FROM THE DESK OF RABBI PETER RIGLER

Dear Friends,

This time of year is always filled with such mixed emotions. In recent days we have been sharing end of year/graduation celebrations in our Preschool. In fact, my youngest Eli graduated and will be off to Elementary school in the fall. We have shared the end of the year celebrations in Rimon, the Confirmation Class service, a blessing with our high school graduates and more. I feel a great sense of pride for what we have accomplished this year together. We continue to grow and thrive as a community. It is clear we offer something unique and special. The energy and love of our community is exciting for all of us to share. I am grateful to our staff and lay leadership who find ways to connect us with our past while helping to create our vibrant future.

In fact, we are in full swing for the next year; at least on paper! We have fabulous scholars, musicians, programs, worship, education and more all in the works to share. Perhaps the largest change will be a new High Holy Day prayerbook. We have the opportunity to ease the transition to our new machzor with a number of study sessions that have been scheduled. Cantor Marx and I have already spent many many hours starting to plan the High Holy Day services with our new machzor (High Holy Day prayerbook) Mishkan Hanefesh. There is a Hasidic story about how a student of Rabbi Mordecai of Nadvorna approached his teacher prior to Rosh Hashanah in order ask permission to be dismissed. Rabbi Mordecai asked him, "What's your hurry?" to which he responded: "I am leading the services back in my home village and I need time to study the prayerbook and put my services in order." Rabbi Mordecai then said to him: "The prayerbook is the same as it was last year. It would be better for you to study your deeds and put yourself in order."

Well, if Rabbi Mordecai said that to me this year, I would say to him: "That's what you think, Rabbi Mordecai! Obviously you have not had a chance to look at any of our new Reform High Holy Day prayerbook, Mishkan Hanefesh!"

Whether or not Rabbi Mordecai has had a chance to take a look at Mishkan Hanefesh, and I doubt that he has, considering the fact that he lived in the 19th century, you - the members of our congregation - will get a chance to look at it, explore it, get to know it and, we hope you will take advantage to see it! We are excited to be challenged by the change together. When we plan the services we look at the service outlines from the past several years and try and use them to guide our decision making process about what we will be doing. I can't begin to tell you how exciting it is to spend time grappling with those choices of what we will do and how we will do it. Every decision is one we discuss, debate and consider together. We are excited to learn, study, pray and explore together!

We wish you a safe wonderful summer and hope you will use it to renew your energy to reconnect here at Temple Sholom.

AN INTRODUCTION TO MISHKAN HANEFESH: FINDING OUR WAY

Session 2: July 13 at 7:30 p.m.

We will have the opportunity to hear from the editor of the new machzor, Rabbi Edwin Goldberg, a noted lecturer who is senior rabbi at Temple Sholom in Chicago and the former spiritual leader at Temple Judea in Coral Gables, Florida.

Session 3: August 26 at 7:30 p.m.

Finding meaning through words and music. An exploration of the pages of our machzor and finding the right notes.

Session 4: S'lichot, Saturday, September 5

Melodies of Holiness: opening our hearts to the familiar and the new.

Please take advantage of these sessions and explore our new machzor so that when we celebrate our new year it won't be a new book but a new entry point for a shana tova, a sweet and healthy new year.

NOTES FROM CANTOR JAMIE MARX . . .

You have to admit, right now it seems a little crazy to talk about Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur and S'lichot and repentance and t'shuvah and the shofar and awe and forgiveness and renewal. Not to mention all the apples and honey and fall weather and such. It is blazing hot outside and our minds are more focused on vacations, fireworks, and the Shore.

