FROM THE DESK OF RABBI PETER RIGLER

As we prepare to celebrate Shavuot, the holiday that commemorates the giving of the Torah, "I want to ask, When do we steal from ourselves? 'What does the Torah mean to you?'"

My teacher, Rabbi Lawrence Kushner, shared with me the time he brought a nursery school class into his synagogue sanctuary for a tour. He showed them the bimah, the ner tamid, the cantor's and rabbi's lecterns. Finally, the tiny kids stood before the huge doors of the Holy Ark.

"What do you suppose is in there?" he asked them.

"Nothing!" one child answered, "It's empty." "A new car!" another shouted.

"An old, old Torah!" responded another. "I know! I know" one child insisted. "It's a mirror!"

Each of them was correct.

For some Judaism seems to be distant and missing any meaning in their lives.

For others, Judaism holds only a superficial, new car appeal. A warm, ethnic sentimentality, without ethical or spiritual demands.

For some, Judaism is just outdated. They see and hear nothing for a modern liberal Jew.

I think, for those of us willing to look deeper, there is so much to behold. I believe the Ark contains a mirror, reflecting the truth about ourselves.

The Kotzker Rebbe taught that the uniqueness of Judaism was not that we believe like all faiths. "You should not lie." We also believe: "You should not lie to yourself." It is this reflexive turn, the turn inward, that characterizes the Kotzker's Torah

He proposed this reflexive turn as a way to hear the Ten Commandments anew. He turned each commandment inward, and challenged us to look deeply into the mirror of Torah.

The Sixth Commandment, for example, teaches "You shall not murder." Within this is the commandment, "You shall not murder yourself." What are all the ways we daily murder ourselves?

"You shall not steal ... from yourself." What do we steal? And how do we make restitution?

"You shall not commit adultery ... against yourself." How have we adulterated ourselves, betraying sacred principles, practicing moral promiscuity and spiritual unfaithfulness?

"You shall not bear false witness ... against yourself." When do we offer false testimony about ourselves? Or to ourselves? And why?

"You shall not covet ... yourself." We covet when we simply cannot live knowing that a neighbor has possessions and position that aren't ours. We covet ourselves when we simply cannot live without all that was once ours but is no more. What are the attachments to the past that hold us back from the present and the future?

"Remember the Sabbath to keep it holy." Where is the sanctified Sabbath within you? Where in your life is a place of peace, your haven and refuge from competition and conflict?

"Honor your father and mother ... within you." What does it mean to carry a father's love or a mother's wisdom within? What has become of the fatherly and the motherly in you?

"You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain." What were the promises and commitments I once made to myself that were subsequently broken, ignored, or allowed to slip quietly into lazy neglect?

"You will have no other gods before Me ... including yourself." When have I made of myself the measure of all things and the center of the universe?

"I am the Lord your God." Where is the image of God within me? What have I done with that precious gift?

As we prepare to celebrate the festival of Shavuot, we celebrate receiving the gift of Torah, the mirror of our souls. It is ours, but only if we are brave enough to look deeply and honestly within. Chag Sameach.

NOTES FROM CANTOR JAMIE MARX... Delaware Valley Jewish Choral Festival

Jewish music is one of the great glories of our tradition. Our liturgy has inspired countless musicians to write melodies for prayer as well as the sheer enjoyment of it. In the last century and a half, the development of European music has combined with Jewish tradition in the form of Jewish choral music. If you've never had the chance to attend a concert of Jewish choral music, we have a fabulous opportunity for you.

Our very own Temple Sholom Choir will be performing in the Delaware Valley Jewish Choral Festival on Tuesday, June 2 at 7:30 p.m. The concert will be held at Congregation Adath Jeshurun in Elkins Park, featuring eight local synagogue choirs performing highlights from throughout the broad repertoire of Jewish music. Not only will each choir perform a few selections, but all the choirs will also be sing three songs together -imagine the sound that hundreds of Jewish singers making beautiful music in Adath Jeshurun's huge sanctuary!

We very much hope that you'll come support our Temple choir and experience an evening of fantastic Jewish choral music!

