FROM THE DESK OF RABBI PETER RIGLER

The last six sections of the book of Exodus we learn about Bezalel, the man chosen to design and build the Tabernacle that carried the tablets of the law that Moses brought down from Sinai. (Exodus 38:22-39:31) He is the first artist and the first in a long line of Jews who are dedicated to art.

On the face of it, these verses describe the matter-of-fact building of a physical edifice. But this isn't merely an architectural plan. Rather, it's a description of a standard of beauty and meaning that would impress itself upon the soul of generations of Jews to come in the land of Israel and all the lands of the Diaspora.

Not just any craftsman could design and build this sacred structure. The necessary qualities are spelled out in the text:

"See, God has called by name Bezalel ... and filled him with the spirit of God, with wisdom (chochmah), with understanding (t'veunah), and with knowledge (da-at) in all work. And God instilled thoughts (lachshov machshavot) [in Bezalel's mind] in order for him to make designs of all kinds..." (Exodus 35:30-32)

From all this Bezalel is presented as a master craftsman and architect, seasoned by life's experiences, open-hearted and open-minded to the needs and insights of the people, inspired with a

Godly spirit, and understanding of the fundamental laws and truths at the core of creation.

The name "Bezalel" means "being in God's shadow." There are people today and throughout history who have made and do fine work replicating through drawing, painting, sculpture, and architecture what they see objectively in nature, and in the art and architecture of others. They seek, at the very least, to reconstruct what they see. The great artist, however, does more than repeat. They add something ineffable to the work – a deeper and broader vision that is unique to the artist.

One such artist was our treasured Barbara Blinder (z"l), who along with her beloved husband, Ted, was a founding family of our community. In her honor Ted has helped us create a special Oneg to celebrate the artists of our community. Please join us 6:30 p.m. Friday, March 6 prior to 8:00 p.m. Shabbat services for an Art show and wine and cheese reception featuring the work of our own Temple Sholom Artists.

NOTES FROM CANTOR JAMIE MARX . . .

Let's get goofy, in all senses of the word. While our holy days evoke all kinds of emotions, only one holiday is expressly for bringing out the silly, the madcap, the sublimely ridiculous: Purim! It's the upside-down holiday, when the formality of synagogue ritual is tossed aside for a day of laughter and joy. We are commanded to tell the story of brave Queen Esther and defiant Mordechai each year, and no Purim tradition is more beloved than the Purim shpiel.

This year we'll be performing "A Very Disney Purim Shpiel," featuring songs from your favorite Disney musicals: The Lion King, Beauty and the Beast, and of course, Frozen! Come see your friends and neighbors on the bima, singing their hearts out and having a great time. The shpiel will be performed on Wednesday, March 4 at 7:00 p.m. Hope to see you there!

TEMPLE SHOLOM ANNUAL APPEAL FUNDRAISER

The Annual Appeal, now being held in March, contributes to our vibrancy and financial stability by reducing the funding gap between our membership dues and the cost of all our many temple programs. A member of the Temple Board will be contacting each member in March for your pledge. Please give generously within your means to help support all our temple religious, holiday, music, family, and social support programs.

More information will be provided on how you can help support the important activities of our congregation at the time of our Annual Appeal.

Your Annual Appeal donation in March can be used for tax purposes (all gifts are fully tax deductible), on your 2015 tax returns. Simply make a check out to Temple Sholom in Broomall and include "Annual Appeal" in the memo line or use the Temple Sholom website to make a donation.

We appreciate those congregants who have already made a donation to our Annual Appeal, and will not be receiving a call during the appeal.

TANAKH STUDY WITH RABBI RIGLER

Wednesday

March 4, 11 & 25

at 10:30 am in the Library

Dear Friends,

Just as there are so many different aspects of our Temple community, there are many different hats we all wear in order to ensure the continued growth and success of Temple Sholom. One of these is our community's financial stability.

We all play an important role in contributing to the financial health of Temple Sholom. Our membership dues comprise a little less than 50% of our annual income. Your dues are important to us, and we depend upon them in order to maintain a balanced budget. As we are now more than half way through our fiscal year, which ends, June 30th, we turn to each one of you, and ask you to please pay attention to your Temple bill. Timely payment is very important to our completion of the year with financial health. If you have any concerns about your bill, if you find it difficult to read (we endeavor to improve the format all the time, and realize there are some challenges with it), or if you would like to discuss a payment plan, please let me know during this month.

Please note that our Annual Giving Phone-a-Thon will be held from March 8 - 13. The funds we raise during this Annual Campaign are also critical to our financial health. Your gift, no matter what the size, is meaningful and greatly appreciated. If 100% of us contribute to Annual Giving, we will really show our combined strength as a community. Please help us reach that goal. If you have any questions about making a gift, please let me know at any time.

