NOTES FROM CANTOR JAMIE MARX

The Torah teaches that every seven years, the land be given a year of rest (shmitah). During the shmitah year, the Israelites were forbidden from sowing or reaping, neither harvesting grains nor pruning the vineyards. It's a challenging commandment in its literal sense -- how would we survive a full year without growing food? -- but symbolically it is quite an important idea. Just as we are all commanded to take one day of rest out of every seven to make space for holiness each week, so we are also commanded to consider the longer arc of our lives and how we give ourselves space for recharging. Work hard for six years, our tradition teaches, and in the seventh find a space for rejuvenation, refreshment, and preparation for another six years of work.

Our congregation has given Rabbi Rigler a great gift this summer by offering him a three month sabbatical. We hope that it will be a time of rejuvenation and recharging, and that he will come back in the fall reinvigorated in his service to our community. The sabbatical is also a way for the congregation to show its appreciation for Peter's dedicated service to our community. He has worked tirelessly in ways big and small -- guiding the work of our Board, sitting at bedsides, leading shiva, caring for everyone in good times and hard times. Seven years he has given to Temple Sholom -- and we hope that it is just the first seven of many more!

While Rabbi Rigler is away, we should all work diligently to give him the space to focus on his own spiritual nourishment. Any emails, calls or texts that you want to send to him, please instead send to me, Abbey, or Mary Ann Gould, our newly installed president. The leadership of Temple Sholom has planned extensively for Peter's sabbatical, and any issues that might arise will be capably addressed by the staff and Board. Our rabbi makes himself available day in and day out for seven years, we can give him three months of shmita.

We wish Rabbi Rigler well on his sabbatical and look forward to his return in the fall!

CANTOR MARX RELEASES HIS FIRST SINGLE

Cantor Marx is proud to share the release of his first single, Bless This Year, now available on iTunes, Amazon Music (don't forget to go through our website), and Spotify! The song was first shared at our very own Yom Kippur Family Service in 2014. Show your support for Cantor Marx and download the track or stream it on Spotify.

RABBI PETER RIGLER'S SUMMER SABBATICAL

Dear Friends:

Exodus tells us “Plant your land for six years and gather your crops. But during the seventh year, you must leave it alone and withdraw from it.” This concept is called the shmita, or sabbatical.

In this spirit, Rabbi Rigler will be going on a well-deserved sabbatical this summer from June 20th until September 6th, 2016. The sabbatical is a desirable and necessary part of the life cycle of a rabbi. It gives the rabbi opportunities for study and growth that would not otherwise be possible. Rabbis return from sabbaticals with new energy, vision and enthusiasm, which benefit our entire congregation. In his own words, Rabbi Rigler shares with us:

I am so excited to have time to just take a deep breath, reflect on my work, and build for our future. Part of my time will be spent traveling to Central America where I will be working with High School students doing community service work in Nicaragua. I also will be spending time at Camp Harlam, hiking for several days along the Appalachian trail, participating in a course “Making Prayer Real”, reading, writing, exercising and renewing my own spiritual soul.

I consider it one of the great blessings of my life that I am a rabbi - a teacher. I know that this time away will allow me to return even stronger and with a wonderfully renewed sense of purpose. I am so looking forward to using my sabbatical time to reconnect to our traditions and to discover new ideas to bring back home to Temple Sholom. Thank you for that gift!

We have been planning for Rabbi's sabbatical for many months. The synagogue is in very good hands and Temple Sholom's spiritual life and programming will continue in an uninterrupted fashion. Cantor Marx will be here throughout this summer to provide pastoral care, with the exception of a few days he will take for scheduled vacation. During that time, our beloved Rabbi Emeritus Selekman and Cantor Ted Lebow who has led several services here in recent months will be on hand to support our congregation. Friday Shabbat services will continue normally with tremendous support from our Para Clergy.

It is important to know that during these weeks of Sabbatical Rabbi Rigler will not be checking voice mail or email messages. We want to make sure he is able to use the gift of this time. In his absence, please call the office directly with any emergencies or questions. If after hours, our phone system will help connect you with the person on call. Abbey Krain, our incredible Executive Director along with our staff will be here also to help address any needs you may have.