Our tradition asks us to think about these things long before we enter the sanctuary on Erev Rosh Hashanah. The entire month of Elul (which begins on Saturday night, August 15) is meant to be our time to prepare our souls for the High Holy Days. The first question one might ask is: why does it take a month? Yom Kippur, it is taught, only atones for sins between us and God. For sins between us and other people, we have to step forward and ask their forgiveness. Think back to yesterday. Now try and recall last week. Go back a month. Two months. How well do you remember the moments of joy? What about the moments of pain? How much harder must it be to take full account of a year of our lives and consider, to whom do we owe an apology? And then consider the time it takes to actually walk up to someone or pick up the phone and say, "I'm sorry for what I did. Will you forgive me?"

The second question that one might ask is: what is Temple Sholom offering that can help with this process? This coming fall we'll be switching to the newly published High Holy Day prayer book, Mishkan HaNefesh. We have four sessions throughout the summer to examine our new machzor and explore the themes which challenge and inspire us. As we consider new readings, new melodies, and newly-included liturgy, perhaps we can find some inspiration for the spiritual task ahead of us. Our new machzor is filled with intriguing, engaging and awesome opportunities for exploration. I hope you'll join us at one of our sessions - more information can be found on page 2.

DIRECTOR'S CORNER

Friends,

The summer time is such a wonderful season. The weather is warm, the sun is bright and we are busy with a great deal of preparation for the High Holy Days and the coming School/Program year at Temple Sholom.

If you have a chance to come in and visit during the summer months, please do so. It is an opportunity for all of us to take some time and reflect on the past year as we look forward to the next one. Simply to take the time to sit and chat with you is a true pleasure for me. Whether you are driving by the Temple and just take a moment to stop in or if you'd like to schedule an appointment, please know that I am available to meet with you during the summer months.

Our Temple community is looking for new members. We have so much to offer and so much to share. In order to do this, we need to get the word out to everyone we know. Let everyone around you know that we welcome new members. If you are able to send me prospective members' contact information, I will reach out to them throughout the summer on behalf of our community.

I wish you a relaxing summer, and look forward to seeing you soon.

~ Warmly, Abbey Krain

TREASURER'S YEAR END WRAP-UP

Another fiscal year is fast coming to a close and once again it has been my pleasure and honor to have served as your Treasurer. I thank you all for your confidence in me and for re-electing me to another two year term.

Due to many factors including increased fund raising, the generosity of many of our congregants and the diligence of our office staff in receivables and cost management, we should manage to make it to the end of the fiscal year in decent financial condition. This is no small achievement and I wish to personally thank Abbey and Betsy for their large role in making this possible.

In serving as chair of the Finance committee, I am extremely fortunate to have a group of people with a single-minded purpose and the good of the Temple at heart who put in the long hours necessary to provide you with our budget. They are: Rachel Amdur, Sandy Barth, Steve Berger, Nancy Bloomfield, Robin Gall, Mary Ann Gould, Steve Hendel, Alan Kirsch, Jim Meyer, Mitch Wolfson, Art Zabell and our ex-officios Emily Mendell and Abbey Krain. I want to thank you all from the bottom of my heart for your effort and devotion to the task.

The major drivers in our budget for 2015-16 were:

- 1) Personnel Costs - In order to maintain and improve the quality of service to our congregants we have provided for a B'nai Mitzvah tutor to aid Cantor Marx; a full-time equivalent in our administrative department; a cost of living adjustment to our non-contract staff; and an increase in salary and benefits to our clergy. Due to the increase in enrollment in our Preschool, we have provided for our Executive Director to increase her availability to full-time with a commensurate increase in salary.
 - 2) Speaking of the Preschool, we have also provided for additional staffing and maintenance coverage to handle the rapid growth in enrollment. In order to cover some of the additional maintenance costs, we increased the Preschool expense allocation to the Temple operations commensurate with those additional costs.
 - 3) With the well-being and safety of our congregation foremost in our thoughts, we continue to maintain a high budgeted amount for Temple security in addition to the funds granted by the Department of Homeland Security. This amount budgeted will cover the additions that we plan to make outside of those grant provisions.
 - 4) We have provided for the establishment of our new Junior Youth program in this budget. While we anticipate that most of these costs will be covered by the generous donation from the Danowitz family, there may be some aspects of implementing this program that we will have to bear and we have allocated for that.
 - 5) We have left room for major improvements and repairs to our Temple facility with a generous budget provision. Our November Gala fundraiser featuring the Capitol Steps should be able to alleviate some of this burden - more about this event later.
 - 6) As usual, winter weather and snowplowing remain concerns. In addressing those issues, we are providing a substantial amount of resources. Luckily we spent less than 60% of last season's budget on snowplowing but actual utilities costs probably will exceed budget by year's end eradicating any savings that we would have realized from that mitzvah.
 - 7) We also provided additional funding for our Inclusivity Committee; for much needed Torah repair; and for Adult B'nai Mitzvot. In addition, our URJ dues have increased over last year's assessment adding an additional strain on our operations.
 - 8) On the revenues side, we have increased dues by a modest 2.5% which will add $60 this year to a family unit at the high end. Rimon and Preschool fees are increased as well. Building fund and b'nai mitzvah fees have also been increased and fundraising has been taxed with the burden of balancing the budget. Speaking of fundraising, I am extremely excited to announce that on November 8 we will be holding our first annual Temple Sholom in Broomall Gala, this year featuring the world-famous Capitol Steps. We have booked the Media Theater for the event which will include a silent auction, refreshments and a lot of fun. It should be a fantastic night for all. Our goal is to raise $100,000 with proceeds going to repair our roofs and to provide funding for much needed capital improvements to our Temple and the Annex. Sponsorships are available starting at $250 and I hope all of you will take advantage of the opportunity to lend your support to this very worthy project.
- All in all, this has been a very challenging, possibly the most challenging, budget process we have faced since I've become treasurer. The fiscal demands being made as we grow, while very much a plus, continue to present a challenge to come up with new and different sources of revenue to meet those demands. The committee will be addressing those alternatives in its meetings throughout the coming year. I look forward to once again chairing this extraordinary committee and I am thrilled with the election of Nancy Bloomfield as Financial Secretary. I look forward to serving in tandem with her in the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,
Steven L. Granoff, CPA, Treasurer

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING - RECORDING SECRETARY'S NOTES

Every year, we have certain things that we must do, clean out the gardens, spring cleaning, get the car inspected. At Temole Sholom, we must also meet to review our accomplishments, elect our Temple Trustees, and approve a budget for the next fiscal year. This year is no different. We met on June 24 to do the Temple's business.

We started with a D'var Torah by Rabbi Rigler. He suggested that every soul has a Torah, and our task is to find our Torah. He is living out his Torah. We participate in our events at Temple Sholom to live our Torah. As we dream about the next year, we go may we go from strength to strength.

President Emily Mendell reviewed her first year in office. Her priority was not to break anything, but we did much more than that: we thrived. We welcomed our new cantor, had a successful year in our Rimon religious school; we celebrated our joys together and shared our sad events together. And we planned the projects that we will complete this summer: security, lobby refurbishing, and landscaping upgrades. "We are creating something special here," she said.

Recording Secretary Jim Meyer introduced the slate of candidates for Treasurer, Financial Secretary, and Trustees. Steve Granoff ran for a second term as Treasurer. Nancy Bloomfield agreed to run for Financial Secretary, a position that has gone unfilled for many years. From a slate of eight candidates, six would be elected to a 2-year term, one would finish out Nancy Bloomfield's last year as Trustee, and one would be elected Alternate Trustee.

This was followed by a presentation of pictures of the last year of our award-winning Rimon religious school program.

Gina Levin, chair of our Inclusion and Special Needs Committee told of her hard working group making all we do to be accessible to all. They are providing a panel in the playground so that those children who cannot use the other equipment will have a panel that they can use. Since not everyone can stand on the bimah to use the lecterns, they are getting a table that can be adjusted for their use.