DIRECTOR'S CORNER

May is the perfect time to ask any questions you may have about our Temple budget. Did you know that membership dues comprise approximately 50% of our income? Have you ever wondered how we derive the rest of our income, or do you have any other questions about the facts and figures of our Temple Sholom annual budget?

Our fiscal year begins July 1st, and we are now completing our budget for the coming year. A special ~ Warmly, Abbey Krain thanks to our Treasurer Steve Granoff and his hard working Budget Committee: Rachel Amdur, Sandy Barth, Steve Berger, Nancy Bloomfield, Mike Danowitz, Robin Gall, Mary Ann Gould, Steve Hendel, Alan Kirsch, Emily Mendel, Jim Meyer, Steve Querido, Mike Samuels, Mitch Wolfson, and Art Zabel. This group spends a great deal of time to create an accurate and balanced budget.

Again, if you have any questions about our budget, now is the perfect time to ask.

You may have noticed an increase in the use of name tags at Temple Sholom. That is due in large part to the encouragement and support of the Relational Judaism Committee chaired by Laurie Browngoehl and including Lisi Deitz, Evalyn Elias,

Elyse Endy, Mary Ann Gould, Donna Hendel, Rebecca Parmet, and members of the Temple Sholom staff. Relational Judaism is the title of a book by Ron Wolfson and a reminder to all of us of the importance of community and connecting within the Temple. The name tags serve as name reminders, door openers and another way to facilitate connections. The Relational Judaism Committee is also the impetus for a Rimon Olim Family dinner, a soon to be announced "Sholom Cinema" group, a hiking group, and creating a special fall program to be held in the Sukkah this year. There are so many different opportunities for Temple Sholom members and friends to connect.

Attention High School Seniors (and parents) It's Time to Kyell!

INCLUSION COMMITTEE NEWS

Good news for our members and guests with hearing impairments! We are looking more seriously at closed captioning software, with the goal of being able to provide closed captioning at services and programs in the near future. We are also in the process of having a consultation with a hearing aid looping system company as we look to eventually install a looping system that will enable our members and guests with hearing aids to hear better. This system enables people with hearing aids to hear the sounds directly into their hearing aids! There are some public facilities that now provide such looping systems, and we want to join the band wagon. Due to the expense that is expected with the installation of such a system, we can expect that it may be a while before we are able to install a looping system. We will keep you posted!

Please remember to respect the signs and equipment that provide accommodations for members/guests with special needs. If a parking space, a seat in the sanctuary, or a bathroom has a sign which reserves the use for people with a disability, please honor and respect the sign. It is a very frustrating experience for someone with a disability to come to Temple Sholom in need of such accommodations, only to find that someone else has taken the seat (or moved the sign to a seat that does not work for a person with a visual/hearing impairment) or parking space, or is using the bathroom because it is convenient. "I only used it or parked there for a minute." It doesn't matter if that reserved seat or parking space remains empty. We want our congregants and guests to feel respected, and most importantly, included as part of our community.

The Inclusion Committee and the Administration and the Clergy of Temple Sholom appreciate your cooperation and respect.

BOARD GREETINGS

The signs that spring has finally come are everywhere. The ever familiar crack of matzah breaking fills our house, accompanied by the crack of a baseball hitting a bat as opening day arrives. Hints of green are beginning to show in the bushes. The dull grey of winter has given way to crisp blue skies. In response, heavy coats are put away and light jackets are removed from storage. The magnolia tree (perhaps of the sugar variety) in our backyard begins to show the precursors of beautiful flowers that will burst out to look and smell so wonderful, if only for a short period of time. Before too long it will be time for Shabbat in the Park: June 12 as a matter of fact. We'll see you there.

SISTERHOOD NOT WRAPPING UP OUR YEAR YET!

Sisterhood still has a lot going on before we take a break for summer. We have our Closing Dinner Event (it's a Brunch) on Wednesday, May 13 and our Attic Treasures day on Sunday, June 7.

