FROM THE DESK OF RABBI RIGLER

Taking a page from the 1939 World's Fair "World of Tomorrow," Amy L. Sales (associate director of the Cohen Center for Modern Jewish Studies at Brandeis University), recently wrote an essay for the Central Conference of American Rabbis' journal looking at the synagogue of "tomorrow". She begins with the premise that the role of the synagogue is changing and wonders what synagogues can do to remain a vital part of Jewish life in the future.

I agree that our vision and understanding of Jewish life needs to always be growing and changing. This is, after all, the deepest insight Reform Judaism has brought to Jewish life. We are working hard to plan for our future in many ways! This is a moment when we need to just pause as a community and celebrate who we are and all we are accomplishing together!

The first story I will share, is of a woman in her twenties who a few months ago started attending our services. She was very nervous the first night she walked into our doors. She has been meeting with me to do some studying and is keeping a journal of her experiences. She wrote, "I was so warmly welcomed the minute I walked into Temple Sholom, enveloped by wonderful music, kindness and prayer. It didn't feel foreign at all; the Rabbi, Cantor and community made it feel like my home." This was her reaction to the first night she came! To me this speaks volumes about who we are and I am so proud to serve as the Rabbi of a community that these words can be written about! We live the values every day of being warm, vibrant and inclusive.

I am so proud of so much that we do and have done! From our growing Preschool, vibrant Religious School program, the successful transition of staff, meaningful worship experiences of all types, cultural programs and classes of the highest caliber, dedicated lay leadership, vibrant constituency groups (including Sisterhood, Brotherhood, Youth Group and Hilltoppers), all with a deep respect for the past and an eye for our future! All of the love and passion that we bring to our work is infectious, so much so that this year we have grown by twenty families. An accomplishment that speaks volumes about who we are, especially in a time when so many other houses of worship are struggling.

Our staff has done a wonderful job this year and deserve a great deal of thanks for all that they do! I am honored to work with them all!

Thank you to our lay leadership who work tirelessly to care for our community on every level! This includes the countless volunteers for each event and service who treat Temple Sholom as their home! What an incredible community!

As the "head volunteer", our out-going President, Mike Samuels, has served our community with incredible kavod (honor) and love. For the past two years we have been blessed to have him guiding our community. Most may not realize how much Mike and our Board has to do or how much responsibility they have. I am grateful for all that Mike and those serving on our Board have helped us accomplish. As Mike prepares to finish his term as President, I want to thank him for all that he has done! So what now? Share our community with friends and loved ones!

~ B'Shalom - Rabbi Rigler

CANTOR SHAPIRO'S NOTES

What's in a name?

This past Sunday, I had the distinct pleasure of attending the Ordination ceremonies for the newest Reform Rabbis and Cantors who graduated and were ordained by the Hebrew Union College – Jewish Institute of Religion in New York City. The ceremony was held at Temple Emanu-El. The setting was majestic, the music was moving and the ceremony was profound. Attending the ceremony each year has become a tradition for me. My close friend, and former accompanist, Pedro d'Aquino, plays Temple Emanu-El's grand pipe organ for the ceremony each year, and we have a standing date in the choir loft, where I get to meet the Cantorial class who comprise the choir for the event, and turn pages for Pedro. It's something I look forward to each year.

When I became a cantor, in 2003, I was "invested" as a cantor, while my rabbinic colleagues were "ordained." I didn't really think much about the difference between the two words. I was becoming a cantor, I was called in front of the ark, where Rabbi David Ellenson spoke words of encouragement to me and I was handed my certificate of investiture by Cantor Israel Goldstein, a mentor, who was the head of the School of Sacred Music at the time.

Since that time, I have invested much time and energy to my professional organization, the American Conference of Cantors ("ACC"). I currently serve as one of three vice presidents of the organization. In this role, I became aware that cantors were being denied opportunities to fulfill their clergy roles because we weren't "ordained." Because no one understood the meaning behind the word "invested", cantors were being denied access to serving as military chaplains, denied the right to visit congregants in jail and in some cases denied the ability to perform marriages. None of these consequences was intended by our alma mater. It was just that the outside world only understood the word "ordained".