Our auxiliaries made their annual presentations: Howard Cylinder announced that Mitch Wolfson will serve as Brotherhood president next year. He then presented a check to the Temple's General Fund for $2000. Hilltoppers President Cindy Meyer listed the group's activities over the last year, and then presented a check for $1000 for the hallway upgrade and for the General Fund. Sisterhood co-presidents Donna Hendel and Fran Epstein reviewed their very successful year. They continued their social action activities, and other projects such as their scholarship grant. They also donated $2000 to the General Fund, $708 to the Religious School, $72 to the Tzedakah Fund, and $500 to the Preschool. For the first time, there will be programs put together by all three auxiliaries.

Rabbi reviewed the Tzedakah Fund. Since its inception, it was led by Laurie Albert. This year, it was chaired by Hillary Brown. We now give the children "birthday dollars" instead of other gifts for their birthdays. They can pick a charity to donate them to that will teach tzedakah. B'nai Mitzvah donations were made to different organizations including Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation and Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. Tzedakah Fund money was sent to help the victims of the floods in the Houston area, Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation, and the Life Center of Delaware County.

Outgoing Trustees Alexis Rosenfeld, Mike Samuels, and Art Zabell were recognized for their years of service to the Temple. Bev Granoff was awarded the Treasure of Sholom for her service in many programs, and Margaret Husick and Art Zabell were awarded the Makor Hayim (Source of our Strength) award. Temple Librarian Mary Ann Gould presented the David Lefcourt Library Service award to the Marple Public Library for donating their gently-used, out-of-circulation books on Jewish subjects or by Jewish authors to our collection.

Steve Granoff followed by presenting the budget for 2015-2016. He thanked the committee for their efforts. He highlighted items done in the last year and previewed the year to come. Then he made a motion to adopt this budget, Mary Ann Gould seconded, and it was unanimously approved.

Finally, Jim Meyer came back to announce the results of the election. Evalyn Elias, Nancy Hays, Margaret Husick, Ira Kedson, Eric Lieberman, and Jenifer Morgan were elected to a two year term, 2015-2017. Kate Jaffe was elected to fill the one year remaining on Nancy Bloomfield's term, and Jeff Farhy was elected Alternate. Steve Granoff was elected Treasurer and Nancy Bloomfield was approved as Financial Secretary.

The 38 people who attended ended the meeting by standing in a circle and volunteering what they were thankful for at the Temple, and singing an "amen" with Cantor Marx for each one.

SISTERHOOD TAKES A SUMMER BREATHER

After months of careful planning, Chairperson Melissa Fein pulled off the most amazing Attic Treasure Sale ever! We all owe thanks and more thanks to Melissa, who we certainly hope is taking a well-deserved rest at the shore this summer!

Just look at the photos on page ??; it was really true that one person's trash could become another person's treasure.

We'll all be taking a mini rest from Sisterhood events this summer while we gear up for what promises to be a fantastic upcoming year.

Mark your calendar now for our Welcome Dinner on Thursday, October 22. Our guest speaker is fun and dynamic (maybe you even know her!), and our menu will be prepared by a famous chef. Intrigued? You should be!

Some very important few days will be taking place for Reform Jews everywhere and Sisterhood members, too. The WRJ (Women of Reform Judaism) Assembly 2015 will be happening alongside the URJ (Union of Reform Judaism) North American Biennial 2015 from Wednesday, November 4 to Sunday, November 8. Yes, yes, we know that Temple Sholom's Capitol Steps event is scheduled for November 8th, but no worries - the Biennial ends early that day.

Did I mention that this conference takes place in Orlando, Florida? There are so many details to tell you about. But first, from a Temple Sholom Sisterhood perspective, we want to share with you that our heartfelt goal is to send a delegation of women from our Sisterhood to represent Temple Sholom at this convention. To make our dream come true, we have allocated in our budget funds to make this trip a reality for you.