Our Closing Event on May 13 is a Brunch-at-Dinnertime event catered by Pumpernick's Deli of Maple Glen. Their brunch food is delicious! We'll be serving your favorite dairy food in honor of Shavuot, which is the following week. Here's what we can tell you right now: we will dine in the Multipurpose Room with registration at 5:30 p.m. and dinner served at 6:00 p.m. Reservations are required by the previous Friday, May 8th. Perhaps best of all, your favorite Sisterhood Co-Presidents have some entertainment planned for you. Don't miss it!

We're advertising this in The Temple Tidings (see page 16 for reservation details), the Sisterhood email list, in the Shabbat program booklets and in the Thursday Temple E-News. Watch for details because this will be fun evening!

You might think that our closing event would signify the end of Sisterhood's year before taking a break for summer. Wrong!

We're so excited about our Attic Treasure Sale that will take place in the Temple parking lot on Sunday June 7. We have free storage space available for your items prior to that date. Save the date to come shopping with us ... and save your "treasures" that we'll sell for you. Remember our favorite phrase: "One person's donation is another person's treasure." Please contact Melissa Fein at mfein10@gmail.com for more information.

Also coming soon is our Sisterhood Book Club get together on Thursday, May 14. We'll be discussing The Jujitsu Rabbi and the Godless Blonde by Rebecca Dana. This should really be an interesting (maybe weird) discussion! On July 9, our selection will be Those Who Save Us, by Jenna Blum. These are changes, so please make note of them.

Last month our Sisterhood Shabbat honored past presidents and celebrated our Sisterhood members both past and present. With a theme of L'Dor V'Dor (from generation to generation), we also honored Shirley Chalick's special birthday that evening. Many thanks to our past president honorees, to Shirley - our newest Sisterhood member! -- for sharing her special birthday with us as well as sharing the Oneg Shabbat, and to our Sisterhood members who took the time to prepare and lead us in our Shabbat celebration. A hearty todah rabah and yasher koach to Sisterhood Shabbat chairwoman. Barbara Barr for her leadership of this Shabbat.

The Sisterhood Scholarship Winner was also announced at Sisterhood Shabbat last month. The winning essay on "Why Judaism Is Where I Belong" enabled the writer to win $500 from Sisterhood. We'll be telling you more about this winner very soon!

We're also thankful to our Sisterhood members who attended our April Planning Meeting last month. We now have a nice head start on programs for next year.

Not certain of the appropriate way to honor or memorialize friends and loved ones? Our Temple Sholom in Broomall Sisterhood offers Jewish National Fund Trees at a price much lower than other congregations.

Sisterhood also sells Happiness and Memorial Cards to make your commemorations of life's events easier.

Not only are both of these services acknowledged in the monthly Tidings edition, but you will receive a note as the sender. Our Sisterhood representative for both these services, Shirley Birenbaum, is the woman who sends out Tree Certificates and the Cards. Your price includes your personalized note and the postage. You may phone her at 610-328-2171, or email her with your order at surabassa@aol.com. Shirley will explain how to arrange payment.

Shop 'til you drop in The Gift Garden during May. On special sale during May will be wedding merchandise and art.

Please do stay in touch with us, even during the summer; we love to hear from you. Just call or email us at sisterhood@temple-sholom.org.

Our Sisterhood is YOUR Sisterhood. Work with us, learn with us and hang out with us!

Frances Epstein & Donna Hendel, Sisterhood Co-Presidents

ARLANA JOY ENCHANTS HILLTOPPERS WITH NIGHT AT A JAZZ SUPPER CLUB

Vocalist Arlana Gottlieb, accompanied by jazz guitarist Dick Gratton, held the audience spellbound last month during their rendition of "A Night at a Jazz Supper Club." With lights turned down low and only the bimah lit, Hilltoppers and guests were transformed while listening to standards and favorites with jazz styling.

Highlights included "Summertime," from Porgy and Bess; "On The Street Where You Live," from My Fair Lady, and "I Don't Know Enough About You," written by Peggy Lee. Some selections were quick and upbeat, others were ballads. The jazz version of "Somewhere Over The Rainbow" was breathtaking. Delicious refreshments and Arlana's own CDs available for purchase rounded out another successful Hilltoppers event.