Your membership with Temple Sholom is greatly appreciated. If you have financial concerns or questions, please let me know. Together we will address your needs in a confidential and kind manner. If you are able to make a donation above and beyond dues and Annual Giving, we would be very honored, and again will discuss the possibilities and your interests with you in a confidential and kind manner. Your continued financial commitment and contributions, at all levels, help us provide you with the many diverse resources that create our vibrant community, and are greatly appreciated.

~ Warmly, Abbey Krain

BOARD GREETINGS

As I write this message we are all saddened by the recent news of Maya Rigler's illness. As a double cancer survivor, I considered myself very lucky and dealt with my illness with humor. When diagnosed, my first thought was that I had lived a pretty good life and if this was the end, I had no complaints - although I had not completed my bucket list. At the time I did not realize the effect this had on my family. The support that we received from the Temple family was overwhelming. It is part of what makes this place special.

Now we are dealing with a young but very mature ten year old. Maya is lucky to have a great and supportive family, extended family and a much extended Temple family. This should not be happening to someone so young with a bright future ahead of her. I and many others would trade places with her if that was at all possible. Fortunately she is being treated at one of the top hospitals in the country.

What can we do as congregants? We can offer our prayers and support Maya as she devotes her energies in raising money to fight childhood cancer through Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation. Her virtual Lemonade Stand can be found at www.alexslemonade.org/mypage/1121536. Her initial goal was to raise $10,000. That goal was quickly surpassed and as of this writing is now $100,000. I encourage you to add your name to the list of Maya's donors.

I hope when you read this, we will all have better news about Maya.

*Mitch Wolfson,
Member of the Board of Trustees
Member of Maya's Family*

SPECIAL THANKS

Thank you so much for your calls, visits, cards, contributions and numerous expressions of sympathy on the loss of my mother, Karol Danowitz. We are so lucky to be part of the Temple Sholom community.

INCLUSION AND SPECIAL NEEDS NEWS

February was a busy month as the Inclusion Committee sponsored two major events in honor of Jewish Disabilities Awareness Month at Temple Sholom. The students in our Rimon program were delighted with the presentation by Sue Shandler, a teacher of the deaf who is also a Temple Sholom member. Her informative presentation about American Sign Language and the challenges of the deaf and hard of hearing communities captured our children's interest. A Shabbat Service on February 27th was dedicated to the Temple's efforts to be fully inclusive of persons with special needs. The congregation welcomed guest speaker, Gabrielle Kaplan-Mayer, from Jewish Learning Venture who shared her experiences as the mother of a child on the spectrum and her work with the Special Needs Consortium of the Delaware Valley (of which our congregation is a participating member!). Shabbat Kelanu took place on February 7th, a Saturday morning Shabbat service geared to the needs of families with special needs.

While we are so very proud of our clergy, administration, and Temple community for its commitment to inclusion by making changes so that anyone with special needs can fully participate in our services, programs, and events, there is still much work to do. It is not only about who is already a member of Temple Sholom, it is also about the adults and children who are not coming because they do not know that we are very willing to make accommodations to meet the needs of our guests and new members. They say, "If you build it, they will come." This applies to synagogues, not just baseball fields in Iowa! By continually making efforts to be inclusive by providing special needs accommodations whether or not anyone is using them, we are sending a loud message out into the Jewish community that everyone is welcome. It is so meaningful to a person with special needs to see that these accommodations (such as a Braille or large print prayer book, sign language interpreter, reserved seating, or an accessible playground) are already here, as it can be so tiring to constantly ask for accommodations. One really does feel included when he/she does not have to ask for special equipment or arrangements.

We need your help! Please respect the reserved seating signs and handicapped parking spaces, return the special needs prayer books and magnifying pages for low vision users, and leave the Handicapped bathroom available for those who truly need it. Let us know when you read a flyer or announcement about an event or program that does not offer you information about the accessibility of the event or the name of a contact person for special needs accommodations. This is a learning process for our community, and those who plan events are still learning how to be inclusive. This is our goal - to be sensitive and respectful to those who have special needs - and to welcome new members and guests who have traditionally felt left out. All you need to do is talk to someone who has recently had the experience of feeling included because we made it possible with a new piece of equipment or provided a supportive service.

Please contact Regina Levin at 610-715-1745 or r.k.levin@comcast.net if you have any suggestions, requests or concerns about special needs issues.

PUT YOUR SISTERHOOD HATS ON

Put Your Sisterhood Hats On For March 14 & 15
For Two Springtime Sisterhood Events

Could it be that winter is moving to springtime?
We in Sisterhood absolutely believe it's true, and that's why we're looking forward to participating with you at the Leprechaun Run on Saturday, March 14 at 9:00 a.m., and our Crafty Service Project event on Sunday afternoon, March 15 at 1:00 p.m.

