Mazel Tov to the class of 2015! Good luck in all your future endeavors! Check out next month’s issue to see where some of our graduates are going next year.

Dear Friends,

We hope you will join us on Thursday, June 11th from 3:00 - 5:30 p.m. at Temple Sholom in support of Alex’s Lemonade Stand in honor of Maya. Each June, lemonade days raises needed funds to fight childhood cancers. Each year the Rigler family has held the stand at either Kneseth Israel or Temple Sholom and this is our year. With everything going on in our lives, our family debated holding our usual stand this year. It was our daughter Maya who gave us the push we needed. She said, “I really want to have it.” Somehow, even as she fights her own cancer battle she is more concerned about raising money to help others. We know so many of you have given generously to this cause in honor of Maya and we are grateful. We hope that you will join us for a glass of lemonade as we help reach toward her goal of $250,000. If Maya is feeling up to it she would love to share it with you as well! Please bring friends and share this event with others!

~ The Rigler Family
Recently, this picture presented itself to me on our own Church Lane. I had to laugh at seeing so many signs all in one place. I also laughed because it seemed so appropriate for those coming to Temple Sholom for some spiritual direction. We know it is easy to get lost and even easier to get lost when we are confused by our own prayer book. We want to provide the opportunity to help direct you into the Holy Days this coming year.

For more than 40 years Temple Sholom has used the Gates of Repentance as our machzor for the High Holy Days. Just six years ago, our congregation moved to using Mishkan T’filah (Dwelling Place of Prayer) as our siddur for regular services during the year. Mishkan T’filah represented an approach to prayer that was very different from the book that preceded it, but it has become a familiar and welcoming companion to our prayer experience.

Over the past several years a new High Holy Days machzor, similar in approach and style to Mishkan T’filah, has been under development. It is entitled Mishkan Hanefesh (Dwelling Place of the Soul), and after extensive review and consideration we have decided to adopt this new machzor for 2015. With a very generous gift from Murray H. Shusterman and Jerry Frank and Melissa Shusterman, we will be able to purchase the new machzor for our entire community. We are so grateful for their inspiring gift!

A change such as this means that all of us, clergy and congregants alike, will be learning and adjusting to the new machzor. As we look ahead to receiving the new books any day now, we are already at work preparing for the High Holy Day experience. The Cantor and I attended a conference in New York to help us consider how to use the book for our community. I believe the change will be very valuable. The conference opened our eyes to so many exciting possibilities for worship. We are not supposed to come just to feel the comfort of an old book; the changes in readings, poetry and prayer will keep us alert and thinking. That is exactly what I would hope when we come for the Holy Days. I hope even when we are praying together, you will take the opportunity to get lost in prayer and enjoy the readings. We will make sure to have copies available in the library when they arrive for review.

We also wanted to establish four learning sessions for exploration of the new book so we could all be better prepared for the Days of Awe.

An introduction to Mishkan Hanefesh: Finding our way

Session 1: June 22 at 7:30 p.m.
Explore the challenges and opportunities of a new machzor with Cantor Marx and Rabbi Rigler.

Session 2: July 13 at 7:30 p.m.
We will have the opportunity to hear from the editor of the new machzor, Rabbi Edwin Goldberg, a noted lecturer who is senior rabbi at Temple Sholom in Chicago and the former spiritual leader at Temple Judea in Coral Gables, Florida.

Session 3: August 26 at 7:30 p.m.
Finding meaning through words and music. An exploration of the pages of our machzor and finding the right notes.

Session 4: S’lichot, Saturday, September 5
Melodies of Holiness: opening our hearts to the familiar and the new.

Please take advantage of these sessions and explore our new machzor so that when we celebrate our new year it won’t be a new book but a new entry point for a shanah tovah, a sweet and healthy new year.

Way back in the 16th century, the mystics of Safed were always seeking new ways to experience God’s presence. They were ecstatic worshippers, willing to literally run, leap, and shout for joy just as the psalms tell us to do. Our kabbalat Shabbat liturgy comes directly from the practice of these mystics -- the psalms that we sing at the beginning of Friday night services along with texts like L’cha Dodi and Shalom Aleichem. We know that they would run into the fields on Friday night to welcome Shabbat under the starry sky, out among nature.