This year for the first time, the graduating cantors were ordained along with their rabbinic colleagues. I was so proud to be there, cheering for them from up in the choir loft, listening to the presidents of the CCAR and the ACC address the graduates, and listening to Rabbi/Cantor Angela Buchdahl address the congregation, as she spoke so eloquently about community and belonging, weaving music into her sermon.

I feel blessed to work with a clergy partner who understands that while rabbis and cantors may have distinct roles in our tradition, we can work together to bring out the best in each other and support one another as we help to create community. I believe that the ordination of cantors will help others (and especially non-Jews who may be baffled by the role of the cantor) to understand that the best way for rabbis and cantors to work together is through true clergy partnership.

A MESSAGE FROM OUT-GOING PRESIDENT, MIKE SAMUELS

THANK YOU FOR TWO REWARDING YEARS!

You may or may not know that our annual congregational meeting is on Sunday, June 10 at 5:00 PM. If you have never been to a congregational meeting I highly encourage you to attend. It is a fun night of gift giving and recognition of those who have done so much throughout the year. The meeting provides us with some time to reminisce and think of how blessed we are to have such a wonderful community. Then there is the business side of the evening. We vote to fill board vacancies and this year elect a new president. Come out, make your voice heard and help elect the lay leadership for the coming year. The slate of nominees is very strong this year.

For some people transition or change is difficult. I, on the other hand, embrace change. Change, good and bad, keeps us engaged and vibrant. Being entrusted to help foster positive change for a community I love is very humbling and rewarding. Some people sarcastically say time flies if you are having fun or not. My response is, then why not have fun. The last two years have been much fun. Since I became involved, there has been much change at Temple Sholom. I was on the Rabbi Search committee that was expertly run by Eric Cantor and Mark Rubinoff under Barbara Mark's watchful eye. Thanks to all for bringing Rabbi Rigler to our community. What a kind hearted and generous spiritual leader he is. We have hired several preschool directors. We owe a huge amount to Lorri Myers and Liz Sussman for the existence and success of our ever growing preschool. We hired Betsy Blackburn-Goslin as our bookkeeper. What a find! Every day I give thanks for Mitch Wolfson's recommendation and for all that Betsy does for us. We hired Abbey Krain as our executive director. Like manna from heaven. Abbey was recently honored by her own synagogue for outstanding contributions. Having worked with her on many tasks over the last year I can see why. Abbey is amazing.

Nothing can be more stunning than getting a call from our cantor of 28 years. I'll never forget those words...."Mike, I think it is an appropriate time. I have decided to retire at the end of this year." Remember the beginning of this paragraph, about embracing change. Oy. We all have many remembrances of Cantor Patty and Jeff. We have shared tears of sorrow and tears of joy. Patty was the one spiritual constant for my family. Those tears keep coming with every singing of "Meet Me in St. Louis". Patty and Jeff, you will be missed as you are part of the fabric of who we are. At the same time, I shed tears of joy, thinking of the joy you will receive spending more time with your children and grandchildren. You missed many of your children's special days because you were making our lives special. Wherever you are, you will always be in our hearts, and fortunately in our iTunes, cricket and all!

All of this leads us to our latest and greatest. Brett Amdur led an outstanding search committee and Melissa Shusterman orchestrated the transition of our new and beloved Cantor Shapiro. Cantor, Scott, Frances and Zev, thank you for believing in us as we believe in you. We began the year with a special musical installation and culminated the year with an incredible concert. From the Afro-Semitic Experience to "Bewitched, Bothered and Bewildered". Your entire family's embrace of the Temple Sholom Family Riders and enthusiasm for Temple Sholom is infectious. Thank you. It has been a joy.

Before becoming president I attended the Scheidt Seminar, a URJ event, for incoming Temple presidents. One of the gripes of many new presidents was that they have to reinvent the wheel due to lack of participation by past presidents. At Temple Sholom we are blessed to have many very active past presidents. In fact, there are too many to mention each by name! Your continued leadership makes Temple Sholom a better community for us all.

Thanks to the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees, Mike Danowitz, Brett Amdur, Steve Berger, Steve Granoff, Jim Meyer and Emily Mendell. Great teams make great decisions. Thanks to Mike Bolotsky, Steve Granoff's predecessor as treasurer who made Mr. Granoff's life easier and who made a huge impact on the financial stability of Temple Sholom. Thanks to Matt Frankel for financial insights and for quietly being there when it mattered. Leslie Greenfield, I owe you one for getting me into this. To Barbara Mark, thanks for making the tough decisions that facilitated all that we have today.

