

YOM HASHOAH - EVERYONE HAS A NAME

Each of us has a name
given by God
and given by our parents
Each of us has a name
given by our stature and our smile and given by what we wear
Each of us has a name
given by the mountains and given by our walls
Each of us has a name
given by the stars
and given by our neighbors
Each of us has a name
given by our sins
and given by our longing
Each of us has a name
given by our enemies
and given by our love
Each of us has a name
given by our celebrations and given by our work
Each of us has a name
given by the seasons
and given by our blindness
Each of us has a name
given by the sea and given by our death.

FROM THE DESK OF RABBI RIGLER

Dear Friends,

Holocaust Remembrance Day (Yom Hashoah) allows us to memorialize the greatest tragedy experienced by the Jewish people in modern times. It reminds us that, wrapped up in that unfathomable horror, were millions of individual lives—real people with real stories. It is up to us to learn and share these stories on their behalf. Together, we say we must never forget. We mourn the millions who perished in the Shoah: six million Jews, tens of thousands of Romanians, along with gays and lesbians, disabled people, Communist sympathizers, and others the Nazis considered "inferior." Surely the attempt to destroy a people is one of the worst abominations human history can encompass.

The obligation to remember the Shoah has two components: memory, and action. This year we will be joining with the Synagogue in our kehillah to remember just a fraction of the names of those who perished! I remember as a high school student the power of reading those names and it has stayed with me! This is exactly why we wanted to run this program! Our work is a way of keeping the names of those who perished as a memory and blessing. I can't help but think of the words of the Israeli poet Zelda and pray that the memories and blessings of those who perished will never be extinguished!

B'shalom

~ Rabbi Peter Rigler

In observance, names of victims of the Holocaust will be read out loud for a period of twenty-four hours. We begin at 7:00 PM on Sunday, April 7th with a memorial service conducted by the Rabbis and Cantors of the Kehillah of Delaware County. Following the service, we will continue reading the names of victims in 15 (fifteen) minute intervals throughout the evening and through the following day. On Monday, April 8th at 7:00 PM, the students and staff of Temple Sholom will host a concluding memorial service. All are welcome to attend. The service and reading of the names will be broadcast live on the web at <http://www.temple-sholom.org/aboutus/join/#FlashPlayer>.

You are invited to participate by signing up for a time slot (please no more than three) to read names from the bimah of Temple Sholom. Instructions and a list of names will be made available on the bimah when you arrive. A volunteer from Temple Sholom will be on hand to answer any questions.

Please join us in this community observance and sign up for reading times below.

If you have any questions, please contact me at rabbi@temple-sholom.org.

forward is our goal and we will support you on your journey.

The course will begin April 2 and meet for 7 to 8 weeks on Tuesdays at 7:00 PM in the Temple Library. The class is free of charge.

CANTOR SHAPIRO'S MESSAGE

By the time you read this article, Passover will have passed us over! At present, I am neck-deep in preparations for the holiday, both in my role as cantor, and in my own home. Growing up in a secular household, Pesach was one of the few holidays that we observed. Its message of freedom from oppression rang true as an abiding value for my family and had a great impact upon me as a child. The holiday itself is a beacon of springtime and for that reason alone it could bring a smile to my lips. The theme of rebirth is evidenced by the egg on our seder plate, and in many households the boiled egg that we eat as a first course during the festive meal.

During this season, we read from the Song of Songs. This book of love poetry made it into our biblical canon by way of the sages, who likened the imagery of human love and longing to a loving relationship between God and the Jewish people. Springtime is beautifully evoked with these words (Song of Songs 2: 11-12):

*For lo, the winter is passed, the rain is over and gone.
The flowers appear on the earth; the time of singing has come and the voice of the turtle-dove is heard in our land.*

As you can imagine, the text from Song of Songs lends itself beautifully toward musical treatments and has been set by composers from Salamone Rossi in the 16th century to contemporary composers such as Peri Smilow and Julie Silver.