Please join us and walk or run to benefit Special Olympics Pennsylvania, as part of the 30th Annual Leprechaun Run, which begins on MLK Drive. Our participation will be as Team Sholom, under the organization of Sisterhood's Historian, Lisa Schubert. Please refer to the flyer with details on page 24 of this issue of The Temple Tidings and register now.

The next day, to rest your feet and legs, we will be decorating "Treasure Boxes" for Dupont Children's Hospital. Sisterhood will provide all the supplies, we're just asking you to show up with your crafty hands and your open hearts. Absolutely no experience is necessary. We'll explain the details that afternoon.

This mitzvah project is open to mothers, daughters and granddaughters. We ask that the youngest age be 10 years old - but there's no upper limit age at all! RSVPs by March 10 are necessary in order for Sisterhood to purchase adequate supplies. We have been working with Chairperson Linda Hershman and look forward to our afternoon of craftiness under her excellent leadership. Please RSVP to sisterhood@temple-sholom.org and let us know the names and how many will be participating.

Sisterhood is still waiting to hear if you've seen a Jewish-themed film on your own, since we cancelled our Movie Night. Let us know if we owe you popcorn, and tell us about your experience.

Sisterhood Book Club will be meeting on Thursday, March 12th to discuss The Paris Architect, by Charles Belfoure. Keep reading, everyone! If you have time to read ahead, our May selection is Ravenscraig, by Sandi Krawchenko Altner.

Coming up soon is Sisterhood's Annual Planning Meeting. Let your voice be heard; we want to know what YOU would like to do in Sisterhood next year. Our meeting will be held in the Temple's Multipurpose Room on Thursday, April 9, beginning at 7:00 p.m. Of course, we promise you refreshments, prizes and surprises!

Again this month, we want to draw your attention to two ongoing Sisterhood services that are helpful to you. Our Temple Sholom in Broomall Sisterhood offers Jewish National Fund Trees to honor or memorialize people or special events in your life and the lives of your loved ones. We are proud to sell these at a price much lower than other congregations are selling them for.

Furthermore, Sisterhood also sells Happiness and Memorial Cards to make your life easier. Not only are both of these services acknowledged in the monthly Tidings edition, but you will receive a note as the sender. Our Sisterhood representative for both these services, Shirley Birenbaum, sends out both Tree Certificates and the Cards. Your price includes your personalized note and the postage. You may phone her at 610-328-2171, or email her with your order at surabassa@aol.com. Shirley will explain how to arrange payment.

Turn right into The Gift Garden during March. There is a special promotion on all Passover merchandise. Sisterhood's Gift Garden offers you one-stop shopping for all your Judaica needs.

Be sure to check out our Sisterhood calendar of events, shown below. Save the date for Deb Kirsch's theater trip for Sisterhood to go together to Penn's Landing Playhouse on Sunday, May 3 at 2:00 p.m. to see the show, Respect. Contact Deb at dkirsch2788@icloud.com.

Calendar of Events for Sisterhood:

THE HILLTOPPERS

Board Meetings in the Temple Library

The Hilltoppers Board will meet on Thursday, March 5th at 10:30 a.m., in the Temple Library. Our meetings are open to all Hilltoppers. We invite you to join us and see how our programs are developed. It's fun.

General Meetings in the Multipurpose Room

Temple Sholom congregant Arlana Joy (better known to us as Arlana Gottlieb) and Accompanist Dick Gratton will entertain the Hilltoppers on Thursday, March 19 with their program "An Evening at a Jazz Supper Club." The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. Refreshments and socializing will follow.

A little bit about Arlana Joy - A native of Las Vegas, began her singing career at age 19 when she joined a touring night club act and stayed on the road for five years. She then lived and performed in Los Angeles before she moved to the Philadelphia area, where she gradually introduced herself to the local jazz community. Her major influences include Sarah Vaughn, Ella Fitzgerald, Dianne Reeves, and Diana Krall.

Last spring, Arlana joined Congregation Darkaynu in Warrington, PA as Cantorial Soloist. She recently was a featured performer at the Unity Concert for Darkaynu and Congregation Beth'El, the only African-American synagogue in Philadelphia.

Curt Yeske, a jazz columnist for The Times of Trenton noted, "The clarity of Arlana's lyrics is just one of the reasons that she has been winning audiences and making friends among musicians in the area. Her singing is also marked by impeccable phrasing, tasteful reshaping of the melody lines and a voice endowed with power, conviction and tenderness."

Dick Gratton started playing guitar at many night clubs in central Jersey and at the Jersey shore in the fifties. Inspired by guitarists Wes Montgomery and Tal Farlow and pianist John Coates Jr., Dick has played in clubs from New England to Baltimore.

Entertainment columnist Marci Shatman stated in The Trentonian, "Gratton's style is laid back and articulate, the kind of mainstream jazz that retains a recognizable melody and doesn't challenge the nervous system."