To Mike Danowitz, you have been provided a strong foundation. I know you will make it your own and we will continue to grow and benefit under your leadership. To Rabbi Rigler and Cantor Shapiro, I love you both.

To a community that is truly warm and welcoming, thank you.

~ B'shalom, Mike

LIFE IS A CABARET FUND RAISER A ROUSING SUCCESS

Our first annual Cantors' Concert was a true success! If you missed this year's concert and have heard the buzz, you can put next year's event on your calendar now. Next year's concert is scheduled for the evening of May 4th, 2013.

Cantors Mo Glazman of White Plains, NY; Jonathan Grant of Newport Beach, CA; Patty Kaplan and Kerith Spencer-Shapiro from our own congregation regaled the packed house with jazz standards and songs from Broadway, with exceptional back-up from Dave Posmontier and his band. Our cantors' voices filled the sanctuary with joyful noise, but not exactly what we were used to hearing from the bimah. In addition to the good time had by all, the concert raised thousands of dollars for music programming at Temple Sholom.

Special thanks to Concert Chairs: Mollie Plotkin and Scott Kalish; Committee members: Barbara Barr, Jen Isayev, Liz Berger, Cindy Meyer, Cindy Fastman, Valeri Riesenfeld, Shelby Frankel, Jennifer Saionz, Bev Granoff, Kat Springer and Leslie Greenfield; Prize patrons: Shirley Chalick, Scott Kalish and Alison Holt-Kalish, Lani Bevaqqua & Paul Bennett of Context Travel, and the Plotkins.

The concert was especially successful due to the generous support of our concert patrons:

Mollie & Kevin Plotkin and Marcia & Steve Plotkin in honor and memory of Murray & Pauline Plotkin who so loved music, sponsors for a month of Music.

The Kanes-Byun family, sponsors for a month of Choir.

Anonymous, sponsors for a month of Choir.

Steve & Bev Granoff, in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary. Mazel tov! Sponsors for a Shabbat of Music.

The Samuels family, sponsors for a Shabbat of Music.

The Rabbis Rigler, sponsors for a Shabbat of Music.

Phil and Nancy Bloomfield, sponsors for a Shabbat of Music.

THANKS TO OUR HOSPICE VOLUNTEERS! YOU ARE TRULY ANGELS!

June appears to be our "thank you" issue and I would like to take a moment to thank the following people for being a part of our Hospice Group at Temple Sholom. These dedicated women have been, along with me, an integral part of Hospice since its inception in 1989.

Our group has been underused for a long time, but we are always available to assist our congregants in need. Confidentiality is respected. You may call any one of us at any time if such a need arises. We are available throughout the year.

Therefore, I am giving a heartfelt thank you to: Amy Berkowitz, Pam Haas, Connie Levin, Elaine Smith, Barbara Shay-Martin and Ellen Goldblatt.

HAVDALAH IN THE HOME

The Havdalah at Home group met at the home of Barbara and Steve Clarke, on April 21st. We started with the chant Layehudim followed by Brachot Havdalah, Shavua Tov and Eliyahu Hanavi. We took advantage of the end of Shabbat by allowing a minute of personal prayer requests and used an upbeat version of the traditional Oseh Shalom at the end of the prayers.

Everyone was so moved by our Shoah service Friday night that Barb's addition of Hatikvah at the end of the service was a heartfelt boost.

Good food and conversation followed. A special thanks to Noah and Emily Freedman for bringing us New Mexican Wine.

If you would like to join the group or form your own, contact Bob at bobnmarians@aol.com. Adding your name to the list will only cost a pot luck contribution when you come. Advice is free.

SISTERHOOD TO SPEND SUMMER PREPPING AND PLANNING FOR NEXT YEAR!

Last month, Sisterhood members and friends spent a fabulous evening celebrating our Closing Dinner and "Torah in the Home" with Rabbi Rigler. We multi-tasked that night at Mary Ann Gould's house by also completing a Social Action Project. Together, we prepared 100 lunches for the Life Center of Eastern Delaware County.