While during our seders here in Pennsylvania, we were still threatened with the possibility of snow, by now these words should ring true. In the Song of Songs and in many other contexts, our tradition calls us to relate to beauty of our physical environment. Yet, we often find ourselves inside, tucked away from noticing the natural world that surrounds us. I often think about this dilemma during our Shabbat services in the sanctuary. We have a skylight in the sanctuary. When the wind hits it just right it makes a whistling sound. I've noticed that the sound sometimes bothers or confuses congregants during the service. I actually love the sound. It is an aural reminder that while we are cozily enjoying Shabbat indoors, that natural world, sometimes beautiful, sometimes treacherous, is just outside our walls. The presence of that sound helps me connect to nature even while inside the walls of our sanctuary.

As spring approaches, let us take time to hear the voices of the birds in our neighborhoods, smell the green things emerging in bud and see the flowers as they unfurl. May this springtime be full of beauty for you and yours!

B'shirah ~ Cantor Kerith Spencer-Shapiro

NEWS FROM THE OFFICE

Director's Corner

As the weather turns warmer, we really feel the year flying by. If you think the time is passing quickly now, brace yourselves as the High Holy Days begin the evening of Wednesday, September 4th!

We frequently mention that your good word to others is the best way to maintain and increase our membership at Temple Sholom. And, it is certainly true that congregants join our Temple at all times during the year. So, please let everyone know about our vibrant and warm congregation. Let me know if you have prospective members and we will be certain to reach out to them and provide them with information and an introduction to Temple Sholom in a timely fashion; which is even more important this year as our holidays arrive so early.

Temple Sholom strives to make membership available to everyone who is interested. We have programs, services, activities and groups that appeal to a variety of different groups. Did you know that we also have financial aid available for those who qualify? In addition to financial aid through our Temple, we have grants from our Satell Fund (The Satell Family Growth Development Fund). If you need financial aid or know of prospective members who may need some financial support, please consider, and again, spread the word, about our financial aid opportunities.

As the seasons change and the holidays come and go, our community continues to grow and thrive. Thank you for being an integral part of our Temple community and thank you for taking the time to spread the word about all that we have to offer.

A WORD FROM THE BOARD

Spring is my favorite time of the Jewish year. I like a lot of things about the spring: longer days, spending time outside before it gets too hot and Purim and Passover - my favorite holidays. In a lot of ways these two holidays are pretty different, but what makes them my favorites is the food. It's not just the eating that I like (which I like a lot), but it's also watching my kids getting involved. They say the way to one's heart is through the stomach and my family has definitely taken these holidays to their hearts because of the food.

Hamentaschen baking at my house takes the whole day. My wife quadruples the recipe she got from her grandmother – we don't know how many generations it goes back. It's not easy mixing and kneading all of this dough, but she gets a lot of help from the kids. The dough spends the night in the refrigerator and then the fun part starts. For hours, someone is on duty rolling out the dough and cutting out circles. Everyone is involved filling and shaping the hamentaschen. Our favorite fillings are cherry and apricot jams and Hershey kisses and we've adopted a synagogue favorite, brownie, into the mix as well. We all love eating these cookies; in my completely biased opinion these are better than any hamentaschen I've had at Temple Shalom. They're extra good knowing that at least one more generation will want to have the recipe.

If Purim is the "sweet" holiday, then Passover is the "savory" holiday. Put the Seder Plate and matzah aside, I like the matzah balls and gefilte fish. Matzah balls are my family's favorite, no matter how many we make there never seems to be enough. They are the only Passover food that we eat the rest of the year. Most of us like them fluffy, but there is a growing minority who like them hard. I wouldn't be surprised if we don't start making both in a few years. My mother-in-law stopped making her own gefilte fish from scratch a few years ago, now she recooks store-bought fish and I'm a big fan, not just the fish, but carrots and onions too. It hasn't quite caught on with the kids yet, though. My most adventurous eater will eat a little with horseradish; the others won't even try it. More for me!

I can only speak for myself on the topic of Passover desserts, but they really don't excite me very much. One dessert I associate with Passover are Manischewitz candied fruit slices. I had to sell these as part of a fund raiser for my Hebrew school - did anyone else have to do this? My mother-in-law is going to teach my kids how to make pesadich hazelnut bars. They're good, but I prefer to spend most of my calories earlier in the meal. Sure, we could go with a flourless chocolate torte or a flan, but these don't really say "Passover" to me.

If you have any favorites, send me the recipe at stevequerido@yahoo.com. I'd love a new family tradition to eat.

All families have their own traditions that they pass on. In our house, food helps us do just that, though I'm not sure we always planned it that way. It's a good thing that Purim and Passover happen in the spring – I need to get outside and exercise after all this eating!