Refreshments and a social hour will follow the discussion. Our meetings are open to Hilltoppers members at no charge with a suggested donation of $3.00 for non-members.

Book Discussion Group in the Annex On Thursday, March 26th at 1:15 p.m., we will meet in the Temple Annex to review, The Battle Hymn of the Tiger Mother, by Amy Chua. Shirley Chalick will facilitate.

Upcoming Events

April 16th - "Cyber Bullying," with speaker Merle Horowitz

May 21st - An Antiques Appraisal event with Locati Auctions

Donations

Please direct your donations to the Hilltoppers Fund by making checks payable to "Hilltoppers of Temple Sholom" and mailing them to the Temple. Your donations will be listed in The Temple Tidings.

THE HILLTOPPERS PRESENT ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL PROGRAM

On Thursday, January 15th the Hilltoppers of Temple Sholom presented guest speaker Ben Berger, Associate Professor of Political Science at Swarthmore College. The topic of his lecture was "Guilty with an Explanation: Morality in Philosophy, Psychology and Politics."

He began his program describing civic engagement: when the community becomes involved in the political process. Ben went on to identify the three types of engagement, political, social and moral.

He continued with a discussion about how we engage with certain moral principles and selectively disengage from other moral principles and how these actions play a role in our democracy. Because this program was presented just after the tragedy in Paris there was much confusion as to how some people could justify morality with violent acts. At that point, our speaker suggested reading Jonathan Haidt's, book, The Righteous Mind. In this book, the author describes people as being generally "intuitive, not rational," responding and reacting emotionally.

Professor Berger also introduced us to Albert Bandura's Social Learning Theory: Morality = Experience + Time. In other words, one learns by repetition of the rules over a time period.

Following Ben's lecture, there was a stimulating question and answer period.

The audience was highly engaged and upon conclusion kept Ben "engaged" with many questions well after his program had finished.

A JOB JUST FOR YOU TO HELP ... THE TEMPLE, THE GIFT GARDEN AND SISTERHOOD

Sisterhood has an opportunity for a congregant to help out in The Gift Garden. This responsibility takes approximately two (2) hours a week and requires some accounting background and familiarity with QuickBooks. This person will work alongside the Gift Garden Manager, should have nice people skills and some experience in retail is also a plus. This job is perfect for somebody who wants to help the Temple and has a couple of hours (mostly on your own time) to spare. There is growth opportunity.

Training will be provided.

Please contact sisterhood@temple-sholom.org if you're interested in applying.

MAZEL TOV TO THE TEMPLE SHOLOM PRESCHOOL

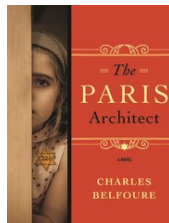

Under Liz Sussman's leadership, the Preschool has earned another Star

We now have 2 Stars for our quality rating as a facility that is committed to maintaining compliance with program regulations and enhancing quality early learning through Keystone STARS. Keystone STARS is an initiative of the Office of Child Development and Early Learning (OCDEL) to improve, support, and recognize the continuous quality improvement efforts of early learning programs in Pennsylvania.

SISTERHOOD BOOK CLUB

Our next scheduled book club meeting will be on Thursday March 12 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Gina Levin, 132 Whitmarsh Road, Ardmore. The book will be The Paris Architect by Charles Belfoure.

Book Synopsis: How far would you go to help a stranger? What would you risk? Would you trade your life for another's in the name of what is right? Belfoure explores these questions and others in this debut novel set in Paris during the Nazi occupation. Lucien Bernard - who, like the book's author, is an architect - is offered a large sum of money to outsmart the Gestapo by devising unique hiding places for Jews, though he knows that anyone caught helping them will be tortured and killed by the Germans. Danger is everywhere: Lucien's mistress, Adele, a successful fashion designer, has an affair with a Gestapo colonel. Lucien's new assistant will betray him in a heartbeat. Offered a juicy German factory commission that involves working with a Nazi officer who admires architecture and art, Lucien's web weaves more complexly. And when he falls in love with Adele's assistant, rescues a child, and contacts some of the individuals he's saved, the stakes grow higher and Lucien's thoughts turn from money to vengeance. Seamlessly integrated architectural details add to the excitement. Belfoure's characters are well-rounded and intricate. Heart, reluctant heroism, and art blend together in this spine-chilling page-turner.

Please RSVP to alissamgm@aol.com by March 5th.

THE ETTA NATALIE ROSENBLATT PRESCHOOL

Tu Bish'vat (15th of Shevat) has come and gone! The Temple Sholom Preschool celebrated the birthday of trees in style. The children learned about trees and their fruits. Everybody had the opportunity to plant seeds. Our classrooms are blossoming with plants! We also learned to sing many fun songs about trees and looked at pictures of all types of fruit and nut trees. Everyone had a great time. We learned about our tradition, Israel and the world around us.