We have our own opportunity to pray out in nature on Friday, June 12, for Shabbat in the Park. There is nothing more awe-inspiring than nature. The view at Ridley Creek State Park will surely remind us of God’s awesome creative power and the grandeur of creation that exists around us. We will sing the familiar words and melodies amidst a backdrop of natural beauty in our own neighborhood. It all begins at 5:30 p.m. with a walk in the park, delicious bbq dinner (reservations are a must) at 6:00 p.m. (see page 22 for details), followed by Shabbat in the Park at 7:00 p.m. We hope you’ll join us for dinner and services!

And please join us on Tuesday, June 2 for the Jewish Choral Festival (see page 16 for details)

BOARD GREETINGS

Have you been to Shabbat services lately? Attended a program or event? Checked out a book from the library? Come to a potluck Shabbat dinner? Called the office? Grabbed a cup of coffee or a treat from the Rimon café?

If you have done any of these things - or myriad others - you have seen the handiwork of some of the dedicated corps of volunteers that make Temple Sholom such a warm, vibrant community. From organizing the monthly Shabbat potlucks to maintaining the library to running programs large and small to organizing Mitzvah Meals and Mitzvah Core to serving on the Temple Board and committees and auxiliaries, it is the volunteers that make so many of what we do at Temple possible.

There are volunteer opportunities for people of every age and interest available for you to get involved, too. No matter what your schedule or your skills, there is a way that you can help keep Temple Sholom an active and involved community. I hope that you will join us today.

Sisterhood’s Attic Treasure Sale
It’s Happening Sunday, June 7

You might think that Sisterhood has wrapped up for the year, since our Closing Event was on May 13, but we’re excited to say that’s not true at all!

Coming soon, on Sunday, June 7 from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., is our first-ever Attic Treasure Sale. This will take place in the Multipurpose Room (not the Temple parking lot, as originally noted). Please be sure to spread the word about this exciting event with friends, family and neighbors, because the more shoppers we have the more successful we’ll be!

Fran and I can personally tell you that we will have plenty of merchandise because my garage is filling up with fascinating objects. I’m tempted to shop in my own garage but am restraining myself. Please join us on Sunday, June 7, to volunteer, to shop or do both.

Meanwhile, there’s still plenty of storage room, so please go through your homes to add your merchandise that we’ll convert to our treasures. Pick up from your homes can be arranged.

Also, Chairperson Melissa Fein could use some extra hands with organizing and pricing items prior to the event. Please help us out. Contact Melissa at mfein10@gmail.com or email us at sisterhood@temple-sholom.org.

But back to our Closing Dinner … it was just great! Of course, Fran and I believe it was the entertainment that really “made” the event. We are such a “family,” LOL! Our Brunch for Dinner event catered by Pumpernick’s was just delicious and appreciated by all. Our tentative plans for next year were also unveiled that night.

Our Sisterhood Book Club continues during the summer, with our reading selection of Those Who Save Us, by Jenna Blum. We will be meeting on Thursday, July 9. We’ll let you know the location as the date gets nearer.

We’re happy to continue offering Happiness and Memorial Cards and Jewish National Fund trees throughout the summer. Our prices through Temple Sholom’s Sisterhood are lower than anywhere else around. Please contact Shirley Birenbaum, who will take care of your commemorations of life’s events.

Either call her at 610-328-2171 or email her with your order at surabassa@aol.com.

The Gift Garden will be available for shopping through special arrangement during the summer. Contact sisterhood@temple-sholom.org to find out how.

Your co-presidents will be very lonely if you don’t stay in touch with us this summer. We are only a keystroke away. Let us know how you’re doing, and we look forward to seeing ALL of you at the Attic Treasure Sale on Sunday, June 7.

Our Sisterhood is YOUR Sisterhood. Work with us, learn with us and hang out with us!
Board Meetings in the Temple Library

Our antiques appraisal event last month, What's It Worth? was a rousing success. Led by Michael Locati of Locati Auctions of Ambler, PA, we found out whether our special items really were valuable or not.

Donations
Please direct your donations to the Hilltoppers Fund by making checks payable to “Hilltoppers of Temple Sholom” and mailing them to the Temple. Your donations will be listed in The Temple Tidings.