We look forward to the June 18 Closing Dinner featuring the a cappella quartet, The Trolley Stoppers.

Temple Sholom, Where you belong!

A Job Just For You To Help ... The Temple, the Gift Garden and Sisterhood

Sisterhood has an opportunity for a congregant to help out in The Gift Garden. This responsibility takes approximately two (2) hours a week and requires some familiarity with EXCEL. This person will be carefully trained and work alongside the Gift Garden Manager, should have nice people skills and some experience in retail is also a plus. This job is perfect for somebody who wants to help the Temple and has a couple of hours (mostly on your own time) to spare. There is growth opportunity.

Please contact sisterhood@temple-sholom.org if you're interested in applying.

SISTERHOOD BOOK CLUB

Sisterhood Book club will be meeting at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Michelle Cooperstein, Athertyn Clubhouse, Parkview Drive, Haverford, PA on May 14 to discuss:

The Jujitsu Rabbi and the Godless Blonde (a memoir), by Rebecca Dana

Book Synapsis:

Rebecca Dana worshipped at the altar of Truman Capote and Nora Ephron, dreaming of moving to New York. After college, life in the city turned out just as she'd planned: glamorous parties; beautiful people; the perfect job, apartment and man. But when it all comes crashing down, she is catapulted into another world.

She moves into Brooklyn's Lubavitch community, and lives with Cosmo, a young Russian rabbi and jujitsu enthusiast. While Cosmo faces his disenchantment with Orthodoxy, Rebecca finds that her religion—the books and films that made New York seem like salvation—has also failed her. Shuttling between the worlds of religious extremism and secular excess, faith and fashion, Rebecca goes on a search for meaning.

A mix of Shalom Auslander and The Odd Couple, Jujitsu Rabbi and the Godless Blonde is a thought-provoking tale for the twenty-first century.

Please RSVP to alissamgm@aol.com by May 7th.

CONVERSATIONS WITH MEN

Join us in the Rabbi's study for our last session of the season at 9:30 am on May 17, as we wrap up another great year of Conversations with Men. Our topic for this discussion will be:

The Etta Natalie Rosenblatt Preschool

Like the Jews during the Exodus, the Temple Sholom Preschool is on the move! On Lag B'Omer, thirty-three days after Passover, we celebrated with simulated camp fires, complete with s'mores and a fabulous outdoor field day. The sun was shining and the kids were beaming as we enjoyed the celebrations on the happiest day between Passover and Shavuot.

Of course, we are now getting ready for Shavuot and learning the story about Moses and our ancestors going to Mount Sinai to receive the Torah.

Then, it's off to our end of the year parties and taking stock of all the learning and growing and fun we have had all year long. A big highlight this year was fixing up our playground. The renovation of our playground was made possible by a generation donation from founding member, Sara Shapiro. The Preschool is so grateful to her for this gift. We also owe thanks for the dedication and hard work of our Preschool Committee and the Preschool parents, we are now enjoying a wonderful and beautiful new floor in our playground. The new floor was installed just in time for camp, which is around the corner. Register now for school and camp, while there is still space available!

At Preschool, we are literally building, learning and growing every day!

Shalom, Miss Liz Liz Z. Sussman Early Childhood Education Director 610-886-2065

SISTERHOOD'S CRAFTY SERVICE PROJECT A SUCCESS; POSSIBLE REPEAT NEXT YEAR?

It's not easy figuring out a project for Sisterhood members that is meaningful and relevant, that will appeal to women of all ages, and is fun. Chairperson Linda Hershman supplied us with the means for 25 women of all ages to spend an afternoon together with a hands-on mitzvah project.

Our goal was to create Memory Boxes and Treasure Boxes for patients at DuPont Children's Hospital in Delaware. Once Linda carefully explained the purpose of the two kinds of boxes, the women set to work with paint, decoupage, shells, glitter, and more. The results were just incredible!

Speaking to participants after this annual Crafty Service Project, they all agreed they would like to do the exact same project next year.

Around Rimon

It's May!