In February we had a great Pajama Day at school! Everyone wore their warm, cozy PJs complete with "feet," teachers, assistants and the Director, too. We ate breakfast at school and then hibernated in our "caves" during our cold and icy days!

The Segal Dentist Puppets came back for a third time to our Preschool. We learned about how to take care of our teeth. Everyone had a good time and to top it off, every student received a new toothbrush.

We are now getting ready for Purim. The Talmud tells us that when Adar begins (the month when Purim occurs) "happiness increases!" In Preschool, we believe that "Be Happy, It's Adar" is the way to go. We are getting ready with costumes, noisemakers and making graggers. It's going to be fun, loud and really happy! Watch out Haman! The Temple Sholom Preschool is getting ready for PURIM!

Finally, it's not too early to register for Camp. This will be our third season. Everyone loves Camp. Make sure your family signs up for "fun in the sun" and the wading pool and the playground at Temple Sholom in Summer 2015!

April Mitzvah Meals Seeks Volunteers

Are you looking for a way to help people who are truly in need? Please consider signing up for the April 14 Mitzvah Meal, to help feed hungry people at the Life Center of Eastern Delaware County. You don't need to be available on that evening - everything we need can be bought or prepared ahead of time. We still need a few cooks to prepare a simple casserole (recipe to be provided), salads, and desserts, and several people to purchase paper goods and plastic utensils. Please sign up at the SignupGenius website by using this link: <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c044da5ac22aaf85-life1>. The website is easy to use and the best way to sign up, and includes more details about what is needed. You may also call Howard Cylinder at 610-355-7554 to sign up or to request more information. Thank you!

Please consider helping us; if you haven't had this experience already, it's truly a rewarding one.

February Mitzvah Meal Serving Crew

CALL FOR PURIM BAKERS

We are looking for hamantaschen bakers who would like to donate homemade hamantaschen for people to enjoy after the Very Disney Purim Shpiel.

Please contact Sandy Cohen at 610-356-5165 or skcohen@temple-sholom.org if you'd like to bake for Purim.

Our January event, the shul-in, was our biggest event of the year! We had 22 teens! Way to go ToaSTY! It was a great time and a very good mix of ages. In February, ToaSTY was busy! We had a dinner and movie night, which was a lot of fun. It is always a great time to get out and about to socialize with each other. Also in February, we held an Alex's Lemonade Stand for Maya Rigler and her family to help fight childhood cancer. We raised $375 in just a few hours and want to thank everyone who helped and contributed! Thank you so much to our great teens Marley Duchovnay, Macie Plotkin, Ali Prager, Sydney Goldberg and Diego Fierros for the help manning the Café! It was a wonderful event to host and to help a family in our community! Thank you again for everyone's love and support!

This month we will be hosting NFTY-PAR Elections right here at Temple Sholom! It is very exciting for us to be involved with the PAR region like this and we look forward to an amazing day!

If you have any questions, or would like to get involved or just say hi, please send an email to toasty@temple-sholom.org, we love hearing from you!

B'Shalom,

~ Joanna Gould, ToaSTY
Youth Group Director

Purim is almost here and with comes a feast for the senses. The smell of baking hamantaschen, the sight of children dressed in costume, the noise of the gragger and the fun of the Purim shpiel. The Purim story is about triumphing over evil and reminds us that each and every one of us has the ability to make a meaningful difference in our world. Just like a giraffe...we must stick our neck out to make the world a better place.

Of course, the real fun of Purim is the Purim Carnival. Games, food, prizes, balloons and more allow us to experience the joy of the holiday. This is a joyful day when we come together as a kehillah - a community! And what makes the day extra special is the spirit of coming together to create something special. For months and weeks before the day of the carnival people come together to give of their time. Oy, the planning! What games will we have? Do we need more tickets? What prizes should be purchased? Who will set up the carnival? Who will blow up the balloons? Who will bake for the bake sale table? The list is endless! But each year I marvel at how a group of individuals, those who rarely see each other during the year, come together as a kehillah to provide magic for our children.

Come and join the fun on Sunday, March 8! It's where YOU belong!

No RIMON - Spring Break/Passover

MARCH B'NAI MITZVAH

Baye Lily Fletcher, daughter of John and Hillary Fletcher, will become a Bat Mitzvah on March 7th. Joining her will be her brother, Zane, coming in from Omaha, Nebraska, along with her other brother, Jack. Other relatives and friends will be coming from Nebraska (dear friends), California (dear cousins), New York (upstate and down - dear aunt and friends), Ohio (dear cousin and great-aunt), Massachusetts (dear aunt and uncle and cousins), Texas (other dear aunt and uncle) and New Mexico (Bubbe).

In her second year at Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry, Baye enjoys blogging, writing, comedy, rock climbing, debating, and staring at cats. Not touching them, just staring.