Dr. Horowitz, Retiring Superintendent of Marple Newtown Schools, recently spoke to Hilltoppers members and guests on a topic of which she is an expert: Cyberbullying.

Not only has Dr. Horowitz been the Superintendent for 10 years, she recently won the 2014 Pennsylvania Award for top School Administrators. She has been in education for 40 years and recently appeared on NBC and CBC television, serving on a panel with other top educators.

She has recently gained acclaim for earning her Doctorate, which focused on Cyberbullying. She co-authored a book with internet and technology attorney Dorothy Bollinger entitled Cyberbullying and Social Media in Public School Education. Two copies will soon be available in our Temple Sholom Library. The book sold out immediately and is currently in its second printing.

Dr. Horowitz noted that violence prevention began in the 1980s and 1990s, when it was most commonly known as playground bullying. Cyberbullying came about in the turn of the century. She explained that the proliferation of the internet has caused cyberbullying in social media. In 2005, when Dr. Horowitz became Superintendent of Marple Newtown, cyberbullying and texting became very popular – even teacher to teacher. Complaints began being sent to union leadership.

Threatening emails were sent. Parents would write to principals recommending specific teachers be fired. As Dr. Horowitz became aware of these issues, she wrote a magazine article entitled, The Explosive InBox. A major book publisher asked her to write a book based on her research and that article.

Cyberbullying can be anonymous and insidious, Dr. Horowitz noted. Victims become depressed, school phobic, experience suicidal ideation. To combat cyberbullying, assemblies in middle schools perform role plays acted by teachers, which are very effective. Afterward, small group discussions take place.

Not only do educators need to talk to children about cyberbullying, but parents must become involved, as well.

A new development, sexting, has recently arisen. Photos can be put into DropBox. North Penn High School had an instance of nude and seminude photos of high school girls being posted.

A program has begun to combat this problem in the elementary schools, as well. Teachers are being trained to deal with cyberbullying. Every year, teachers become retrained. Mobile devices are banned these days from locker rooms. Statistically, ¾ of bullying is now cyberbullying.

Upon her retirement this summer, Dr. Horowitz plans to become a consultant on cyberbullying and will also help to train teachers.

The Sisterhood Book Club will meet on Thursday, July 9 at 7:30 p.m. to discuss Those Who Save Us, by Jenna Blum. Donna Hendel will be hosting this month’s group. Her address is: 314 Harvard Drive, Broomall.

For fifty years, Anna Schlemmer has refused to talk about her life in Germany during World War II. Anna’s daughter Trudy was only four when she and Anna were liberated from Nazi Weimar by an American soldier and went with him to Minnesota, so Trudy can’t remember much….but she has one piece of evidence from the past: a family portrait showing Trudy, Anna, and a Nazi officer, the Obersturmführer of Buchenwald.

Driven by the guilt of her heritage, Trudy, now a professor of German history, begins investigating the past and finally unearths the dramatic and heartbreaking truth of her mother’s life.

Combining a story of passionate but doomed love, a vivid evocation of life during the war, and a poignant mother-daughter drama, Those Who Save Us is a profound exploration of what we endure to survive and the legacy of shame.

Please RSVP to alissamgm@aol.com by July 2.

Discussion Group

The next, and last till 5776, Discussion Group meeting will be:

Sunday, June 14th at 12:00 noon

Bryn Mawr, PA 19010
Phone 610- 527- 4138
Email: bobnmarians@aol.com

Topic: Peace Movements: Do they help or just make us feel good?

Specific information will be sent to all on the mailing list and any who request it.

Please RSVP if you are coming and let us know what you are bringing. Reply to all so others will know what you are bringing too.

Meeting Recap

Meeting at the home of Arline and Warren Lieberman on April 26, our discussion group numbered about 18 this time. We had a wide ranging conversation about the tension between President Obama and Prime Minister Netanyahu and the state of American-Israeli relations more generally. Our group spans the political spectrum and began with support for one leader or the other and the philosophies and actions they propose. We discussed the way their relationship reflects so many of the larger issues in our politics and in the Middle East.