We hope that you will join us as we wish Rabbi Rigler a healthy and meaningful sabbatical. We look forward to his return in September

B'shalom,

Emily Mendell
Immediate Past President

FROM THE TEMPLE PRESIDENT

Join us in celebrating 60 years as the only Reform Judaism congregation in Delaware County, PA. Our longevity is a direct result of lay leadership, clergy, volunteer, staff and member participation. Great Jewish leadership has helped us survive slavery, guided us to the Promised Land, given us hope through exile and oppression, helped us enjoy membership in a nation of overachievers, and given birth to the State of Israel (Aron et al, 2010, p. 1). Our leadership has led us to this year of celebration.

Armed with our Mission, Temple Sholom is a Reform congregation dedicated to promoting the fundamental and enduring principles of Judaism and ensuring the continuity of the Jewish people through practices of inclusiveness, openness and individual autonomy. Our leadership is charged with assuring that we provide a warm, welcoming and supportive environment for our diverse Temple family. Leadership's job is to imbue each activity, event and program with meaning for each of our diverse members.

Our leadership takes on this commitment to sacred purpose and assures it suffuses all aspects of our community. Our leaders volunteer their time and skills taken from already busy lives to fulfill our mission. Their success in their role is essential to achieve our goals. Without pay, achievement is the only reward for leaders and volunteers. Together the lay leadership, clergy, staff and volunteers work to achieve our goal to assure Temple Sholom continues to thrive as a warm, welcoming and inclusive environment. We sincerely thank all of our leadership, volunteers and members for making our dream a reality.

TREASURER'S YEAR END WRAP UP

Another year has come to a close with its many challenges and accomplishments.

We replaced our roof with the biggest fund raiser in recent memory; our preschool went through a leadership change and a decrease in enrollment; we tightened our Temple security with the procurement of a grant from the Department of Homeland Security and our departments made a concerted effort to keep spending at a minimum.

In accordance with our Constitution and By-Laws, the Finance committee is pleased to present to you the budget for fiscal year ending June 30, 2017.

These are some of the major items that drive this budget:

1) In order to increase our visibility in the community, Marissa Kupersmidt has become a full-time employee and we have incorporated Youth Director (ToaSTY) into her job description.

2) We have provided for contingent support for the Cantor during the Rabbi's sabbatical.

3) Anticipated lower enrollment in our religious school (Rimon) program has meant a requisite reduction in personnel.

4) In our Temple physical plant we are relying less on part-time employees meaning a reduction in personnel costs there as well.

5) We have kept snow removal costs relatively high due to the uncertainty of the coming winter weather. Hopefully, this category's allocation will turn out to be overstated and we will once again be blessed by the warm weather gods.

6) Our security allocations have been drastically reduced due to the aforementioned DHS grant.

7) Our heating and electrical systems are old and most likely will need replacement in the near future. This budget does not provide for either. If either system fails during the next year we will have to rely on major fund raising, donations or the use of reserves for replacement.

8) Plans are in the works to celebrate our congregations' 60th birthday with a series of major fund raisers. Please watch for the announcements and participate.

9) On the revenues side, we have increased dues by 2.5% or $50 per family at the high end.

I am frequently asked why it is that we are constantly asking for money. One of the biggest challenges we face as a congregation lies in the fact that while our membership rolls have remained constant – and we are among the few congregations that aren't showing decreased membership – our costs have not. We are constantly fighting the battle of matching costs with revenues and this past year was a tremendous struggle to keep our heads above water.

A quick examination of this year's budget shows that we have operating expenses in excess of $1.4 million. Our constitution and by-laws require a balanced budget, so we must find way to raise that $1.4 million in revenues.

Our dues and fees provide about $700,000, or about ½ of that requirement. Religious and Preschool tuition and fees provide another $600,000. Those are the two biggest sources of our revenues and, combined, they leave us about $100,000 short of our requirements. We have no large benefactors so we have to rely on the generous contributions of our members to pick up the slack and we do so in the form of fund raisers and appeals.

But there is a rather simple way to increase our revenue flow and reduce the amount of times we ask the congregation to help. That is, if we could somehow raise our membership totals even by adding 10 families that would add $25,000 in revenue.