This is how Baye describes her Mitzvah Project: I helped an organization called The Village to distribute books to underprivileged children. The Village is an organization that does two things - they either make sure that a child is safe and well cared for in his or her home, or they take the child into their program and care for the child themselves. Every year they throw a holiday fair for the kids, and a number of Christian schools contribute, and they're all in uniform and proper. What my two helpers and I did was we distributed, organized, and suggested books to every passerby. By the end of the night, we had distributed around 350 of the 400 books we collected.

Any other information you would like to share? Baye Fletcher would like the public to know that while she does not attend Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry, she is the youngest ever Minister of Magic.

Paige Hanna Goldberg, daughter of Abbe and Andrew Goldberg, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on March 21. Her sister, Sydney, and her grandparents, Beverly and Sol Superfine and Max Goldberg will share this special day with her.

Paige, a 7th grader at Springton Lake Middle School, enjoys dancing, reading, writing, and playing clarinet. Paige also enjoys playing on her school's seventh grade field hockey team. She was selected to participate in the Delaware County Middle School Band and competes with her school's jazz band. As well as her love for music, she is also a passionate ballet and jazz dancer. Paige is a hardworking and distinguished honor roll student. Last year, she won first place in the 6th grade world language contest. She also won first place in the annual Boeing Company STEM Essay Contest.

For her Mitzvah Project, Paige volunteered her time at the Media Food Bank. She worked every Thursday night over the summer from 6:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m. Paige sorted and prepared the food for all of the guests who come to receive their government canned food and non-perishable products, as well as many other community donations. Since the supply was low this year, Paige started a food drive at Broomall Lake Country Club. Many families helped by providing her with numerous donations. After her Bat Mitzvah, Paige hopes to continue to volunteer and support the Media Food Bank.

Aaron and Brendon Thomas, sons of Rachel and Charles Thomas, will join together as they become Bar Mitzvah on March 14. Sharing in their special day will be their sister, Julia, grandparents Mitch and Eileen Wolfson and Robert and Ann Thomas, aunt Jessica and uncle William Charmont, and cousins Ari and Jordan, along with other friends and family.

Paxon Hollow Middle School 7th graders, both enjoy singing in the Paxon Hollow Choir. Aaron is an expert on all things electronic, especially video games. If you are ever in need of technical assistance, feel free to ask him!

Brendon loves anime and Michael Jackson. He is an excellent dancer. Brendon is also a former wrestler for Marple Junior Tigers.

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY

Women's Spirituality is happy to welcome back Rabbi Michele Medwin on Wednesday, March 25th. We will meet in the Temple Sanctuary at 6:25 p.m. when Rabbi Medwin will lead us in meditation. Then we will move to the Temple library for her program beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Rabbi Medwin's program will be based on the new book Chapters of the Heart: Jewish Women Sharing the Torah of Our Lives edited by Rabbi Sue Levi Elwell and Rabbi Nancy Fuchs Kreimer. We will read and discuss different excerpts about how different Jewish women have understood significant events in their lives through a Jewish lens. The authors write about being daughters, mothers, sisters, partners, lovers and friends.

The book asks a group of twenty Jewish women to tell the truth about their lives and to do so with a few Jewish words. Like everyone else, when it comes to our lives, we are still trying to figure out how to live with grace. And each of us, in our own way, is still exploring what it means. As we discuss some of these stories you may recognize yourself or someone you know.

All women of Temple Sholom are welcome to meet with us on Wednesday, March 25th. Our evening will start at 6:25 p.m. in the Sanctuary. This is a wonderful opportunity to experience meditation led by Rabbi Michele Medwin and then to learn how to find your own sources of strength and guidance through "Chapters of the Heart: Jewish Women Sharing the Torah of Our Lives."

You are welcome to join us at 6:25 p.m. for meditation or you can begin your evening at 7:30 p.m. in the library.

On Wednesday April 22nd Women's Spirituality welcomes Rabbi Sigal Brier, who will present Mending Gaps: Religion and Spirituality. Watch for details in next month's Temple Tidings.

We look forward to sharing Wednesday, March 25th with you and Rabbi Michele Medwin.

COME MEDITATE WITH US!

Wednesday Morning Meditation

It's Wednesday morning . . . the middle of the week . . . a time to stop and catch your breath. A time to listen to your breath. Where are you?

Jewish meditation in the Temple Annex on Wednesday mornings is the place to be. What a wonderful way to start your day by giving yourself the gift of time and spiritual connection.

The secret to spirituality is that there's no right way, no special feeling you're supposed to have - only an open, loving relationship to any feeling and to any sensation. The practice can teach us how to direct our attention into the present moment.

There is a seat waiting for you in our circle of chairs as we spend quiet time together. Everyone is welcome. Join us once, once in a while or every time we meet. No previous meditation experience is required.