We became closer to each other with the help of photographs of ourselves that we brought along. Women chanted in Hebrew from the Torah and others read in English. We recapped our successful Sisterhood year and were treated to a review of the experiences two of our members had at the URJ Biennial last fall. Our evening culminated in a delicious dinner.

Sisterhood is proud of all that we've done this year and what we've accomplished. For example, did you know that we recently delivered $1,000 in scrip to the Life Center and also earned an additional $50 that went to the Temple, based on Sisterhood's Bimah Basket and scrip sales?

Our expectations are that next year will be even more exciting, fun, involving and fulfilling. We are gearing up with lots of plans! Please join us.

We'd love to see you at our final Sisterhood Board Meeting of the season, on Thursday evening, June 7th at 7:30 PM in the Temple Library. Our Board meetings are open to all and we welcome your presence and opinions.

For questions about next year's Sisterhood plans, or about Sisterhood in general, please contact sisterhood@temple-sholom.org or call Donna Hendel at 561-445-0021.

SISTERHOOD EXPERIENCES TORAH IN THE HOME!

Gloria Kresch chants Torah while SH president, Donna Hendel watches.

The Sisterhood of Temple Sholom chose my home for this year's Closing Dinner. Not to disappoint my sisters, I began the search for "the Right" program for the night. There it was in the Tidings: Torah in the Home with Rabbi Rigler! Our sincere appreciation goes to Rabbi Rigler for his instrumental help in planning the evening.

On a personal level, the expectation of having the Torah in our home was met with meditation using my favorite activities: cleaning and gardening. Several nights I went to sleep not knowing if those early planted annuals would survive the cold. I send many thanks to Samuel and Joanna Gould for putting up with my driver mode and working hard without question. Torah in the Home requires buy in from household members.

The day before our event, we sent one dog to New Jersey for a vacation; Sisterhood members: Cindy Verbofsky, Evi Elias, Donna Hendel, Hilda Arnold, Bev Granoff and Cindy Meyer joined me for lunch. We spent the afternoon washing, chopping and talking. This is Sisterhood in action. Numerous calls from Sisterhood members assured that we had enough pencils, crackers and challah. God answered my prayers for sun. I should have included calm and warm in my prayer, as by late afternoon we were committed to being inside.

We made 100 lunches for the Life Care Center. Sisterhood members donated the supplies. We ate, drank, worked and talked our way thru appetizer hour. This is Sisterhood in Action!

Imagine the Torah wrapped in our Religious School Tallit sitting on your dining table. My Sisters put on their tallit, one for the first time. Rabbi gave an inspiring D'var Torah followed by a group activity on "How I am holy." Gloria Kresch, Donna Hendel, Nancy Handwerger (our newest Sisterhood member) and Joanna Gould chanted Torah. Shirley Birenbaum, Laurie Burstein-Maxwell, Amy Cylinder, Evi Elias, Linda Hershman and Margaret Husick read. This is Sisterhood in action!

We ate, talked, shared and laughed. We heard about each other's life. We networked. We cared. Yes, this is Sisterhood in Action. Torah in our home was one of the most meaningful experiences I have had. I thank Rabbi Rigler, my Sisters and my children for making the evening very special.

~ Mary Ann Gould

Louise Schmidt, Barbara Barr, Stella Maser, Fran Epstein and Rebecca Parmet enjoy the Torah wrapped in the tallit made by the hands of our children.

TODAH RABAH TO KIM & LARRY SEGAL
SUNDAY CAFÉ COORDINATORS

Our Sunday Café has been up and running in the Lobby for three years. During this time, a core of outstanding volunteers has baked and donated food, beverages and their time to sell goodies and coffee to the parents and children of Temple Sholom. Kim and Larry Segal have skillfully coordinated the Café for first and second sessions of Religious School for all three years. Each week they assure supplies and volunteers who come early to start the coffee and stay late to clean and pack up the supplies. The proceeds of the Café benefit the Religious School and part is donated to tzedakah. In three years, the Café has raised thousands of dollars!

Todah Rabah to Kim and Larry, for their continuous efforts on behalf of the children, teachers and parents of Temple Sholom. Your efforts are an inspiration to all of us.

We are now seeking new Cafe Coordinator(s) for the 2012-2013 school year. If you would like to coordinate first and/or second session please contact Mary Ann Gould at ogouldma@msn.com or 610.356.4725.