It is May and we are wrapping up a truly amazing year of learning and friendship. As our final days of school near we celebrate our students, our parents, our faculty, our support staff and our volunteers. The 5775 school year was filled with meaningful and joyful learning that was enhanced by our innovative and dynamic curriculum. From Project Based Learning and chugim in our Sunday Rimon program, our small group, prayer focused and long-distance Hebrew program, the 6th grade Gesherim program, and our dynamic teens in the Academy program, this year had it all. It is no wonder that Temple Sholom was this year's recipient of the national Yad B'Yad award for Innovative Approach to Jewish Education.

The phrase "it takes a village to raise a child" is certainly true. There are so many people who work so hard to make a difference and enable positive learning experiences for our students. First and foremost, Emily Mendell, our Temple Sholom President, and the entire Board of Trustees for putting the education of our children in the forefront. To all of you I say "Todah Rabah!"

...and a special thank you to Rabbi Rigler, Cantor Marx, Abbey Krain, our office staff, our custodial staff, and my partner and right hand ... Nertila Kocibelli.

We at Temple Sholom are blessed with a talented and special group of individuals whose passion for educating our children knows no bounds. How blessed and inspired I am to work alongside these educators and volunteers!

SECOND NIGHT SEDER: SO MUCH FUN!

What a grand time we all had a Temple Sholom's Annual Second Night Seder. It was a wonderful evening. Many thanks to our Cantor, Jamie Marx, for leading us in prayer, song and some giggles, too. Catered by Steve Stein's Famous Deli, in NE Philadelphia, 81 members and their families attended. So many beautiful seder plates graced our tables. We started the evening with delicious appetizers, after which we opened our Haggadahs and enjoyed a traditional Temple Sholom style seder (including an appearance by Howard "God" Cylinder). It is always so special when we share with four generations at our seder table.

As with any event like this, it takes a village to put it all together. Todah rabah and yasher koach to the Second Seder volunteers:

Foremost to Mary Ann Gould, who ran the kitchen; David and Eileen Buckwalter and daughter, granddaughter and grandson (Jeni, Jordyn and Austin Fisher), Howard aka "God" Cylinder, Evalyn Elias, Daniel Endy, Tim Habbert, Jim Meyer, Rachel and Chas Thomas, Richard, Lisa and David Wagner, and Elliot and Jessica Wunsh. And special thanks to Mitch Wolfson, Second Seder Chair and all around chief of the kitchen!

MAY B'NAI MITZVAH

Andrew Spencer Rubin, son of Eric and Aimee Rubin, will become a Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, May 2. Sharing in his special day will be his brother Will, sister Natalie, Marion and Richard Taxin (maternal grandparents from Rose Valley), Sarah and Ira Rubin (paternal grandparents from Red Bank, New Jersey), Annette Kasendorf, GREAT grandmother from New Jersey, along with many friends and family from different parts of the country.

Andrew is a Springton Lake Middle School 7th grader. He is very involved in Community Theater. He has performed in many productions at the Swarthmore Players Club through YPTW. This past fall, he played Puggsley in the Addams Family at the Media Theater. He studies voice privately. Most recently, he played Harvey in Bye Bye Birdie at his middle school and is currently in rehearsals for Oklahoma in Swarthmore.

For his Mitzvah Project, Andrew prepared a concert of Broadway songs to perform for the residents at his great grandmother's senior citizen community in New Jersey. He hopes to continue to share his talents with others and bring smiles to people's faces.

Andrew would like to thank Rabbi Rigler and Cantor Marx for all of their help in preparing him for his big day.

Grace Querido, daughter of Steve and Dana Querido, will become a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, May 9. Celebrating with her that day will be Jonathan Querido, Elaina Querido, Mel and Ronni Flitter from Philadelphia (Dana's parents), Bob and Bea Querido (Steve's father and step mother) from Oldsmar, Florida, and Roy Knapp (Steve's step father) from Rockaway Township, New Jersey.

Grace is in the 7th grade at Stetson Middle School in West Chester. Some of her hobbies include arials ( a form of circus arts), cheer and gymnastics.