It's therefore incumbent on all of us to talk to friends, relatives and whomever else we come in contact with and tell them how great it is to be a member of the Temple. Urge them to join us and become part of this wonderful community. That would go a long way to reducing the financial burden placed on all of us.

At this point, I'd like to thank the Finance Committee for all of their hard work in putting this year's budget together. They are: Rachel Amdur, Sandy Barth, Steve Berger, Robin Gall, Mary Ann Gould, Steve Hendel, Jim Meyer, Mitch Wolfson, Art Zabell and our ex-officios: Emily Mendell and Abbey Krain. Thanks, too, to Betsy Blackburn-Goslin (Temple Sholom's bookkeeper) for your help.

I especially want to recognize and thank my financial cohort, Nancy Bloomfield, for your encouragement, support and friendship throughout the past year. Your dedication makes this job a lot easier.

I'd like to close with a short story. A man walks into a synagogue and notices very large lettering over the sanctuary that says "THE HEIFETZ SANCTUARY."

He's greeted by the Temple president and he asks, "Is the Sanctuary named for the famous violinist, Yascha Heifetz?"

"No," the president responded, "It's named for Sam Heifetz, the famous writer."

"Sam Heifetz the writer? I've never heard of Sam Heifetz the writer," said the man. "What has he written?"

"The check!!!" answered the president.

Have I given anyone an idea? Have a great Summer and see you at Temple.

~ Steven L. Granoff, CPA, Treasurer

RECORDING SECRETARY'S YEAR END REPORT

What were you doing on the evening of June 22? Forty-three of our members came to the Temple to participate in our annual congregational meeting.

The meeting started with outgoing president Emily Mendell calling the meeting to order. Rabbi noted that as we close the current year we also repeat a cycle and the coming year will be our 60th. He gave a D'Var Torah based on the week's Torah portion saying when we lift up the light we are lifting up our future. How does the Board lift us up? How can we lift each other? How can we lift up our congregants? Let us go from strength to strength.

Emily, looking back on her two-year tenure, said time has passed quickly. We have done so much. We have been working to be a stronger organization. We have updated the bylaws, replaced the preschool director, made security enhancements to our building, bought new Machzors (High Holy Day prayer books), started a new Or L'Atid giving program, and our synagogue membership is holding while other religious institutions are losing members. We had Mordechai Rosenstein as our Artist in Residence, Josh Nelson for our musical Scholar in Residence, our Raise the Roof Gala, annual Shabbat in the Park, and we celebrated Israel Independence Day with camels in the parking lot.

Jim Meyer, our Recording Secretary, introduced the slate of candidates: president, executive vice president, senior vice president, recording secretary, two at-large seats, five trustees for two-year terms, one trustee for a one-year term, and two alternate trustees. The attendees voted while reviewing a video of activities at Temple over the last year.

Emily thanked the outgoing board members for their years of service: Robin Gall, Kate Jaffe, Melissa Shusterman, and Rebecca Parmet. She thanked outgoing ToaSTY advisor Joanna Gould and Sisterhood co-presidents Donna Hendel and Fran Epstein.

Donna and Fran followed by reviewing last year's Sisterhood activities: Shana Tova cards that raised $5200, a welcome dinner, Hanukkah dinner, giftwrapping at King of Prussia Mall, gift boxes sent to college students, a women entrepreneur event, Lawrence Husick talking about politics in 2016, working with HIAS, a back stage tour of Walnut Street Theater, they collected yarn for the Knit Wits and toiletries for local shelters, and did social action work with the DMAX Foundation. And there was more. Sisterhood donated $1000 to the Raise the Roof Gala, gave a $500 scholarship to Cassie Rosin, and $100 to the library for a copy of each of the book club books (next year they will fund two copies), $550 to Women's Spirituality, $500 to Rosh Chodesh, and others. Finally, they gave $2000 to the Temple's General Fund.

Brotherhood president Mitch Wolfson reviewed the activities of the last year, including a financial donation to the Raise the Roof Gala, and donated $1000 to the Temple's General Fund.

Hilltoppers president Cindy Meyer talked about that group's monthly meetings and book group. Though they are not a fundraising auxiliary, the Hilltoppers donated $500 to the General Fund.