THANKS FROM KIM,
RETIRING LOBBY CAFÉ COORDINATOR

Dear Temple Families,

I want to thank you all by name for all your support and assistance with running the Café and baking for the Café this year. I also want to thank the congregation as a whole, especially the kids and Sunday Religious School teachers for purchasing our goodies. I have enjoyed working with each and every one of you. We have a wonderful group of Religious School families. I understand how hard it is to get to the Temple on Sunday mornings and then, add baking or purchasing goodies to your busy schedules. I look forward to another great and successful year in the fall. When a new Café coordinator steps up, I will be happy to assist them during the fall learning the ropes of running the Sunday Café. The Café coordinator can be more than one person; it could be two or three folks covering morning and afternoon shifts, by the season or by the month. So please, think about joining the Café team and volunteering now.

RELIGIOUS AND HEBREW SCHOOL NOTES

Around Our School...

As I sit in my office I hear echoes of children learning, laughing, and singing. These echoes are not real, but are mere memories of a school year gone by. The classrooms and hallways are now empty and silent ... except for the memories. Many people ask me if I am "off" in the summer. The answer is a resounding "No"! True, the pace is a bit slower, the phone rings a bit less, but the task of educating our next generation is a year-round journey.

This summer the faculty and I will be exploring new paths along this journey. Have you noticed? Education (both secular and Jewish) is much different than it was when most of us went to school. Our technology is different. Our world is different. The way in which children learn is different. And we, as a Reform Jewish educational institution, are up to the task of recognizing these differences and teaching accordingly. The faculty and I are excited to be taking on this task and, after some summer down time, will be ready with innovative and relevant 21st century learning. We will meet each learner's real needs, real situations, and real questions. Our education will address individual students in their uniqueness and engage the whole person, not just the part that is labeled, "Jewish".

So, am I "off" in the summer? No, this is when the real work and creativity of our educational program takes place. Stop by and visit!

Have a safe, fun-filled and relaxing summer. Whether you travel far or stay close to home, make sure to see the world through Jewish eyes. Give tzedakah to those in need, celebrate Shabbat and say Shehechyanu when seeing something beautiful in our world. Judaism is part of our lives each and every day!

ETTA NATALIE ROSENBLATT PRESCHOOL

We Did It! A Super Successful Year at the Preschool at Temple Sholom!

It seems like yesterday when I started at the Temple Sholom Preschool last fall, but here we are at the end of the school year! In this past year, we have grown to almost twice the size of where we started back in September. Our Preschool is a happy, busy, engaging place for our students and their families. In short, "We did it!" We had a great year filled with personal growth for our students and professional growth for our excellent team of teachers and aides.

Our end of the year activities were amazing. For Israel Independence Day, we had passports and "flew" to Israel. "In Israel," we did many exciting things including an archeology dig, visiting the Kotel and touring a kibbutz. Before preparing for our Graduation Ceremony, we also celebrated Lag B'Omer together and practiced our Shabbat prayers and songs.

Looking ahead to the 2012-2013 school year, I am happy to report that the classes are filling up. We are opening a new "Junior Kindergarten Class" and working on new and exciting programs and activities for our students. If you haven't signed up yet or know someone who is thinking about registering a child, please have them contact my office. A warm welcome and a wonderful Preschool experience is waiting for you and your children.

Have a safe and refreshing summer. Looking to seeing everyone when Preschool opens next Fall!

~ Shalom, Liz Sussman, Early Childhood Education Director

THE PRESCHOOL TAKES A TRIP TO ISRAEL!

Miss Liz leads the way ...

Passports in hand, our travelers board their plane ... to Israel!

The adventures continue at a Kibbutz.

JUNE B'NAI MITZVAH

Alec Robert Rubinoff, son of Mark and Betsy Rubinoff, will become a Bar Mitzvah on June 2nd.

Joining him in this special day will be his brothers Nick, Ethan and Crosby and sister, Leah; and his grandmother from Pittsburgh, PA , grandmother from Naples, FL, great-uncle and aunt from Toronto, Canada, aunt and uncle and cousin from Boston, MA.

A Springton Lake Middle School, 7th grader, Alec enjoys Cross Country Team, camping, and fishing.