As the conversation progressed, we found ourselves in increasing agreement that history and domestic politics have mostly aggravated the conflict in the greater Middle East. We agreed that all nations are composed of people with widely varying beliefs. The promotion of person to person contacts and the ensuing decrease in demonization and misunderstanding seems the only long term way to peace. Several members expressed an interest in Temple Sholom acting to promote such contact here and in Israel.
THE ETTA NATALIE ROSENBLATT PRESCHOOL

What a wonderful year we had in Preschool in 2014/15. Our students had great experiences learning, growing and being part of a wonderful community. I am grateful to all the families who entrusted us with their children and very proud of my staff for their excellent work. Our enrollment was 65 and over the last two years, over 20 of our preschool families have joined the congregation.

School ended on a positive note. First, our June Fundraiser was a big success! Second, our end of the year parties and graduation ceremonies were extremely well received by parents and everyone else who attended. All the kids did a fantastic job performing songs and talking about their year in Preschool. Of course, we have lots of video and pictures to remember these special moments.

As you know, we just keep on going at Preschool. We’re having our Pre-camp Program the two weeks before our summer begins at Camp Menschy!! We already have more than 25 campers and registration remains open. We have lots of fun planned and many special outdoor activities. Camp Menschy is going to be the place to be this summer!

Registration for next year is already going strong. We have over 50 children registered so far! There are many new families and room for many more. Please let your friends, neighbors and family know that there are still spaces available. Registration will continue throughout the summer.

Wishing everyone a safe and fun summer!

Library News

The end of the year brings a time for reflection on the year past and planning for the year to come. Our library is a fully volunteer operation. Jim Meyer, Cindy Meyer, Erica Danowitz and Bev Granoff each contribute to the donation of books, cleaning of the library, accession, data entry, technology, thank you notes and covering of new materials. Our gratitude is immeasurable. Thank you to our Academy student volunteer, David Pessin, for his help during Rimon on Sunday mornings. Thank you to Lori Green for donating wonderful new books to the library. We want to recognize the donation of Sisterhood and Hilltoppers Book Club books for this year and next year.

Sometime this month, we will have a large screen TV for the library. Teachers will now be able to connect and project work onto the screen from their laptop computer. This step up to a Library Learning Center was made possible by the contributions of the Howard Weiner family, Marge and Bob Feldman and the donations from you, our congregants. In addition, a big thank you to Dave Mendell who lead the project, Jim Meyer who prepared the wall and Executive Director, Abbey Krain who made it happen.

Do you have free time during the summer? Join us in the library. Call me at home to schedule a time that is convenient to you.

Around Rimon

Ahhhhh….summer! Each and every one of us looks forward to the days of summer when we can put away the books, enjoy the outdoors, relax, do a little travel, enjoy family time and have fun. This summer I have a challenge for you! I am asking you to find a bit of the sacred each day throughout the summer. Each day, try to see the world through Jewish eyes. Whether it be a beautiful sunset, the crashing of the waves, a beautiful flower, or the smile on a child’s face – take a moment to notice the beauty and the connections with the sacred. Sanctify the moment with a blessing or prayer. And…take a photo and/or craft a note of the moment. I would love if you would share these with me throughout the summer. Send me an email and I will collect them to share with all at the beginning of the 2015-2016/5776 school year!

Teen Engagement at Rimon

Coming this fall Teen Engagement at Temple Sholom promises to have a new look and feel. Our Monday Night Academy Program, our Gesherim program, new options and electives, and our youth groups will fall under one umbrella offering robust, meaningful and exciting opportunities for all of our youth in 6th – 12th grades. Watch future Tidings for more updates.

Registration for the 2015-2016/5776 Rimon School Year

If you did not receive a registration form in the mail please call the school office and speak with Nertila. Encourage your friends to join our nationally-recognized Rimon program!

JUNE B’NAI MITZVAH

Julius Murphy, son of Elizabeth Datner and Sean Murphy, will become a Bar Mitzvah on June 6. His sister Lila, brother Griffin, grandparents, Charlie and Shirley Datner, aunts Ellen Datner and Alice Datner, uncle Robert Datner, and cousins Max Datner, Waverly Datner, and Chloe Datner will share in this special day.