Gina Levin spoke of our Inclusion Committee. They are doing work so that the Temple may be enjoyed by everyone. They will donate money to the Temple library and Rimon for materials to increase inclusion. She mentioned that special playground equipment has been purchased for children with special needs. They continue to look for a safe site for Shabbat in the Park so that all can attend.

Our Treasurer Steve Granoff reviewed last year's accomplishments, and listed the parameters used to create the budget for the next fiscal year. Plans are in the works to create a 60th anniversary celebration. Steve noted that last year we had expenses of $1.4 million but dues and fees could not cover it all so we needed to have fund raisers. He thanked the Finance Committee, Betsy Blackburn-Goslin, and Financial Secretary Nancy Bloomfield for all their help in creating 2016-2017 Temple budget. He made a motion to accept the budget as distributed to the congregation last month. Rachel Amdur seconded that motion, and the congregation approved it unanimously.

Emily next presented awards. She presented the Treasure of Sholom Award to Melissa Fein for always being ready volunteer. The Makor Hayim (Source of Strength) Award was presented to Steve Granoff for his fiscal guidance and for heading our Raise the Roof Gala. Our Librarian, Mary Ann Gould, presented the David Lefcourt Library Service Award to Marge and Bob Feldman for their financial support of our library over the years.

Finally it was time for Jim to announce the election results. For details see the front page of this issue of The Temple Tidings.

A closing prayer from our Cantor prayed for our Temple and our community, now and in the future, and asked to help us to have the courage for the upcoming year.

~ Jim Meyer, Recording Secretary

DIRECTOR'S CORNER

Friends,

The summer time is such a wonderful season. The weather is warm, the sun is shining, our beautiful landscaping project from last summer is lush and in full bloom, and we are busy with a great deal of preparation for the High Holy Days and the coming School/Program year at Temple Sholom.

If you have a chance to come in and visit with us during the summer months, please do so. We are in the Temple office all summer long, and it is the perfect time for you to come in and sit and chat with us. Stop by and tell us about your summer plans. Let us know what you enjoy about Temple Sholom. Give us some ideas for what we can change to make the experiences for all even better.

We are interested in reaching out to prospective members and spreading the word about our amazing Temple. If you know of individuals or families who may be interested in joining a community, it would be our pleasure to welcome them. Please let them know all about us, and if you will send me their contact information, I will be certain to follow up with them for you. A strong community with new growth is good for all of us.

I wish you a relaxing summer, and look forward to seeing you.

LEFCOURT LIBRARY SERVICE AWARD GOES TO MARGE & BOB FELDMAN

We are fortunate that our congregation has a working library. Our library is made possible through volunteer efforts and financial support. Your donations are received through the Howard Weiner Library Fund.

Congratulations, Bob & Marge and thanks!

Marge and Bob Feldman are Howard Weiner's daughter and son-in-law. They are members of the Library Committee that identifies our library needs based on congregant use and current technology. Marge and Bob are significant contributors to the Howard Weiner Library Fund. Their support enabled us to purchase books, the library computer system and large screen TV. It is for this reason, that Marge and Bob Feldman are the recipients of the 2016 David Lefcourt Library Service Award.

We are indebted to the commitment of Cindy and Jim Meyer who work every Tuesday to order and process books into our collection. We would not be able to have a library without them. Thank you to Dr. Erica Danowitz who serves as our advisor and works in the library during vacation.

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY

Women's Spirituality will be bringing our 2015-2016 year to a close with Rabbi Leah Berkowitz on Wednesday, July 27th at 7:30 p.m. in the Temple library. We don't think you'll want to miss this meeting when she will be presenting her very interesting and provocative program entitled "50 Shades of Play: The Rabbis' Approach to Love and Intimacy." Legend has it that Rav Kahana once hid under his teacher's bed to observe how he behaved when spending time with his wife. When apprehended, Rav Kahana replied, "This too is Torah, and I must learn." Far from being ascetic, the rabbis spent a considerable amount of time discussing the Torah of love, marriage, and physical intimacy.

Mark your calendars for Wednesday, July 27th at 7:30 p.m. to join us in the Temple library with Rabbi Leah Berkowitz as we explore Jewish texts about pleasure, prohibition, and peculiarities.