Early bird reservations are due in September and hotel reservations are due soon after. Please let us know as soon as possible if you want to be part of Temple Sholom's Sisterhood delegation at the URJ and WRJ Biennial event. All Sisterhood members are eligible to attend with us.

Meanwhile, our Sisterhood Book Club continues during the summer, when we'll be discussing Those Who Save Us, by Jenna Blum, on Thursday, July 9 at 7:30 p.m. at Donna Hendel's home. We'll also be making some decisions on upcoming selections. Our choices will be available in the Temple library.

Because happy and sad occasions occur all year long, Sisterhood continues to offer Happiness and Memorial Cards and Jewish National Fund trees throughout the summer. Our prices through Sisterhood are lower than anywhere else around. Please contact Shirley Birenbaum, who will help you mark the events in your life and the lives of your loved ones. You may phone her at 610-328-2171 or email Shirley with your order at surabassa@aol.com.

Your gift-giving needs will probably also continue through the summer. Don't forget to make arrangements to shop at The Gift Garden. Either call the Temple office or contact us at sisterhood@temple-sholom.org to shop to your heart's desire.

Be on the lookout for Temple Sholom's Welcome Back Packet because your Sisterhood membership form is enclosed. Why not sign up early when you rejoin the Temple and then we'll have you on our distribution list and won't have to remove your name!

Speaking of watching out for papers from the Temple, it is (almost unbelievably) time for Shana Tova greetings to your Temple friends and family. This is such a nice way to start out the Jewish New Year -- by sending out New Year wishes to those whom you care about. The best part is that all the work is done for you! Please be thoughtful and help out Sisterhood in this wonderful and meaningful endeavor. Deadline for Shana Tova Card orders is August 15! Questions? Contact Elyse Endy at elyseendy@gmail.com.

Fran and I want to thank you most sincerely for what was a successful year in Sisterhood. We couldn't do it without you; nor do we want to! We're looking forward to sharing more good times with you next year.

Sisterhood Co-Presidents

THE HILLTOPPERS

The Hilltoppers had another successful year filled with interesting speakers, wonderful entertainment, delicious goodies and good friends!

We started the year with The Three Tellers; professional story tellers. Opera expert Joseph Erdeljac educated us on the opera Carmen. Our very own congregant, Professor Ben Berger, spoke about Guilty with an Explanation - Morality in Philosophy and Politics. Return guest lecturer Professor Moylan Mills joined us for an evening learning more about Charlie Chaplin. Arlana (Gottlieb) Joy and her accompanist, Dick Gratton, thrilled us with lovely music for an evening at a Jazz Supper Club. We welcomed retired superintendent of Marple Newtown Schools, Dr. Merle Horowitz, who spoke about cyberbullying. We also had Locati Auctions enlighten us with their program on "What's It's Worth." To wrap up this exciting year, we enjoyed a light dinner from Mrs. Marty's and listened to the wonderful a cappella quartet, The Trolley Stoppers.

The Hilltoppers have been busy planning for another wonderful year of programming, entertainment and enlightenment. We will soon be announcing book selections for our popular book discussion group. We encourage you to join us for our monthly board meetings, held in the Temple library the first Thursday of every month beginning at 10:30 a.m. Most of our programs are the third Thursday of every month at 7:30 p.m. Our book discussion group generally meets the fourth Thursday of each month in the annex at 1:15 p.m.

Keep an eye out for our "Hilltoppers Year in Advance" calendar which will be posted on the Temple Sholom website and in the lobby and library.

Wishing you all a wonderful summer! Looking forward to seeing you.

~ Cindy Meyer, Hilltoppers President

Donations: Please direct your donations to the Hilltoppers Fund by making checks payable to "Hilltoppers of Temple Sholom" and mailing them to the Temple. Your donations will be listed in The Temple Tidings.

GOLDEN NUGGETS FOUND!