A 7th grader at Bala Cynwyd Middle School, Julius writes: In extra-curricular activities, I am part of the school chorus and participate in the technical education classes. I also enjoy training in the musical arts such as piano and ukulele. I have been studying and writing piano music for three years now and have been teaching myself the ukulele over the past couple of months. When I am not practicing my instruments, you can find me playing ultimate Frisbee or training my two German Shepherd/bloodhound mix puppies. I spend most of my other time sleeping, studying Hebrew, or doing homework.

For my Mitzvah Project, I felt that there was so much need for service, I decided to participate in an array of community services rather than focus on a single project. Each month since January, I packaged and delivered food for those in need through the Jewish Relief Agency and I recruited a group of friends to join me to help serve as many recipients as possible. I also did yard work for a 92 year old woman in Secane through Surrey Services for Seniors. I worked with the Rotary Club of Upper Darby-Lansdowne to clean up a local park, and I spent months growing my hair in order to donate it to children who have lost their hair as the result of chemotherapy. I recognize the vast need for compassion, empathy and service in this complicated world and I have committed myself to doing my part.

Lara Briggs, daughter of Robin and Jim Briggs, will become a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, June 13. Celebrating with her that day will be Norman Feinstein (Robin’s father), Kitty and Lloyd Briggs (Jim’s parents) from Cleveland OH and Colchester VT, and family from as far away as Seattle, California, Florida, and everywhere in between.

Lara is in the 7th grade at Valley Forge Middle School in Wayne. An avid musician and multi-instrumentalist, Lara performs with five groups at school (orchestra and string ensemble, jazz ensemble, and two choirs) in addition to being the bassist and supporting vocals for her rock band, Don’t Blame the Alligator. Lara also devotes a considerable amount of time and energy to student council, where she has been a member for the past two years. In addition to playing music, Lara’s hobbies include songwriting, creative writing, playing with her miniature schnauzer Buddy, and all things Instagram.

For her Mitzvah project, Lara spent the entire 7th school year tutoring first graders in reading and math for one afternoon a week at nearby Valley Forge Elementary School. In addition to watching her pupils grow their skills and confidence, Lara is always lifted up by teaching and being around young children, and plans to continue tutoring for as long as she can.

Women’s Spirituality

All women from Temple Sholom in Broomall are invited to join us on Wednesday, June 24th at 7:30 p.m. when Shelly Barnathan will be presenting her teaching on The Month of Tammuz - Seeing Life As It Is.

Tammuz is the fourth month of the Jewish calendar. Tammuz begins the summer season. The power of the month of Tammuz (according to some opinions) is “sight.” A month to ‘see’ and establish the brilliance of your righteousness. It can be a month to guard your heart - what you feel and think - what you allow yourself to ‘see’ - “Behold, I set before you today a blessing and a curse” (Deut. 11:26).

Tammuz can be a Time for Transformation. It is the time of year best suited for understanding and practicing the process of transformation.

Come together for all of us to ‘see’ the energy of home and family in ourselves when Shelly Barnathan will present her teaching The Month of Tammuz - Seeing Life As It Is.

If you wish to begin your evening with meditation led by one of our members, join us in the library at 6:25 p.m. before our program begins at 7:30 p.m.

Planning ahead . . . mark your calendars for July 22 when Rabbi Leah Berkowitz will be presenting Women and Tzedakah in the Jewish Text.

Women’s Spirituality welcomes your donations and thanks you for any contributions that you have made. All funds donated help make it possible for us to invite the knowledgeable scholars who teach us so much.

Wednesday Morning And Pre-Shabbat Meditation Announcement

Wednesday and Pre-Shabbat Meditation at Temple Sholom will be ending beginning in June.

We have enjoyed coming together with everyone for meditation and reflection on Wednesday mornings and before the Shabbat services on the fourth Friday of the month. It has offered us time to stop and catch our breath . . . a time to listen to our breath, a time to “warm up” for prayer, and a time to consider what is truly important to bring forward to our life. Each of us has enjoyed the experience of learning and sharing in our circle as we gathered for meditation.

We would like to thank everyone who has shared in this meaningful way into Judaism and prayer.