Some of the highlights of our past year were "Sharing Wisdom" with Sara Shapiro, Elaine Samans, Serene Friedman and Rae Berger (Elaine Smith's mom). Among the many things they shared were the philosophies that have sustained them through the past nine decades! It was a moving evening that has inspired us to emulate these 4 magnificent women.

On a beautiful spring day in May we travelled to Ridley Creek State Park to be "With The Elements In The Park." We explored the Five Elements and the Jewish concepts of being close to nature. We discussed and discovered how we can use the elements as a path to spiritual growth. We ended with a wonderful lunch together.

We invite all Temple Sholom women to join us when we begin our programs for 2016-2017 with many interesting and thought provoking topics that are interactive and fun. We meet once a month, usually on a Wednesday evening between 7:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. While most of our meetings are in the Temple library, sometimes the location, day and time can change. Our invited guest leaders bring their particular expertise and interest to our group and enrich our knowledge of Jewish women's issues. We encourage you to come and enjoy the programs, friendships, and sharing that takes place once a month with Women's Spirituality.

As we bring this year of learning, sharing and spiritual growth to a close, we would like to take this opportunity to thank Temple Sholom Sisterhood for their generous gift and the generous donors who acknowledge special occasions with a donation to the Women's Spirituality Fund at Temple Sholom.

When we begin our 27th year on September 28, please join us when Lori Green, Temple Sholom's Education Director will be our first presenter. Have a wonderful summer and we hope to see you in the fall.

There is one very special way to mark a sad or happy occasion and benefit Israel at the same time. All you need to do is purchase a Jewish National Fund tree that will be planted in Israel.

- * The cost of one JNF tree is $18
- * A Ring of three trees is $54

THE HILLTOPPERS

Hilltoppers is gearing up for our upcoming 22nd successful year as the 55+ active community of Temple Sholom in Broomall. Your dues of $20 entitle you to attend every program and event for free -- which always include delicious refreshments -- as well as allowing you to take part in our Book Discussion Group. Membership also entitles you to receive email notifications and reminders of everything that we do.

Last year's programs included a mix of musical entertainment, educational presentations, home-grown talent from our congregation, and much more. Next year's programs will also include a nice mix of interesting and timely offerings that will be of interest to all. We will meet four times at 7:30 p.m. and three times in December, January and February at 1:30 p.m. in the afternoon. Our (tentative) dates for programs are as follows: September 15, November 17, December 15, January 19, February 16, April 20 and May 18.

Our Book Discussion Group generally meets on Thursdays in the Temple library at 1:30 p.m. We will be discussing our selections this upcoming year on September 29, October 27, December 22, January 26, February 22 (a Wednesday), March 30, April 27 and May 25.

Our monthly board meetings are open to all members. We welcome your active participation. Board Meetings take place on the first Thursday morning of every month at 10:30 a.m. in the Temple library. Please join us on September 8, October 6, November 3, December 1, January 5, February 2, March 2, April 6, May 4 and June 1.

Hilltoppers flyers detailing all books for our Book Discussion Group and all Programs are available in the Lucite pockets of the Temple hallway.

We believe our programs appeal to all ages. That's why all Temple Sholom members as well as outsiders from our congregation are welcome to attend our events for a nominal charge of $5. If you have any questions about any of our programs, please contact Hilltoppers President Cindy Meyer at cfrogs@aol.com.

INCLUSION AND SPECIAL NEEDS COMMITTEE

Temple Sholom Wants to Accommodate You!

The Inclusion and Special Needs Committee consists of several dedicated Temple Sholom members whose mission it is to strive to meet the needs of all congregants so that anyone of any ability can fully participate in our worship services as well as our school(s) and community programs. During this past year, the Committee has provided monies and support so that the library, Preschool, and Rimon can provide books that reflect our commitment to inclusion while educating our congregation about the beauty of a congregation that embraces diversity, not only in race and ethnicity, but in people's abilities.

The Committee has also provided funding for education and training for aides who specifically assist children with disabilities who are becoming a bar or bat mitzvah. Temple Sholom wants every child to achieve and experience this wonderful milestone in Jewish life. The Committee is proud to share that the clergy will be utilizing Visual Tefillah to three upcoming Shabbat services in 2017; this technology will enable persons with hearing impairments to follow services since they can read-along. We have heard wonderful things about Visual Tefillah, and how it enriches the service for all, not just people with a hearing disability.