~ Steve Querido, Board Member

BLOOD DRIVE – THE BEST ONE YET!

A huge thank you for all of you who supported the American Red Cross blood program. The final results of the Tuesday, March 12th blood drive at Temple Shalom were the following:

Thirty-nine (39!) people registered to give and 35 pints of life-saving blood were collected! Since each pint collected can benefit as many as three patients, approximately 105 patients may be helped from the blood collected from last month's drive.

Please mark your calendar for our next drive, Wednesday, June 26th.

Making a blood drive a success doesn't only involve giving blood. I am seeking someone to help promote and recruit for future blood drives, if you are interested, please contact Sandy at skcohen@temple-shalom.org

CELEBRATING PURIM IN TRUE TEMPLE SHOLOM STYLE!!!

Les Megillah

Move over, Anne Hathaway. Step aside, Hugh Jackman! Temple Sholom's Spielers took home accolades for their performance of "Les Megillah" on Saturday, February 23rd. Our own Cantor Shapiro's creative search brought this witty and wildly funny script to Temple Sholom. Written by a prolific creator of Purim

Spiels, New York-based Norman Roth, "Les Megillah" is the story of Esther told through the music of longtime Broadway hit and new silver-screen-sensation Les Misérables.

The spiel was co-directed by Cantor Shapiro and congregant David Ingram, a theater professor, director, and actor. Rehearsals and the performance were enhanced by the beautiful piano accompaniment of the steady and talented Ann Byun. The multi-generational cast shared many laughs at the witty parallels drawn between the original script and this parody. One of the most clever moments was the transformation of the sad ballad of longing, "On My Own," into "On My Phone" (armed with a little technology and unlimited access to social media, loneliness can be overcome).

The cast members, some seasoned performers, themselves, included: Brianna Jaffe as Logo, Joel Kutner as King Ahasumarius, Andrea Kalan as Queen Vashti, Howard Cylinder as Jean Val Mordechai, Julie Leavitt as Haman Javert, Sarah Vuocolo as Esther Cosette, Zev Spencer-Shapiro as Gavroche, Hannah Shanefield as Msr. Thenardiere, and Rachel Thomas as Mme. Thenardiere. Rounding out the cast were narrators, soloists, and chorus members: Pablo Fierros, Justin Kalan, Jona Lieberman, Lisa Mintzer, Steve Granoff, Steve Querido, Carl Miller, Arlana Gottlieb, Abigail Kanes, Elise

Ingram, Abby Kesselman, and Jolie Jaffe. Kol Sholom, choreographed by Gillian Watson, was also featured in the number "Little People."

The dress rehearsal was photographed by Mike Pottiger and the spiel was video recorded by Jim Meyer. Ideas for next year's annual Temple Sholom Purim Spiel are already in the pipeline - you won't want to miss it! Or maybe you find yourself just itching to walk the red carpet - if so, be sure to come on out for auditions!

Purim 'Pre-Spiel'

The question is: How many people can fit in the lobby of Temple Sholom? Then factor in many tables overladen with goodies - fruit, home baked hamantaschen, cheese, crackers, wine, grape juice, and did I mention hamantaschen? And the answer is not enough. Sharing food and drink with Temple family members provided a lovely prequel to the Purim spiel. A special thank you goes out to new members Jackie and Art Matusow for their help in preparation, Evalyn Elias for ALWAYS being there, to all those wonderful people who baked and shared and to Edible Arrangements for their donation of an edible centerpiece.

The Webcast: They ARE Tuning In!

I received this note from Daniel Albert, son of Laurie and David, (Daniel, a graduate of Brandeis, is now a High School math teacher in Massachusetts and tunes in regularly):

One of my friends from Brandeis who still lives in Boston asked me to pass this along. She's far from home and didn't have a Spiel to go to this weekend, so I told her about ours and gave her the link (as I had done for one or two services in the past).

After the thoroughly entertaining spiel, she told me this:

"Pass along my thanks to your shul/whomever is in charge of the webcast, if you would. Their webcasts have helped during multiple dark times and I can't adequately express how much it means to me."