STOP . . . CLOSE YOUR EYES . . . BREATH . . .

Give yourself the gift of stopping, the gift of quiet time, the gift of reflection and peace.

Meditation Dates to Remember for the Month:
March 4, 11, 18, and 25

When: Wednesdays 9:25 a.m. - 10:15 a.m.

Where: Temple Sholom Annex

We look forward to you becoming a part of our circle.

Pre-Shabbat Meditation

What does Shabbat mean to you? Shabbat - it's a day of peace and blessing. Shabbat is not about making or changing anything. Shabbat has the power to refocus our lives. Meditation can help you get the most out of prayer. The practice of Jewish meditation is open to everyone.

As the seasons change . . . please note that monthly Friday Shabbat meditation will NOT meet in March and April. We will be resuming the fourth Friday meditation in the Temple Annex on Friday, May 22 from 7:00 p.m. - 7:45 p.m.

Please check the Friday announcements for information or changes that might occur.

We look forward to seeing you in the Temple Annex on May 22. Thank you.

Please check Temple announcements for details or any changes that might occur. Also check your email for changes or possible cancellations. Thank you.

UNITY CONCERT

Temple Sholom showed their strength in numbers despite treacherous weather to support Congregation Temple Beth'El and Darkaynu in remembrance of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel, z"l. The Crossing The Bridge Together Unity Concert took place at Beth'El, Philadelphia's African-American synagogue. Darkaynu, an egalitarian, eclectic, non-denominational havurah, features Temple Sholom member Arlana Gottlieb as their Cantorial Soloist.

Since many concert-goers were unable to attend due to dangerous driving conditions (including a number of Temple Sholom congregants who had purchased tickets in advance), an encore event will be held in the spring.

After the Martin Luther King Unity Concert of African-American Synagogue Temple Beth El with Congregation Darkaynu, Donna Hendel stands next to Temple Sholom member and Darkaynu Cantorial Soloist Arlana Gottlieb and Frances Epstein poses with Darkaynu's Rabbi Jon Cutler.

HAVDALAH AT HOME

The Temple Sholom Havdalah at Home group met at Barbara and Steve Clarke's home on Saturday January 24. In spite of snow in the morning, we had about twenty attending. We started with a reading of a poem The Bris that broke the Camel's Back, by Chaya Kaplan-Lester. The poem relates the pain of an Orthodox woman dealing with her "separation" and lack of voice in the bris of her own son. The poem is profound poetry and speaks not only to those who feel their female voice is not being heard but to all whose voices are ignored. You can find the poem on her Facebook page or get it from Bob Slater by email.

The song "With my Lips" was sung in slightly modified version. Good thing I have a while to straighten out the timing before the next Havdalah. The spirit of the song prevailed. Birchot Havdalah, Shavua Tov and Eliyahu followed.

Deb's French Toast with Bananas took the food prize. Good company was shared by all.

JNF TREES AND WATER FOR ISRAEL

Three trees were planted by Elizabeth G. Mellman in memory of Christopher William Warner, beloved son, father, brother & brother-in-law of Ruth Warner, Elizabeth Warner, & Susan & Robert Strauss.

A tree was planted by Elizabeth G. Mellman in memory of Jean Braude, beloved mother & mother-in-law of Judy & Ira Poliakoff.

A tree was planted by Elizabeth G. Mellman in celebration of Elaine Samans' 90th Birthday.

A tree was planted by Serene Friedman in celebration of Elaine Samans' 90th Birthday.

A tree was planted by Shirley Chalick wishing Rabbi Bowen's son a blessing of r'fu-a-sh'lei-ma, a successful surgery and a complete recovery.

A Circle of Five Trees was planted by Adele & Fran Persky in loving memory of Alan Rotman, beloved husband, father & grandfather of Toby Rotman & Family.

A tree was planted by Ethel Levenson in celebration of Elaine Samans' 90th Birthday.

A tree was planted by Ethel Levenson in celebration of Liz Mellman's birthday.

A quick and easy way to honor and/or remember a friend, relative or event is to have one or more trees planted in Israel. Or a donation may be made to help meet Israel's water needs. In either case a lovely certificate is sent to the honoree and/or family. For details, pricing options (donations start at $18) and to make arrangements through the Jewish National Fund, please call Shirley Birenbaum at 610-328-2171, or email surabassa@aol.com.

FOR WOMEN AGES 10 TO 100! SISTERHOOD CRAFTY SERVICE PROJECT

Do you ever wish you could “do more,” but you don’t really know what that “more” might be? Or, do you see mitzvah opportunities around you, but they all involve giving money, when it’s a time in your life when you don’t have extra funds to spare?

Coming around the corner is a mitzvah opportunity that involves your hands and not your pocketbooks. It also promises to be a fun opportunity to bond with other women.