The Temple Sholom Inclusion committee is proud of all that we have accomplished. We continue to work diligently to help all who come to Temple Sholom feel comfortable and at home. To that end, we have been working to increase awareness for all of our ushers about the accommodations we offer. These include large print prayer books, a braille prayer book and reserved seating. We are always working to increase awareness for all of our community. Please don't forget, that if you see a sign for reserved seating for those with visual or hearing impairments, if you see a sign for reserved floor space for a wheel chair, if you see a sign for a reserved parking space in our lot and if you see a sign for the accessible/gender neutral bathroom, we ask you to allow those who benefit from these accommodations to be given the use of the space. We thank you so much for working with us. This is one of the many things that makes our Temple so warm, welcoming and inclusive. We also wanted you to know that we are now reaching out in our weekly e-news and in our membership literature to all in our community so that you can let us know how we can help you feel more at home at Temple Sholom.

Please don't hesitate to contact Regina Levin, Inclusion Committee Chairperson: inclusion@temple-sholom.org 610-715-1745 or Abbey Krain, Executive Director: director@temple-sholom.org.

SHABBAT IN THE PARK A PERFECT EVENING!

Once again, Temple Sholom hit a home run in June at Ridley Creek State Park with Shabbat in the Park.

The weather was perfect, the dinner scrumptious and the sense of community touched us all. Tall trees surrounded the meadow, our sanctuary during the service that brought a sense of peace, warmth, smiles and contentment. Rabbi Rigler and Cantor Marx lead us in song, prayer and solace, complimented by children sharing these moments of joy. We welcomed back Peri Leavitt from college, who added her beautiful voice as she helped lead us in song.

Having nature surrounding us with the sound of wind in the trees, birds singing their last songs of the day, a crescent moon above was topped by the sunset in the west as we drove through the park on our way home.

~ Carol Rubin

Our Emergency Grilling Crew! Jim Meyer, Rabbi Rigler, Joanna Gould and Scott Gould to our BBQ rescue!

Editor's Note: Many thanks to Mitch Wolfson, who organized and precooked the delicious bbq dinner that was enjoyed by all. Friday afternoon while preparing for dinner, Mitch fell and spent Shabbat getting patched up. He was very much missed that evening. Improving every day, he already plans on cooking for us again next year! We send him chicken soup hugs and prayers for a speedy recovery.

And MANY MANY thanks to everyone who helped that night. It truly does take a village and ours is pretty awesome!

CONVERSATIONS WITH MEN

We had a great year with lots of great conversations. Many thanks to all the guys who participated this year. Enjoy the summer and we'll see you again this fall.

MITZVAH MEALS ANNUAL "COOK-IN"

Welcome new and old volunteers! A longstanding tradition in Judaism, and at Temple Sholom, is service to others. Our congregation participates in a program where faith congregations from all over the area take turns preparing and serving a hot meal to hungry and homeless people at the Life Center of Eastern Delaware County (at 63rd and Market Street). Our turn is the second Tuesday of every even-numbered month. You can participate in person by helping to serve, which is especially gratifying; or you can participate in the important role of purchasing and/or preparing food and supplies for the meal.

The August Mitzvah meal is a summer "cook-in" on Tuesday, August 9th! This will be our 3rd annual cook-in, originally planned as a cookout, we were rained out that first year, which turned out to be a blessing in disguise; how much easier, yet just as fun, to cook on the indoor grill. Believe it or not we get comments like "This is the best meal I ever had!" from the folks who eat this simple, meat-filled meal.

Please consider helping out with a meal of hot dogs, hamburgers, and drumsticks to be prepared on the stovetop grill at the shelter (some pre-cooking at home required, in the interests of speed). If you haven't helped before, now is definitely your chance. We need people to buy and pre-cook meats, to buy buns, buy and husk corn on the cob, buy paper goods; prepare salads and desserts, and help grill and serve at the shelter that night (Tuesday, August 9).

Please sign up at:

<http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c044da5ac22aaf85-life1>

(be sure to scroll all the way down to the bottom to see the spaces available for the August meal).