TOP CHEF FUNDRAISER

I'd like to thank the Temple Staff for preparing 5 trays of pasta and meatballs for Saturday evening's Top Chef fundraiser. It was a great touch to add zucchini and peppers to the recipe. Our contest entry was both delicious and popular with the attendees. Alas, St. Demetrios Greek Orthodox Church took first place for the second straight year. I must say, their Pastitsio was a crowd pleaser and they had the most voters from their church.

Again, thank you for purchasing and preparing so much food for the fundraiser. It helped make the evening both a culinary and financial success. And The Life Center was thrilled to receive leftovers for use at the shelter this weekend.

SISTERHOOD - "PLANNING" IS THE WORD FOR APRIL!

Our Sisterhood is excited to announce a few changes and plans for the end of this year and the beginning of next.

The last two years have been chock-full of enthusiastically attended programs and events and we want to make sure we continue in that direction. That's why I'm personally (and absolutely delighted) to announce that Frances Epstein will be joining me as Co-President next year. Fran has been intimately involved in nearly every program we've had in recent times, and she's able, ready, willing and looking forward to sharing the leadership of Sisterhood for 2013 to 2014. I can't think of any woman who is more qualified than Fran to undertake this lofty responsibility.

Also, she's so much fun to be around and I look forward to having Fran at my side to share all the Sisterhood leadership experiences with me.

Jingle, jangle, jingle, jangle. Our Tambourine Event was such a success! Every woman who participated really enjoyed herself, and the results were tambourines of colorful artistry. Many thanks are due to Barbara Litt and Andi Lieberman, our Temple Sholom resident artists, who lent their craftsmanship to make our event an afternoon of sisterly bonding and artistic endeavor. See our results in the photo on the cover of this month's Tidings!

Some of the creative tambourines were shared last month at Sisterhood Shabbat, when we danced with our timbrels to Miriam's Song. Thank you very much to Barbara Barr who worked with Cantor Shapiro to inspire us in worship that night, and to Barbara's committee of Evalyn Elias, Cindy Meyer and Louise Schmidt.

Many of our Sisterhood plans for next year will be unveiled at a special meeting to be held on April 3rd.

Thank you so much to Cindy Verbofsky and Linda Phillips from The Gift Garden who offered wine tasting and refreshments prior to the Purim Spiel. Both Cindy and Linda were also on hand to sell Sisterhood wine at the Purim Carnival the next day.

Although we will not be holding our April 25 Crafty Service Project this year, Linda Hershman and Julie Leavitt have already met and started planning for this event, which will take place in the spring of 2014. I'm excited already!

There are many ways to support the social action cause that Sisterhood has adopted for this year. We are working with Barbara Clarke and her Walk MS on Sunday, April 21 in East Goshen Township Park. Even if you can't join Barbara and her S'myelin Walkers' team, it would be wonderful if you would make a donation in her honor. Please visit Barbara's Multiple Sclerosis user-friendly website at: <https://secure3.convio.net/nmss/site/SPageServer?pagename=WLK PAE Landing Page&search=true>.

Thanks are due to the Sisterhood members who helped out at the congregational Second Seder. Your hard work and dedication help make this important Passover Seder run smoothly.

The Gift Garden has a special sale this month and you won't want to miss it! All of their jewelry is on sale. Add your Sisterhood discount to your purchase and it will be so easy to justify some new jewelry that you feel you "just have to have!"

Our Closing Event is still in the planning stages, but be sure to mark your calendar for Thursday, May 23rd. Details will be in the May issue of The Temple Tidings, so all I can say right now is, bring your appetites!

Last month, the Sisterhood Book Club had a rousing discussion of "The Language of Flowers." We'd love to have you join us on May 9th when we will meet to talk about Alice Hoffman's "The Dove Keepers." This is a wonderful opportunity to become closer with Sisterhood members ... and eat some delicious refreshments, too!

Please join us at April's Sisterhood Board Meeting to learn the specifics of our plans for next year and changes in leadership. Be sure to note the change of date: we will be meeting on Thursday, April 4th in the Temple Library at 7:30 PM. Your input is always welcome, and we'd love to have you join our meeting. You do not need to be a board member to attend.

It is always the right time to become involved with your Temple Family by joining in with your sisters in Sisterhood. We welcome you with open arms! Please join us.

For questions about any of our events, to become involved in Sisterhood, or Sisterhood in general, please contact me at 561-445-0021 or send Fran Epstein or me an email at sisterhood@temple-sholom.org.