For those of us who wondered, as did event co-chairs Shirley Chalick and Judy Zon, "Is this really just a piece of junk or is it worth a small fortune?" In order to find out, you had to be at the Hilltoppers Antique Appraisal Event on May 21st to find out just "What It's Worth." Michael Locati and his able assistant, from Michael Locati Auctions, brought us and taught us the answers to those nagging questions, as well as an interesting education on the what and why of how values are determined.

Some of us were disappointed to learn that our precious collections were now flooding the market thanks to the internet, but we also had some amazing happy surprises, including yours truly, who learned that her supposed poster was instead a serigraph signed by the artist.

The food, beautifully prepared by Barbara Barr and Deb Kirsch topped off this really terrific event.

The Brown goehl Family were the lucky winners of an NBC10 Studio Tour at Temple Sholom's Trivia Night. They toured the studio, watched live broadcast of the news and weather and met with the anchors. It was a wonderful tour! Thank You to all who organized Trivia Night!!!

SISTERHOOD BOOK CLUB

The Sisterhood Book Club will meet on Thursday, July 9 at 7:30 p.m. to discuss Those Who Save Us, by Jenna Blum. Donna Hendel will be hosting this month's group. Her address is 314 Harvard Avenue, Broomall.

For fifty years, Anna Schlemmer has refused to talk about her life in Germany during World War II. Anna's daughter Trudy was only four when she and Anna were liberated from Nazi Weimar by an American soldier and went with him to Minnesota, so Trudy can't remember much....but she has one piece of evidence from the past: a family portrait showing Trudy, Anna, and a Nazi officer, the Obersturmfuhrer of Buchenwald.

Driven by the guilt of her heritage, Trudy, now a professor of German history, begins investigating the past and finally unearths the dramatic and heartbreaking truth of her mother's life.

Combining a story of passionate but doomed love, a vivid evocation of life during the war, and a poignant mother-daughter drama, New York Times and # 1 international bestseller Those Who Save Us is a profound exploration of what we endure to survive and the legacy of shame.

Please RSVP to alissamgm@aol.com by July 2.

*Temple Shalom,
Where you belong!*

CONVERSATIONS WITH MEN

The third year of Conversations with Men was our best yet. We had great meetings every month with lots of interesting conversations on many different aspects of Judaism. From the Garden of Eden to the Zohar, from the Ten Commandments to the Psalms, from the Prophets to Maimonides, and from the mysteries of Prayer to Hospice care, we covered a lot of very interesting ground. Many thanks to all the regulars - and the irregulars - for participating and for contributing their unique perspectives. We even discovered a few scholars hidden in plain sight.

As we look ahead to next year, we are planning many more interesting topics!

Best wishes for a great summer, everyone.

MITZVAH MEALS : PLEASE JOIN US!

The August Mitzvah meal is a summer "cook-in"! Please consider helping out with a meal of hot dogs, hamburgers, and drumsticks to be prepared on the stovetop grill at the Life Center shelter at 63rd and Market Street. If you haven't helped before, now is definitely your chance. We need people to buy meats, buns, corn on the cob, paper goods; prepare salads and desserts, and help grill and serve at the shelter that night (Tuesday, August 11).

Please sign up at <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c044da5ac22aaf85-life1> or call Emily Freedman at 610-449-2894.

DOING MITZVOT: THE PARMET BROTHERS MAKE A DIFFERENCE

During the months of April and May, Adam and Ethan Parmet were very busy getting ready for the Haverford Heritage Festival on held on June 7. They created Minecraft necklaces from perler beads. Their plan is to purchase food for the Hope Food Bank from the sales of the Minecraft necklaces. The Hope Food Bank is located and run by the Hope United Methodist Church in Havertown. This isn't the first contribution the boys have made to the Hope Food Bank. During the winter, Adam and Ethan (along with two of their friends) held a food drive where they collected over 350 items for the Hope Food Bank. Adam and Ethan's involvement with the mitzvah of zedakah has been influenced by their participation at Jewish Relief Agency and the "Stop Hunger Now" food packing events sponsored by Harlam Day Camp and Temple Sholom. Adam and Ethan are rising fourth graders at Rimon and Chatham Park Elementary School.