Alec is working with the adult Special Olympics swim class for his Mitzvah Project. They meet every Monday evening at the Rocky Run YMCA.

Dylan Rose Rein, daughter of Merraine and John Rein, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, June 9th. Sharing her special day will be her brother, Max, and friends and relatives from all over the country. Dylan's grandparents, Eileen and Newton Berger and Dorothy and Jack Rein will be with her in spirit.

A 7th grader at Tredyffrin-Easttown Middle School, Dylan is an honor roll student and is involved in a wide variety of extracurricular activities such as her school's TV Studio, yearbook, volleyball and track teams. She also takes voice lessons, loves music, skiing and Camp Timber Tops.

For her mitzvah project, Dylan spent time interviewing and getting to know a Holocaust refugee. A copy of Dylan's finished booklet will be available for everyone to read at her Bat Mitzvah service. Showing her love for animals, especially dogs, Dylan's Bimah baskets will be filled with items to be donated to a local animal shelter.

Samuel Johnathan Brown, son of Debbie and Mike Brown, will be called to the Torah on June 23rd. Sam will share his special day with his siblings, Anastasia and Max; great-grandparents, Ben and Bella Tannenbaum from Florida; grandparents, Joel and Terry Brown from New Jersey; grandfather Jim Saylor, from New Jersey; along with other relatives and friends from New York, New Jersey and Maryland.

Sam is a 7th grader at Springton Lake Middle School where he played soccer and wrestled. He enjoys playing basketball and baseball, but his favorite sport is soccer. The Gunners, Sam's travel soccer team, recently made the quarter finals in the state. He's also in the Philadelphia Union's soccer training program.

Sam's Mitzvah project is Soccer for All. The organization is for kids that are below the poverty line and for kids whose parents aren't home after school. It's located in Trenton, NJ. Mike and Sam planned a day to help out during the program. The kids were ages K-8. They worked with the students as they scrimmaged each other. Sam felt good about helping the kids have a great experience playing soccer.

In his free time, Sam likes to hang out with friends; play outside sports with Max; play video games; watch Sports Center and sporting events; and hang with his dog, Harvey.

MITZVAH CORPS Wants to Help You!

The Temple Sholom Mitzvah Corps has many wonderful members who want to aid others in the congregation who have needs such as: help setting up a shiva house or with a shiva meal, a ride to the doctor or the supermarket or to the Temple, experienced help in a home with a new baby, a meal or meals for someone home from the hospital, etc. This is the kind of help that sometimes friends or family are not able to provide. Once, we even helped a congregant set up a room for his wife who was returning home after major surgery.

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY

On Wednesday, June 27th at 7:30 PM, Rabbi Stacy Rigler will be presenting a thought provoking program to Women's Spirituality from the Torah portion for the week.

--- And Moses lifts up his hand and with his rod he hits the rock twice ---

There are many biblical interpretations regarding Moses' actions. At the time, the Israelites were very irritating to Moses. He couldn't take all the irritation, so he let out his anger on the rock. How do we relate to this portion? What does it tell us? What can we learn from it? How do we react to others when we are angry or irritated? Sometimes it is not what we do, but what we say. What are the results or outcome from our anger? How can the lessons to this portion help us with our relations with others and guide us in our own personal spiritual journey? All women of Temple Sholom are welcome to join us as Rabbi Stacy Rigler guides us in finding the answers to these questions and more. Meet with us in the Library on Wednesday, June 27th at 7:30 PM as we explore anger and controlling our tempers.

You are also invited to join us in the Sanctuary for Jewish meditation practice at 6:30 PM. Meditation gives us a chance to use the words and teachings from our Jewish traditions and build on the meaning from them to grow in our spiritual experience. This might be a wonderful opportunity before we explore anger and controlling our tempers, which follows, when we will be meeting in the Library for Women's Spirituality at 7:30 PM.

SPECIAL NOTICE: SUMMER BOOK TO READ!

In conclusion, please put a note on your calendars for our July 25th book discussion, on "A SPIRITUAL LIFE: A Jewish Feminist Journey" by Merle Feld. The book can be bought 'used' at amazon.com (remember to use the Amazon link on the Temple Sholom home page when you shop). Don't miss this opportunity to enjoy sharing this Women's Spirituality session as we conclude for the 2011-2012 season.