~ Donna Hendel, Sisterhood President

HELP THE LIBRARY AND WORK FROM HOME!

We receive contributions to the Weiner Library Fund that benefits the library. We need a volunteer to work from home to review the monthly "The Temple Tidings" and send handwritten thank you notes to those who donate to our Library. On average we get one contribution per month.

If you are interested in helping us acknowledge our donations while doing a mitzvah for the Library, please contact Mary Ann Gould at ogouldma21@yahoo.com or call 610-356-4725.

BROTHERHOOD IN APRIL

Join us for Brotherhood Shabbat on April 26th when we welcome Mahmoud Halloak, a young student from Syria, who will share his story with us, and of course, stay afterwards for the Brotherhood sponsored Oneg.

Looking ahead to May we encourage Temple congregants to come have brunch on Sunday, May 19th at 10:00 AM and listen to a guest speaker from J-Street. J Street is the political home for pro-Israel, pro-peace Americans fighting for the future of Israel. J Street advocates for immediate, bold, and sustained US leadership toward a resolution of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. The speaker will be Jon Grabelle Herrmann, J Street Field Director. J Street is a national organization with 180,000 supporters, 750 rabbis and 46 chapters, including J Street Philadelphia. The brunch is free for Brotherhood members. Guests are charged $10.

Brotherhood wishes you well and looks forward to seeing you soon.

SISTERHOOD SOCIAL ACTION: WE'RE TAKING A WALK FOR MS

Each year Sisterhood chooses a "cause" to support as a group. This year we have chosen to put on our walking shoes in support of Multiple Sclerosis.

"I am honored that Sisterhood has chosen to sponsor me and this year's MS Walk because I am passionate about research currently being conducted to find the cause of MS. It is my hope that a drug will be developed to stop my MS from progressing and that researchers will find a way to restore lost function."

It is only with ongoing research and study that my dreams of finding solutions to MS will happen.

APRIL B'NAI MITZVAH

Gabriel Isaac Bryant, son of Earl and Dalia Bryant, will become a Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, April 6th. Sharing in Gabriel's special day will be his sister Alex; brother Aaron, and coming in from California will be grandmother Jutta Nussbaum, aunt Bernice, uncle Jason, cousins Liat, Hannah and Izzie; and uncle Brent, aunt Wendy, cousins Jacob, Tyler and Chloe. Coming in from Pittsburgh will be grandparents Earl and Lynda Bryant, aunt Cassie, uncle Scott, and cousins Cort and Amanda, and aunt Kim and uncle Eric.

A Paxon Hollow Middle School 7th grader on the honor roll, Gabriel enjoys playing sports and guitar.

Gabriel says:

I am working with kids who are physically and/or mentally challenged and who are involved with the Challenger baseball division. I really enjoy spending time with such enthusiastic and energetic kids and watching them do something they love to do. Helping them work on catching, throwing and running the bases has been a great experience and has really helped me to appreciate all the wonderful things I have in my life.

Pablo and Diego Fierros, sons of Judith Giesberg and Edward Fierros, will become B'nai Mitzvah on Saturday, April 20th. Join these young men in their special day will be their sister, Marisol, grandparents Mary Helen and Jose Fierros from Texas; grandparents Irma and Walter Giesberg also from Texas; aunt Karen and uncle Larry Curran from Massachusetts; aunt Kathy and uncle Eric Pitocchelli also from Massachusetts; aunt Dora Dumont from Rhode Island; and family friend Mindy Kornhaber from State College.

Pablo is a Haverford Middle School 8th grader who enjoys writing, listening to music, playing the flute, running and watching B-movies. Diego is a Haverford High School 10th grader who enjoys robotics, participating in the Science Olympiad, working on theater tech crews, and singing in chorus.

For his Mitzvah Project, Pablo has worked with homeless mothers & children with Sister Anne at Our Mother of Good Counsel Church on Lancaster Avenue for five years. In this program, Pablo plays with and takes care of children one day every other month, while his parents spend time with the mothers of the children. Additionally, Pablo raised money for the Lymphoma Society by running a raffle to see how long he could grow his hair, and then he donated his hair to Locks of Love. Pablo has served several meals at the Life Center of Delaware County.

