with some wonderful books while exploring these values:

The Brothers' Promise - caring for the earth
Pearl Moscowitz's Last Stand - community
A Hen for Izzy Pippik - responsibility
Snow in Jerusalem - friendship

Stop Hunger Now!

Did you know that Rimon families are scheduled to join together for a Meyuchad (special) food-packaging program during the spring? Our goal is to package 10,000 meals for those who are hungry. For just 29¢ per meal we will be able to feed those in need!

Stop Hunger Now is an amazing agency that distributes meals through partner organizations in developing countries which promote education, improve the health and nutrition of students, address gender inequalities, spur economic growth, combat child labor, and create a platform for tackling global issues. Stop Hunger Now also provides meals in response to crisis relief.

As a Temple Shalom community let's join together with our Rimon families to fulfill the mitzvah of Ma'achil R'eivim - Feeding the Hungry. You can help to reach our $2,900 goal by contributing to the Religious School Tzedakah fund.

Chugim!

Chugim (clubs) are a favorite at Rimon. Chugim provide our children with "voice and choice" and empower them to choose what and how they want to learn. From Newspaper Chug, to "Imagine It, Build It", to Jewish Folk dancing and more, our children learn, laugh and have a blast. Check out the pictures of just a few of our Chugim!

FEBRUARY BAT MITZVAH

Naomi Louise Eddy, daughter of John and Cindy Eddy will be called to the Torah on February 14. Her brother, Zachary and her grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins, all attending from as far away as California, Oregon, Colorado, New York,

New Jersey, Virginia, and Western PA will share in her special day.

A Haverford Middle School, 7th grade student, Naomi is a very artistic and creative person. She has received honors for her art, including the John V. Baltadonis Art Award in elementary school, and had her art displayed in student art exhibits. She likes to use her art skills for set design in her school's stage crew. Naomi likes to sing, and is a part of the Haverford Middle School's Women's A Cappella Ensemble, the Fordettes. Naomi has also been studying Martial Arts since she was five years old, and is in the process of preparing to test for an adult black belt.

Naomi's mitzvah project was about literacy, and had two parts. In the first part, Naomi visited the Temple's Preschool summer program on a number of days, and read stories to the children. The second part of her project was managing the book drive aspect of her brother's Eagle Scout service project, which created two mobile libraries for St. Christopher's Hospital for Children. Naomi guided volunteers as well as joined them in sanitizing over a thousand donated books with Clorox wipes, drying them, and sorting them into specific categories. Naomi also used her art skills to create colorful labels for the boxes, so it was clear where the books belonged.

ToaSTY hit the ground running in 2015. In January, we had our Shul-In. It was a lot of fun! We sang karaoke and played games, had dinner and watched a movie. A shul-in is always a great time to get to know each other, especially our new members. Everyone is always excited to be there and have fun and just hang out at the synagogue for the night. We have also been selling our ToaSTY t-shirts; they are $20 and if you would like one, let us know!

We have looked at the rest of the year for ToaSTY and here is what it looks like:

February 22 - Join us at the Movie Tavern

March 28 - It's our annual Scavenger Hunt

April 25 - Come and share a yummy brunch

May 16 - Save the date - We'll keep you posted as to what will be happening since this program is still in the planning stages

As we look forward to our next events, we hope that you will come and join us! As always we look forward to seeing you!

B'Shalom,

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY

Women's Spirituality welcomes Shelly Barnathan on Wednesday, February 25th when we will be taking a look at the Torah Portion for the week - Parashat Tetzaveh. Parashat Tetzaveh is from the book of Exodus. It is divided into seven readings. Tetzaveh - 'you shall command or instruct.' It can also mean 'to bond' or 'to connect.' Tetzaveh begins by blessing us with the light of eternity. The "Ner Tamid." It instructs one to bring olive oil for the lamp, to make sacred garments for the priests, to conduct an ordination ceremony and to make an incense altar. We will look at Parashat Tetzaveh through various lenses, from literal to interpretive to spiritual.

All women of Temple Sholom are welcome to meet with us in the Temple library at 7:30 p.m. as we continue our journey through our 25th year of learning, sharing and spiritual development.

You are invited to begin your evening with us in the Temple Sanctuary at 6:25 p.m. for quiet reflection and meditation led by one of our members. At the conclusion of our meditation we will move to the library to connect with the Torah Parashat Tetzaveh guided by Shelly Barnathan.

Women's Spirituality looks forward to you joining us on Wednesday, February 25th when we will be in the Temple Sanctuary at 6:25 p.m. and then to the Temple Library at 7:30 p.m.

In case of inclement weather, please check with the Temple Office to confirm if we will be having our meeting in the evening.

CONVERSATIONS WITH MEN

Join us in the Rabbi's study at 9:30 am on February 8, as we continue another great year of Conversations with Men. Our topic for this discussion will be:

Mysteries of the Ten Commandments
Exploring their Deeper Meaning and Significance

Please pass this along to other guys who might be interested. The more the merrier.

COME MEDITATE WITH US!

Wednesday Morning Meditation

Meditation continues to meet in the Temple Annex on Wednesday mornings . . . it can be a time to stop in the middle of the week . . . a time to begin your day in quiet meditation. Imagine sitting in a circle . . . closing your eyes . . . letting the sounds around you wash over you. This ordinary pleasure is waiting for you in the Temple Annex on Wednesday mornings from 9:25 a.m. - 10:15 a.m.