JNF Trees and Water for Israel

A tree was planted by Liz Mellman in memory of Lillian E. Leone, beloved mother & mother-in-law of Joe & Kathy Leone.

A tree was planted by the Sisterhood Board in memory of Lois Marcus, beloved mother, mother-in-law, grandmother & great grandmother of Barbara & John Barr & Family.

An orchard of ten trees was planted by Louise Schmidt & Art Zabell in celebration of the marriage of Yoel Avigdor Smith, son of Mr. & Mrs. Perry Smith, to Batel Faragi.

A quick and easy way to honor and/or remember a friend, relative or event is to have one or more trees planted in Israel. Or a donation may be made to help meet Israel's water needs. In either case a lovely certificate is sent to the honoree and/or family. Donations start at $18.00.

Congratulations to Jona Lieberman - Sisterhood Scholarship Winner

Here’s Jona’s winning essay:

My Jewish journey started when I was just a baby. My mother brought me and my sister to the toddler program, Yaldai Shalom. Then came Sunday school. I was nervous at the time about making new friends. Instead, I ended up making family. Since then I've been a part of Hebrew School, Hebrew High School, Confirmation, being a Madricha, and working at Camp Menschy.

Judaism is about the community experience we share as a people. I've never felt more at peace than attending Friday night Shabbat services. I've loved being a part of mitzvot, big and small, with Temple Sholom, and I am humbled by Judaism's continuing commitment to make the world a better place through Tikkun Olam, healing the world. I vividly remember the night I volunteered for the dinner with the women and children's shelter. One lady asked me if I had any children myself. I was somewhat shocked, and it opened my eyes to the realities that they face every day. The wonderful thing is that Judaism has something to say about every situation, and having that point of view helps shape how I look at the world.

Growing up at the synagogue, I knew many in the congregation, but serving last year on the Cantor Search Committee I was blessed to meet so many more families than before. This sense of community that envelops Temple Sholom is a major reason I am so invested in my Judaism. Despite the differences between Reform, Reconstructionist, Conservative, and Orthodox, we all share a common base, and a rich heritage. Like the Ner Tamid, the eternal light, we as Jews have a responsibility and an obligation to spread light. Temple Sholom and Judaism have shaped who I am. I am proud to be Jewish, to be a part of the culture, the responsibilities, and the community that comes with it.

Closing Supper and Entertainment

On Thursday, June 18th at 6 PM, Hilltoppers and friends will enjoy a delicious light dinner catered by Mrs. Marty's Deli Restaurant, followed by a program of delightful entertainment by The Trolley Stoppers, four-port a cappella singing group from Media.

The Trolley Stoppers are four guys who are passionate about singing a cappella. No musical genre is off-limits for them. They do a little barbershop and a little doo-wop; some music from recent years and some from fifty or a hundred years ago. The Beatles, Billy Joel, and Tears for Fears are all in their repertoire. Some of their songs are commercially-available arrangements, and some they have arranged themselves. Who knows what they might sing next? They'll try anything, as long as it has a good tune, appealing harmonies, interesting lyrics—and they enjoy singing it.

They have sung in various coffee houses in the area and at numerous community events. One frequent venue is Hobbs Coffee, by the tracks in Swarthmore, PA.

The Trolley Stoppers got together in the fall of 2008 when Jeff, Bob, and George (who had sung together previously) found a fourth member (Wayne) to complete the group. They loved singing together from the start; and before long, they found that their four voices were coalescing into a rich a cappella blend.

The cost for the evening is $15.00 per person.

For reservations, please send your checks payable to "Hilltoppers," to: Liz Mellman, 832 Cricket Ave., Ardmore, PA 19003

For more than 117 years, the family-owned Joseph Levine & Son Memorial Chapel has maintained a high reputation for quality while serving generations in the Jewish community.

And now the tradition grows with our new Bucks County Memorial Chapel, in addition to our Philadelphia and Main Line locations.

Whether you need pre-arrangement assistance or time-of-need service, you can find it in any of our three convenient locations.

Our knowledge of and experience with Jewish traditions will insure that every detail of a funeral is handled efficiently, sensitively and at a most competitive rate. We are proud to offer the highest quality care.

Remember us. We are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, to answer your questions and to help.