For my Bat Mitzvah project I went to La Mancha (an animal shelter) to volunteer my time. We walked dogs in the cold icy slush. Even though I was walking in circles while my shoes filled with water it meant a lot to the dogs so it meant a lot to me. The dogs were so happy to finally get out of the cages. I was very happy to know I helped these dogs until they found their forever home. I plan on continuing to volunteer at La Mancha.

Nathan M. Frankel, son of Matt and Shelby Frankel, will become a Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, May 16. Joining him will be his brother, Eli, Mom Mom - Wendy Frankel, Grandma and Pop Pop - Carole and Jim Kane, Aunt Robbie, Uncle John and cousin

Mara, Uncle Brian, Aunt Sally, cousins Joshua and Emily from Pittsburgh, Uncle Chris from Augusta, Georgia, Uncle Craig and Aunt Kayt from Morristown, New Jersey, and others coming from Arizona, Boston, Connecticut, Florida, and New York.

I'm a 7th grader at Radnor Middle School. In my free time I like to play sports. My favorite sport is baseball. One of my favorite memories is playing on the U12 District Tournament team last summer. I currently play on the RMS seventh grade team. I also enjoy playing lacrosse, basketball and football. Fishing is my favorite hobby. I'm looking forward to spending my seventh summer at Briarwood Day Camp.

For my mitzvah project I chose to help and give time to the Bucks County SPCA. When we adopted my dog Ginger from the very same facility five years ago, it was a life changing experience. I saw the joy on her face when she left the shelter, and experienced how much a forever home really meant to her. I also saw the sadness in many animals still waiting for their chance at a forever home. Even though Ginger was lucky enough to be in the shelter only a few days, there are many animals who are not so lucky. To help those animals, I wanted to find out what they might need to make their stay more comfortable. I met with the Director of Education and Outreach, Nikki Thompson, and we talked about what items where needed at the shelter. The shelter needs everything from dog and cat food to towels, blankets and enrichment toys. I held a pet drive at a local pet store and at Temple Sholom. I also signed up to be a junior volunteer which I hope to continue with after my Bar Mitzvah. It has always been very meaningful to me to help those that cannot help themselves. In this case, it is the animals in the shelter that cannot help themselves, and my mission was to help bring a little comfort to those waiting for their forever home. I felt a pet drive was important to not only ask for donated because it's "the nice thing to do," but it is a responsibility that we all have to help people and animals that cannot help themselves. Ginger's story has a happy ending, but there are many other animals out there waiting to have that same experience. If we all do our responsibilities, and do good in the world, then all our lives will be changed in a very good way.

Sydney Zilch, daughter of Bradley and Pamela Zilch, will become a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, May 30. Among her friends and family joining her that day will be her brother, Quinten, grandmother Judy Saltz, and grandparents Marsha and Jim Zilch.

A Springton Lake Middle School 7th grader, Sydney enjoys playing the flute and volleyball, and reading.

For her Mitzvah Project, Sydney is volunteering at Nana's Attic which is a thrift store benefiting The Domestic Abuse Project of Delaware County. Her Torah portion includes the first reference to rights for women, and Sydney has been exploring women who have fought for those rights across the world. Her time at Nana's Attic makes that research much more tangible.

Women's Spirituality

We invite all women from Temple Sholom in Broomall to join us on Thursday, May 14th at 10:00 a.m. to celebrate Shavout in the Park. As we approach a week before Shavout and the fortieth day of the Omer which brings us "Presence within Connection," we will join together for Jewish enrichment that comes with the first fruits of friendship. Let us renew our commitment to receive the Torah when we meet for a very special time together in the outdoors.

Women's Spirituality will be traveling to Ridley Creek State Park on Thursday May 14th - rain date is Monday, May 18th.

The program will run from 10:00 a.m. to noon. We plan to have lunch at Charlotte's, 3207 West Chester Pike, Newtown Square, a handicapped accessible restaurant, after the program. We will meet at the park entrance promptly at 10:00 a.m. (the bridge near Bishop Hollow Rd. and Chapel Hill Rd.) Directions and parking information are at the end of this article. It is about a half hour walk to our program location which is next to the Fisherman's deck. There is handicap parking nearby. People who cannot walk the half hour from the entrance at the park to the meeting location (less than a mile) and/or have a handicap tag, will be able to drive to the handicap parking area and join us for the meeting. Handicapped parking area is very close to our meeting place and has a toilet facility.