Come in out of the cold and join our warm and welcoming circle. Take time - slow down. Meditation can balance our busy lives. It can open the doorway to compassion, wisdom, inner joy and peace. Share with us as we learn what meditation has to offer. There is a seat waiting for you in our circle of chairs as we spend a quiet time together.

Everyone is welcome to join us . . . once. . . once in a while . . . or every time we meet. No previous meditation experience is required.

Meditation dates to remember for this month:

February 4, 11, 18 and 25

When: Wednesdays 9:25 a.m. - 10:15 a.m.

Where: Temple Sholom Annex

Weather permitting - If meditation is to be cancelled - watch your email in the morning of the scheduled meditation by 8:15 a.m. or check with the Temple Office.

Pre-Shabbat Meditation

What does Shabbat mean to you? Shabbat is an ideal time to bask in the stillness of meditation. Did you know that meditation can help you get the most out of prayer? Is your mind calm enough and quiet enough to pray? Silence is just like the essence of Shabbat. Shabbat is a time for peace, harmony, spirituality and community that is unmatched by any other day. Why not take some time to make meditation a part of your Shabbat practice. Meditation can enhance and deepen your prayer experience.

The practice of Jewish meditation is open to everyone. Whether you are familiar or new to meditation, everyone is welcome to join our warm and welcoming circle that meets in the Temple Annex on the fourth Friday of every month.

Are you ready for prayer? We look forward to sharing this time with you as we "warm up" for prayer on February 27th from 7:00 p.m. - 7:45 p.m. in the Temple Annex before the Friday night Shabbat service.

NOTE: There will be NO Pre-Shabbat Meditation in March and April - - After February 27th the next Pre-Shabbat Meditation will be May 28th - - Please mark your calendars to join us in May.

Please check the Friday announcements for any changes that might occur.

A WOMAN OF VALOR WRJ AWARD WINNER: DONNA HENDEL

Below is the essay Fran Epstein submitted when she nominated Donna for The Woman of Valor award.

When I think of Eshet Hayil, I think of my good friend, Donna Hendel.

In the past four years, I have come to know Donna Hendel as a warm, caring and extremely enthusiastic person. She relates so well with young people as well as with older adults that she is able to create a sincere comfort level among everyone she contacts. Recently a Sisterhood member commented, "Her enthusiasm is contagious."

Because of her cheerfulness and energy, people are excited to work with and for her, which was exhibited in the fact that she convinced me to share the Sisterhood Co-Presidency with her at Temple Sholom in Broomall last year after she had taken over the helm on her own for two years. It was in those first two years, I sincerely believe, that Donna revitalized our Sisterhood with a new energy and increased membership. That is evident as one Sisterhood member remarked, "I would probably not be involved if not for my response to wanting to support Donna four years ago." Another member responded, "As a totally new member not only to our Temple, but new to Pennsylvania, Donna made me feel so welcome! I love working with her and this team of women." Through Donna's commitment to our fundraising efforts our Sisterhood continues to support our Temple's General Fund, Women's Spirituality, Rimon (our Religious School), Preschool, and ToaSTY Youth Group as well as monetary contributions to our local shelter.

Donna is an excellent Hebrew teacher and enjoys the challenges of working with young students, and I might add working with me as she has been teaching me Hebrew to prepare for my Bat Mitzvah. She is known for introducing innovative ways of getting the young students to enjoy learning. Donna is dedicated to encouraging Jewish study and has become a mentor to me in reconnecting with my Jewish heritage.

Among her many attributes is her ability to multitask on the highest level. Her involvement in other aspects of Jewish life has enriched our Temple as she has introduced us to Jewish musicians, speakers and community leaders.

Donna has been trained as a Para Rabbi and has led our congregation in many inspired Shabbat services. She is the first person to appear with a meal for the sick or housebound. She has offered her home to those who were in need during the extreme power outages this past year. Those are just a couple of examples of her capacity to help others.

With all that she has accomplished, it is her family that is of utmost importance to her as she is a dedicated wife and a devoted mother of three wonderful and successful children.

DISCUSSION GROUP

The Temple Discussion Group met at the home of Deane Lappin and Dick Peters on December 21st. We had over twenty, but who is counting. It would appear that the group lived their school years at a time when Christmas was openly celebrated in schools and Hanukkah got little mention. In spite of that, there was virtually no resentment or offense taken at being a minority in a Christian environment. There were some very few restrictions on that tolerance as a principle. There was understanding of those taking a more militant view of removing all religious symbols from schools but little sympathy for this movement. The future of Islamic religious relations in schools remains an open question. It is not clear whether an Americanized tolerance will develop or a strict interpretation forcing schools to avoid religion totally will prevail.

In another few months we should have all the world's problems resolved, or at least discussed. Look for announcements for the next discussion, likely to be sometime this month or next.

The next Temple Sholom Discussion group meeting will be on Sunday, February 15th at noon at the home of Shirley and Marty Birenbaum. We will tackle Race Relations: Have we learned anything since Ferguson? Where to from here?

Contact Bob Slater at bobnmarins@aol.com if you are interested in attending. Pot luck lunch as usual.