LIBRARY SERVICE AWARD GIVEN TO THE MARPLE PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Temple Sholom David Lefcourt Library Service Award for 2015 was presented to Library Director Debbie Parsons on behalf of the Marple Public Library on June 24. It is the first time an organization has been selected to receive this honor. We have received withdrawn books from the Marple Public Library for over a decade. During this time, the Marple Public Library's books by Jewish authors and with Jewish content have enriched our Temple Sholom library collection. Over this span of time, hundreds of withdrawn books have passed through our congregants' hands. We treasure these current, yet gently used books. Our collection is richer due to the Marple Public Library's generosity in passing on their withdrawn Jewish books to us.

We are thrilled that our library now has a 70" television with remote computer capability. Our students now learn from up to date technology. Many thanks to the Library Committee, especially Marge and Bob Feldman and Dave Mendell, for their support of this project. In addition, a big thank you to Abbey Krain and Rabbi Rigler who always work to improve Temple Sholom.

~ Mary Ann Gould, Co-Librarian

Around Rimon

What a blessing we have during the summer months! Families go on vacation to destinations near and far. Children go to camp and enjoy a break from the classroom, rekindle old friendships and make new ones. The freedom to take a break from the ordinary and enjoy the extraordinary is a blessing to be cherished.

This summer I will have the opportunity to do the same. I am excited to have the time to let my imagination grow as I work on new and exciting programs and curriculum for the 2015/2016/5776 Rimon year. I am also blessed to begin a new master's program at HUC (Hebrew Union College). And, yes, I will have the opportunity to decompress and experience the awe of the great outdoors with my husband when we go on a road trip through the national parks of Utah and end our journey in California. I can't wait!

As you enjoy the slower pace of summer always remember to see our world through Jewish eyes. The beauty of our natural world is the perfect time to say a Shehechyanu! Recite it when you see a waterfall, a beautiful sunset, the majesty of a mountain, a beautiful flower or an animal nursing its young. Our Jewish identity is with us every moment of every day ... 365 days a year!

A significant part of our Jewish identity comes from social action and helping those less fortunate. Let's do it together! Over the summer we are asking you to help disadvantaged children in Philadelphia with a gift of school supplies. Please take a look at the most-needed items on the chart below. Bring your donations to the school office during Rosh Hashanah, September 14 or on the opening day of Sunday, Rimon, September 20.

Our Monday Night Academy Program, our Gesherim program, new options and electives, and our youth groups will fall under one umbrella offering robust, meaningful and exciting opportunities for all of our youth in 6th – 12th grades. Watch future Tidings for more updates.

TEMPLE SHOLOM GOES TO THE CINEMA!!

Join Temple Sholom friends for an informal meeting at the Bryn Mawr Film Institute on Wednesday, July 29 at 7:15 p.m. to see Harold and Maude, a favorite classic movie. We will meet in the lobby at 700 so we can find seats together. After the movie, feel free to join us for coffee/tea and discussion at the Starbucks one block away. (sponsored by the Relational

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY

Our closing Women's Spirituality meeting for 2014-2015 will be on Wednesday July 22nd at 7:30 p.m. in the Temple library. Join us when Rabbi Leah Berkowitz will be presenting "Women and Tzedakah in Jewish Text." Tzedakah (social justice) is one of the central tenets of the Jewish tradition and the Reform movement. How have women played a role in giving and receiving tzedakah in Jewish history and Jewish text? Together, we will explore stories in which women risked their lives - and saved the lives of those around them - in their relentless pursuit for justice.