Here is some helpful information:

- Wear comfortable clothes and walking shoes.
- Bring a light folding chair. There is a picnic table that can seat 8 people. Beyond that we need chairs. All the chairs will be transported by one car to the handicap parking area near the meeting place.

In order to know if you are planning to come and to enable us to contact you of any change in plans please RSVP by Friday, May 8 with your phone number and email address to kresch@verizon.net. Please indicate in your RSVP if you cannot walk the half hour from the entrance of the park to the meeting location or have a handicap tag so we can make arrangements for you. If you need a ride please indicate that in your RSVP.

DIRECTIONS to the entrance of the park where we will meet at 10:00 a.m... From BROOMALL - Go west on West Chester Pike toward Newtown Square. Pass Rt. 252 LEFT at the next light onto Bishop Hollow Rd. Note: Bishop Hollow Rd makes a sharp right turn after a few feet. Go 3.3 miles on Bishop Hollow Rd. RIGHT - at the bridge at the intersection of Bishop Hollow Rd and Chapel Hill Rd. Entrance to the park is at the end of the bridge on your right.

Note: Bishop Hollow Rd ends at Chapel Hill Rd. and the name changes to N. Ridley Creek Rd.

PARKING - You can park near the entrance, if there is space. If not, look for parking on Chapel Hill Rd. The car needs to be on the dirt area on the side of these roads, not on the paved area.

*We recommend arranging carpools.*

Mark your calendars for Women's Spirituality on May 14. Rain date May 18. Watch your email and you can also check with the office.

We look forward to sharing this special time with you in the outdoors and in nature. Please remember to RSVP by May 8 to kresch@verizon.net.

Come Meditate with Us!

Wednesday Morning Meditation

Same Time . . . A New Location

It's Wednesday morning and Jewish meditation is now meeting in the Temple Sanctuary from 9:25 a.m. to 10:15 a.m.

Come . . . Take the time to stop and catch your breath . . . A time to listen to your breath . . .

The sensation of stopping . . . Imagine sitting in a circle . . . closing your eyes . . . listening to the sounds around you, just letting them wash over you. Taking in a nice full breath . . . feeling the delicious sensation of inhaling and exhaling - an ordinary pleasure you are often too busy to enjoy. This ordinary pleasure is awaiting you in the Temple Sanctuary on Wednesday mornings from 9:25 a.m. - 10:15 a.m.

As the May flowers begin to bloom please plan on sharing with us as we learn what meditation has to offer and what it can bring to each of us personally. There is a seat waiting for you in our circle of chairs as we spend quiet time together.

Everyone is welcome. Join us once, once in a while or every time we meet. No previous meditation experience is required.

Meditation Dates to Remember for the Month:

May 6, 13, 20 & 27

Pre-Shabbat Meditation

After two months Shabbat Meditation resumes in the Temple Annex from 7:00 p.m. - 7:45 p.m. on May  $22^{nd}$ .

Do Jews Meditate? It has been a year since we first asked that question and began taking the first steps to our monthly Shabbat meditation.

Shabbat meditation can be a way of bringing you closer and more open to the experience of our tradition. Something powerful is added when meditating with others.

Jewish meditation offers a profound spiritual experience that can enrich our daily lives. The practice of meditation is open to everyone. By joining our group meditation in the hour immediately before our Friday evening service, you may find a new and more meaningful way into Judaism and prayer.

As we begin our second year of Shabbat meditation on the fourth Friday of the month you might discover that the practice of meditation can be a particularly powerful experience. Meditating with others enhances the experience.

Please join us on May 22 from 7:00 - 7:45 PM as we "warm up" for prayer.

We look forward to sharing this time with you.

Questions? Please contact the Temple Office at 610-356-5165 or Linda Tarash at 610-446-2101 or linda.tarash@gmail.com.

Welcoming the Stranger: A special Shabba' Friday, May 15 at 8:00 p.m.