Diego has worked at Our Mother of Good Counsel Church over the years. He also volunteered at the Temple helping with computer-related tasks. He, too, has served meals at the Life Center of Delaware County and at the Broad Street Ministry.

Both boys are grateful for their relationship with Sister Anne and the work they have done with the families there and look forward to continuing to work in the program for years to come. Diego and Pablo would like to thank Elizabeth Bloch for tutoring them in Hebrew and Rabbi Rigler and Cantor Shapiro for their help preparing for their B'nai Mitzvah.

Matthew Richard Segal, son of Larry and Kimberly Segal, will become a Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, April 27th. Joining Matthew will be his grandparents Gigi and Pop Pop Segal from Florida; aunt Donna and uncle Joe Segal from California; grandfather, Sada, along with cousin Quinn, aunt Shannon and uncle J-Edward Kirk from North Carolina; grandparents Grammy Donna and GrandPa also North Carolina. Cousins from New York City, Boston, Massachusetts; Hartford, Connecticut; Vermont, Albany, New York, and Washington, DC, will also be coming to be part of his big day.

In Matthew's own words:

I am on the honor roll at Paxon Hollow Middle School and I'm in the 7th grade.

My two biggest interests are soccer and music. I have been playing the tenor saxophone for four years and I am in the Middle School band. In October of 2012, the Paxon Hollow school band participated in the Halloween parade in Media, PA. I enjoy playing futbol (soccer) with Marple Township and I play as a forward. In fall of 2012, our team won the soccer championship. I also am a member of the boy scouts and every summer for the last 5 years, I have attended a boys Jewish camp in Thurmont, MD called Camp Airy. I enjoy playing with my two dogs and my cat. I like to travel a lot with my family throughout the United States and Canada.

For my Mitzvah Project, I worked at Martins Run in the Meadows nursing home. I played games with the residents like bingo, solitaire, and hangman. Some of them shared memories of when they were young by bringing in pictures and videos. I brought in our dog, Suzy, to Martins Run for pet therapy and they enjoyed it very much. One older man told me about his time in WWII. He didn't fight in the war; instead he stayed back and made guns for the soldiers. I was very interested in all the elderly folks had to share with me, and I realize how important it is to interact and listen to their stories. I played old songs on my saxophone for the residents like "Camp Town Races", "Oseh Shalom", and many other songs that I knew that they would know. In February, I helped my family make a tuna noodle casserole for the Life Center of Eastern Delaware County. I stood behind the food line and handed out silverware to people waiting for a home cooked meal. I joked and laughed with people in line and I could see in their faces how much they appreciated the volunteers who served them a meal. I enjoyed preparing and serving food for the shelter and it is something I will do again. Volunteering at Martins Run has made me appreciate my own grandparents even more, as I know I can learn so much from them.

During the year at Temple Shalom I have learned how important it is to help people and the joy that comes with it. I will be continuing my Jewish education as I prepare for Confirmation classes next year. I want to thank my parents, grandparents, Hebrew teachers, and friends for supporting me while preparing for my Bar Mitzvah.

ETTA NATALIE ROSENBLATT PRESCHOOL

This last month has been incredible in our Preschool. We started with a Dr. Seuss Day.

Everyone made and wore Dr. Seuss and Cat-in-the-Hat hats. There were Dr. Seuss decorations everywhere. Miss Kelly's Pre-K Class was decorated with scenes from the Lorax story. They also did a super cool moustache project. Miss Liat's 3 Year old class made t-shirts illustrated with Thing 1 and Thing 2. Everyone had a great time on Dr. Seuss Day!

The big story, however, was our Preschool Passover. Each class learned Passover songs and held their own Seders. Some of the classes acted out the story of leaving Egypt. Other groups made diaramas which were incredible. Another class made their own Haggadot which were absolutely gorgeous and could proudly be used at home as well. Making charoset and other Passover foods was a lot of fun for the students. For sure, many Seders in our larger congregational family were thrilled to hear their youngest member sing the "Four Questions" they learned in Preschool this year.

Coming up is Yom HaAtzmaut (Israel Independence Day) and a We Sing Shabbat! The fun and learning never stop. Finally, registration for summer Camp and next fall have begun and the programs are filling up. If you have any questions, feel free to stop in or contact me and I will be glad to tell you all about all the wonderful things our Preschool offers!