Women's Spirituality . . . Who are we? What do we do? We are a group of women who are Temple Sholom members. We meet once a month, usually on a Wednesday evening between 7:30 p.m.- 9:00 p.m. While most of our meetings are in the Temple library, sometimes the location, day and time can change. A few of the topics we focus on are: women's concerns, Jewish culture, rituals and thought, meditation and holiday observances. Our invited guest leaders bring their particular expertise and interest to our group and enrich our knowledge of Jewish women's issues. Our upcoming year is packed with many interesting topics, interactive programs, thought provoking and fun. We welcome all Temple Sholom women. You can choose as many sessions that interest you and come as often as you wish. We encourage you to come and enjoy the programs, friendships, and sharing that takes place once a month with Women's Spirituality.

As Women's Spirituality brings our 25th year of learning, sharing and spiritual development to a close we would like to take this opportunity to thank Temple Sholom Sisterhood for their generous gift and the generous donors who acknowledge special occasions with a donation to the Women's Spirituality Fund at Temple Sholom.

When we begin our 26th year on September 30, please join us when Lori Green, Temple Sholom's Education Director will be our first presenter.

On December 16, Women's Spirituality will have a discussion on the book Surprisingly Happy by Sheila Peltz Weinberg. Why not take a little time this summer to read it!

Questions? Please contact the Temple Office at 610-356-5165 or Linda Tarash at 610-446-2101 or linda.tarash@gmail.com.

THE MANY FACES OF TEMPLE SHOLOM

Todah Rabah!

Dear Temple Sholom,

I can't thank you enough for donating/coming to my lemonade stand. It was amazing to see how many people showed up and we raised so much money, almost $9,000 for Alex's Lemonade Stand. I was told that our donation will pay for an entire month of research that could help find a cure! That day I was overjoyed when I saw every single person walk through the door. Some kids brought their entire tzedakah money, B'nai mitzvah money, or donated money from their own birthday party. It is really amazing to see how many people have been thinking about me over the past few months. A special thank you to everyone who helped run the stand, serve delicious food and sell FANTASTIC jewelry all afternoon! Temple Sholom has been amazing and the Rabbi is not so bad I also want to thank Rimon and the Preschool and everyone else who held lemonade stands this year for me! I'm sorry I couldn't come, but they all made me feel so much better. Thanks again to everyone!

With love,
~ Maya "Papaya" Rigler

HAVDALAH AT HOME

Havdalah at Home was held at the home of Kavita Goyal on Saturday, May 16th. We started with With My Lips by Ellen Allard. Donna led the singing, I provided some guitar and we managed reasonably well considering the 30 second rehearsal. There is a saying that if even two Jews meet they should discuss at least a line of Torah. While I do not advise this as common practice, unless you want to lose friends, we did spend a few minutes reflecting on the separation of Holy from non-Holy with reference to whether a person must be humble to be Holy.

Birchot Havdalah, Shavua Tov and Eliyahu followed with wine, spices and candle and then a great meal and good company followed. We will go into summer recess and pick up again after Yom Kippur. You can be put on the early notification list by emailing me, Bob Slater at bobnmarians@aol.com or just look for notices in The Temple Tidings and weekly email updates.

I will also be happy to advise anyone who wants to start their own group for Havdalah at Home, perhaps for example for those with young children, or those with teens or a group of teens. Use the same email. We have found this a great way to celebrate our Jewishness, reinforce our Temple association, socialize, and start the week with a little spirituality.

~ Bob Slater

THE TRADITION GROWS

SERVING THE GENERATIONS...

PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

Levine's new memorial chapel, Trevose, PA

For more than 117 years, the family-owned Joseph Levine & Son Memorial Chapel has maintained a high reputation for quality while serving generations in the Jewish community.

And now the tradition grows with our new Bucks County Memorial Chapel, in addition to our Philadelphia and Main Line locations.

Whether you need pre-arrangement assistance or time-of-need service, you can find it in any of our three convenient locations.

Our knowledge of and experience with Jewish traditions will insure that every detail of a funeral is handled efficiently, sensitively and at a most competitive rate. We are proud to offer the highest quality care.

Remember us. We are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, to answer your questions and to help.