Our Scriptures feature no less than 36 warnings against unsuitable behavior towards the stranger - no other commandment is referred to as frequently as, "Thou shalt love the stranger...The stranger that sojourns with you shall be unto you as the home-born among you, and you shall love him as yourself, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt" The Jewish way of acting on this command is related to the value of Hachnassat Orchim - welcoming the stranger as a guest. In the Talmud, Rav Dimi of Nehardea goes os far as to say, "Hachnassat Orchim - the welcoming of guests - takes precedence over the beit midrash - of the house of study, and even over welcoming the Divine presence.

Perhaps you have heard of HIAS Pennsylvania (Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society). It is an incredible group working to make our values a reality by assisting the stranger in our community. It was founded with a singular vision: to welcome new Americans. There mission is to create a welcoming and secure environment for all immigrants and their families in our state. This past year one of our own stepped into the role of Deputy Director of HIAS, Cathryn Miller-Wilson. She will be speaking about HIAS and her work on May 15 at Shabbat Services at 8:00 p.m. Join us to learn more and to celebrate the work of our congregant and friend. Please see her very impressive bio below to learn more about her work and journey to HIAS.

Cathryn Miller-Wilson is the Deputy Director of HIAS Pennsylvania. Prior to that she was a Visiting Assistant Professor at Villanova University School of Law where she co-taught the Civil Justice Clinic. She also taught Legal Writing. From September, 2008 through June, 2011 she was both the Deputy Managing Attorney at the AIDS Law Project of Pennsylvania and an adjunct professor at Drexel University Earle Mack School of Law where she taught a Field Clinic. She has been a Custody and Support Master in Philadelphia's Family Court, coordinator of the Delivery of Legal Services Committee of the Philadelphia Bar Association. Director of the Parents with HIV/AIDS Project at the AIDS Law Project of Pennsylvania and a staff attorney at Community Legal Services, Inc. where she represented parents accused of abuse and neglect. She co-founded, while in law school, the Custody and Support Assistance Clinic (CASAC) and today sits on the board of that organization. She is the primary author of Pennsylvania's Standby Guardianship Act which became law in December, 1998. With support from the Drexel University Earle Mack School of Law, she created a medical/legal partnership between the AIDS Law Project of Pennsylvania and the Jonathan Lax Treatment Center at Philadelphia FIGHT in 2007. She has made numerous presentations on family law, the unique issues in families affected by HIV/AIDS, standby guardianship, confidentiality and consumer rights issues. She has several law journal publications regarding legal ethics, disability law and policy and legal education published in the Quinnipiac University School of Law Health Law Journal, the University of Maryland Law Journal of Race, Religion, Gender and Class and the University of Nebraska Law Review.. She graduated from Tufts University in 1989 and from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1993 and currently sits on the law school's Board of Managers. In 2004 she was awarded the Penn Law Alumni Society's Young Alumni Award for Professional Achievement.

Closing Supper and Entertainment

On Thursday, June 18th at 6 PM, Hilltoppers and friends will enjoy a delicious light dinner catered by Mrs.Marty's Deli Restaurant, followed by a program of delightful entertainment by The Trolley Stoppers, four-port a cappella singing group from Media.

The Trolley Stoppers are four guys who are passionate about singing a cappella. No musical genre is off-limits for them. They do a little barbershop and a little doo-wop; some music from recent years and some from fifty or a hundred years ago. The Beatles, Billy Joel, and Tears for Fears are all in their repertoire. Some of their songs are commercially-available arrangements, and some they have arranged themselves. Who knows what they might sing next? They'll try anything, as long as it has a good tune, appealing harmonies, interesting lyrics—and they enjoy singing it.

They have sung in various coffee houses in the area and at numerous community events. One frequent venue is Hobbs Coffee, by the tracks in Swarthmore, PA.

The Trolley Stoppers got together in the fall of 2008 when Jeff, Bob, and George (who had sung together previously) found a fourth member (Wayne) to complete the group. They loved singing together from the start; and before long, they found that their four voices were coalescing into a rich a cappella blend.

The cost for the evening is $15.00 per person.