CAMP MENSCHY AT TEMPLE SHOLOM IN BROOMALL

Our Menschy Mission

Etta Natalie Rosenblatt Pre-School at Temple Sholom in Broomall is opening its doors for the first time this summer. Our Mission is to continue our year long ritual of creating mensches, and making lasting memories. We will utilize the 'camp experience' to enrich, educate and entertain our children.

'Mensch' is the Yiddish word for 'human being', and stands for 'a person of integrity and honor'.

Daily Activities & Specials

Our days will consist of plenty of outdoor activities, including water play, playground time, and Counselor led projects and activities. We will celebrate Shabbat and Havdallah with the entire camp and staff, enjoy specials such as music, cooking, yoga, our own camp show, field games and meet our weekly goals to be the best mensches that we can be.

"HITLER'S PAWN" - HILLTOPPER PROGRAM RECAP

Many thanks to the Hilltoppers who joined us for the afternoon showing of the documentary film, "Hitler's Pawn" on March 21st. The film was narrated by Natalie Portman along with Margaret Bergmann Lambert - also known as Gretl Bergmann - giving a moving and eye opening account of the politics involved in the 1936 Berlin Olympics. We were able to get the full story of how Adolf Hitler prevented Margaret, a highly talented German/Jewish high jumper from participating in the Olympics. We were all amazed to learn that Margaret is the last living athlete who was banned from competing in the Berlin 1936 Olympics and will be celebrating her 99th birthday on April 14th. A lively discussion followed the film along with some additional information about other past Olympic events. All in all it was a stimulating afternoon. The film has now been presented to the Temple Sholom Religious School by the Hilltoppers for future viewing.

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY

Women's Spirituality is very pleased to welcome back Rabbi Michele Medwin on Wednesday, April 24th at 7:30 PM in the Temple Library. She will be continuing to teach from Abraham Joshua Heschel's book, "I Asked For Wonder: A Spiritual Anthology." We will be discussing his thoughts about humankind, the human predicament, human nature, and the human task. From the Introduction by Samuel H. Dresser, "This book in an act of gratitude to God for the vision and the way of Abraham Heschel." Join us as we continue our search for wonder through the words and thoughts of Abraham Joshua Heschel. It would be helpful whoever kept the two handouts when Rabbi Michele Medwin was here in November to please bring them for the meeting.

Before our program begins, join us for meditation and start your evening in the Sanctuary at 6:30 PM when Rabbi Michele Medwin will be leading us in Jewish Mystical Meditation. Please plan to arrive by 6:25 PM to be prepared for this special meditation experience.

"Coming soon in May" Rabbi Leah Berkowitz will be discussing "Midrash on Marriage." What's it like to be married to Moses? We can talk about such subjects as marriage, jealousy and balancing career and family July 24th will be a book discussion on Deborah Feldman's memoir entitled "Unorthodox." It is about her journey from being born into a strict Hasidic family in Brooklyn and her decision to leave that community in her early adult life. She had to give herself the voice and expression she needed to be at peace with herself. The book informs us about the positive and negative aspects of the narrow world she grew up in, her courage to take a stand outside of that world, and the price she paid and the rewards she gained for her eventual decision.

In closing, Women's Spirituality looks forward to welcoming all Temple Shalom women on Wednesday, April 24th. Meet with us in the Sanctuary for Jewish Mystical Meditation 6:30 PM - 7:15 PM then join us in the library for the program 7:30 PM - 9:00 PM.

Please Note: Donations to Women's Spirituality are welcomed and encouraged. All funds donated help make it possible for us to invite the knowledgeable scholars who teach us so much.

THE TRADITION GROWS

SERVING THE GENERATIONS...

PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

Levine's new memorial chapel, Trevoose, PA

For more than 117 years, the family-owned Joseph Levine & Son Memorial Chapel has maintained a high reputation for quality while serving generations in the Jewish community.

And now the tradition grows with our new Bucks County Memorial Chapel, in addition to our Philadelphia and Main Line locations.

Whether you need pre-arrangement assistance or time-of-need service, you can find it in any of our three convenient locations.

Our knowledge of and experience with Jewish traditions will insure that every detail of a funeral is handled efficiently, sensitively and at a most competitive rate. We are proud to offer the highest quality care.

Remember us. We are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, to answer your questions and to help.