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT CAMP MENSCHY

What a wonderful summer we are having at Camp Menschy!! Our campers are having so much fun at camp . . . Playing on the playground, planting in our garden, participating in water activities, music, arts and crafts and enjoying the outdoors.

Nature Jack, Dancing Donna, and Coach Liz visit us filled with exciting activities! We had a travelling zoo and even a Water Ice truck that played music and served all the kids flavored shaved ice! There is no question that Camp Menschy is the place to be this summer!

Preschool registration for next year is going strong. Most of our families are returning except for those children who have graduated from the Preschool. There are many new families already registered and others who are interested in our awesome preschool are stopping in for tours. Please let your friends, neighbors, and family know there are still spaces available. Registration will continue throughout the summer.

Hope everyone is having a fun and safe summer!
See you in the fall!

Rimon ... THE Place to Be!

While Rimon is on “break” for the summer the excitement is building for a brand new year of learning, discovery, and creating connections. Embracing and building upon our successes and creating new experiences for our children and families are what inspire our summer work. Still in the early stages of planning, here is a “sneak peek” at some of the new experiences that we are looking forward to sharing with our children and families in the fall:

- Family Connections! New family engagement program for Sunday Rimon
- Yachad/Together! New opportunity for our children and families to connect to, learn from, and work with various committees in our congregation.
- Parent Connection – New parent education program during Sunday Rimon
- Mini-ToaSTY - New youth group program from 3rd – 5th graders
- PJ Goes To School – Expansion of our PJ Library Goes to School partnership with PJ Library
- Rimon Noar – our teens spoke and we listened! New classes and options based on teen feedback will be featured during the 5777 Rimon Noar year!

While Rimon is on break for the summer, families have many opportunities to do Jewish things, whether it is a field trip to a Jewish Museum, celebrating Shabbat, or visiting a synagogue in a different state or country ... and so much more! Send your photos to glazeraze@gmail.com and we will share them in September!

And don't forget ... tell your friends about Temple Sholom's innovative and award-winning Rimon program. Invite them to join our family!

Best wishes for an AMAZING summer! Rimon returns from summer break on Sunday, September 11!

HAVDALAH IN THE HOME

The Temple Havdalah group had a very successful year sharing song, prayer, food and mostly good company and will start up again after Yom Kippur.

Please contact Bob Slater at bobnmarians@aol.com if you wish to get early notification of coming discussions or get togethers.

Free advice is available to anyone wanting to start their own group. It would be nice to see younger groups with children follow suit. Contact Bob Slater at altrok@aol.com for more information.

JR. TOASTY GEARS UP FOR SECOND YEAR!

We had great success this year introducing Jr. ToaSTY. I want to thank everyone who came out to show their support for the 6th, 7th, and 8th graders. This age group is really eager to come together as a community and we hope to expand these opportunity next year. We will also be rolling out a new membership program for Jr. ToaSTY so look out for that sign up. If any parents would like to support Jr. ToaSTY please contact me Galen Newman at Galen.newman.3@gmail.com.

DISCUSSION GROUP

The Temple Discussion group finished the season with the showing of the movie God on Trial. The movie shows a trial of God by inmates facing the gas chambers in Auschwitz. Our Group had a mixed verdict for the God they put on trial. Some of us reject the notion of God in the movie and/or Torah, or even any notion of God.

The dialog produced deep thought and introspection. It is probably illegal to share the DVD but it is readily available from Amazon.

We will begin again in the fall. Hoping you have a wonderful summer.

Interested in joining our Discussion Group? Contact Bob Slater at altrok@aol.com to get on the email list.

Our first DMAX Club for Conversations That Matter has started this Spring at Elon University, and a second club is expected to begin in the Fall at a local university. We are building slowly so we can evaluate and refine as we go.

In April, we held a very impactful event entitled Facing Down the Stigma of Mental Illness at Work and in Life. Our educational events enable Conversations That Matter in our local community. A fun event is being considered for the Fall.

Founded in 2013 after Temple Sholom teen Dan Maxwell took his life, DMAX Foundation was established to eliminate stigma and encourage safe and caring conversations about mental and emotional issues in our youth. Please consider donating during July & August in loving memory of Dan.