Sisterhood is inviting mothers, daughters and granddaughters to join us for our annual Crafty Service Project on Sunday afternoon, March 15 from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. We will be making Treasure Boxes to donate to DuPont Children’s Hospital. We ask that the attendees be at least 10 years of age, but there’s no upper limit at all. We need your crafty hands and your open hearts. Absolutely no experience is necessary.

We have learned that children who have prolonged stays in hospitals receive many small gifts from well-meaning friends and family members. The boxes we will be decorating will hold cards and small gifts the young patients receive while they’re hospitalized.

Our hands-on mitzvah participants will be painting the boxes with acrylic paint and sponge brushes, then decorating them with stickers or decoupage the boxes with torn paper. Other arts and crafts supplies will also be available.

Sisterhood will provide all the supplies. There is no cost to participate. All details will be explained that afternoon. We are requiring reservations, however, so that we’ll know how many supplies to purchase. Please let us know by March 10 if you’ll be able to join us in this afternoon Crafty Service Project. Let us know your names and how many of you will be joining us by emailing sisterhood@temple-sholom.org.

We really look forward to you joining us!

Linda Hershman, Crafty Service Project Chairperson
Frances Epstein & Donna Hendel, Sisterhood Co-Presidents

HOW WE CAN ALL HELP MAYA AND THE RIGLER FAMILY!

Maya is so lucky to have many wonderful people in her life. Many people have asked how they can help and Maya would love for her friends and family to make a donation to Alex’s Lemonade Stand to help find a cure for Childhood Cancer.

Maya has raised over $62,000. Please help us get the word out to help her reach her $100,000 goal.

If you have not had a chance to support Alex's Lemonade Stand yet we would be grateful if you could! Any amount is deeply appreciated!

Please share this message and Maya's efforts!

TEMPLE FUNDS

Cantor's Discretionary Fund

Contributions to this fund will be used at the discretion of our Cantor.

Excellence in Early Childhood Education Fund

To support the programs of the Etta Natalie Rosenblatt Preschool.

Financial Assistance

To offset the reduction of revenue incurred when a Temple Sholom family cannot afford to pay their total dues. Contributions go directly into the General Fund.

General Fund

To support Temple operations.

Hospice and Healing Fund

To assist the Hospice Committee in carrying out its support programs.

Howard Weiner Library Fund

An endowment fund in which the interest is used to purchase books and supplies for the library.

Inclusion and Special Needs Fund

To purchase services, supplies, and equipment to assist congregants, students, and guests in need of accommodations that enable them to participate fully in all aspects of congregation life.

Judith Bernick Music Fund

An endowment fund in which the interest may be used for the music program.

Marlene B. Kleinman Campership Fund

Interest is used to send students to a URJ camp each year.

Mayer Selekmán Jewish Leadership Fund

To provide grants for graduate study toward becoming a Jewish professional.

Rabbi's Discretionary Fund

Contributions to this fund will be used at the discretion of our Rabbi.

Religious School Education Fund

To support programs, special events and materials for education at all levels.

Contributions can be earmarked for Women's Spirituality Group studies at the donor's discretion.

Cantor Patrice Kaplan Chair for Sacred Music Endowment

To endow the cantorial position at Temple Sholom, ensuring the future of Jewish music in our congregation.

Sanctuary Book Fund

To defray the cost of purchasing books for our sanctuary. A book plate is placed in each book indicating the donor's name and the occasion, for a minimum donation of $36.

Technology Fund

To maintain and improve all aspects of technology, including our new Webcast used by Temple Sholom.

Temple Beautiful Fund

To improve and maintain the aesthetics of the Temple, including decor, furnishings, grounds and gardens.

Tzedakah (Food) Fund

To feed the hungry in our community. Contributions are distributed at the close of each fiscal year to outside charities at the discretion of a special Tzedakah committee.

Youth Scholarship Fund

To send Temple Sholom Youth Group members to National Federation of Temple Youth (NFTY) sponsored events. Scholarships are awarded based on financial need.

Contributions also may be made directly to the Temple Sholom Brotherhood, Sisterhood, Hilltoppers or Women's Spirituality.

THE TRADITION GROWS

SERVING THE GENERATIONS...

PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

Levine's new memorial chapel, Trevose, PA

For more than 117 years, the family-owned Joseph Levine & Son Memorial Chapel has maintained a high reputation for quality while serving generations in the Jewish community.

And now the tradition grows with our new Bucks County Memorial Chapel, in addition to our Philadelphia and Main Line locations.

Whether you need pre-arrangement assistance or time-of-need service, you can find it in any of our three convenient locations.

Our knowledge of and experience with Jewish traditions will insure that every detail of a funeral is handled efficiently, sensitively and at a most competitive rate. We are proud to offer the highest quality care.

Remember us. We are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, to answer your questions and to help.
