FROM THE DESK OF RABBI PETER RIGLER

Friends,

Another summer has gone by and I hope it was filled with good things for all of us! As the days begin to get shorter, the students head back to school and shore traffic dissipates, we again realize that this time of year is filled with great potential. Our kids have the ability to wipe the slate clean in school and start all over again and we have that same chance! I hope that you will use this time to reconnect with your synagogue family and find meaningful programs, services and activities that will inspire and enrich your life.

As this Tidings hits your mailbox, we are ascending through the month of Elul and this no ordinary month. If I had to choose one word to describe Elul it might be, "Preparation." As we leave this month, we mark the Rosh Hashanah, the head of the year — a time for which to prepare ourselves. We know how to prepare for a trip or to prepare for the first day of school. We have instructions from the surgeon to prepare for a medical procedure but what does it mean to prepare ourselves for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur? What is supposed to happen on those most sacred of days? Think of it like an interview for a job you really want. Before the interview, you'd spend time anticipating the types of questions you're likely to be asked. You'd consider your answers and you'd try to put yourself in the interviewer's seat to see what you look like from her/his point of view. Do the same during these next several weeks in anticipation of Rosh Hashanah.

A disciple asked her Rabbi about a verse of Torah. "The V'ahavta reads: – asher Anochi mitzavcha hayom al l'vavecha – Place these words, upon your heart. Why does Torah tell us to "set them (al l'vavecha) upon your heart?" Why does it not tell us to place these holy words (bilvavecha) in our hearts? The Rabbi answered, "It is because, as we are, our hearts are closed, and we cannot place holy words inside them. So we place them upon – on top – of our hearts. And there they stay until one day, our hearts break open, and the words fall in."

This year, allow me to suggest a goal: Open your heart to the possibility that you will hear something and that you'll respond. When you walk out of services, commit to being affected. Deeply read and consider the words of a prayer that speaks to your heart. With more than your ears, listen and allow the words and music to challenge you.

We do not need to wait until the High Holy Days to expose ourselves to this kind of experience – nor should we. There are endless opportunities to be deeply affected at our core, but the traditions, the sounds, even the name of our holy days, have already (Yamim Nora'im) – The Days of Awe. If you think about the most awe inspiring moment of your life, you'd admit that you were never quite the same.

NOTES FROM CANTOR JAMIE MARX

If we only breathe in, or if we only breathe out, we can't survive. "Life is but a breath," the sages teach us, not in its insubstantiality but in being a swing of the pendulum, two halves of a coin spinning in the air, paired opposites that form a complete whole. We must breathe in and breathe out.

In life, we will sometimes create and sometimes destroy, sometimes have cause to grieve and sometimes have a reason to celebrate. It's a delicate balance, always moving back and forth, never quite predictable, like the Olympians on the beam moving now with careful steps and now with boundless energy.

Yom Kippur brings that back-and-forth to the forefront of our thoughts. We spend the day in reflection, thinking on the ways in which we failed to do our best in the year that passed. We take the time to consider how we might do better in the year ahead. We acknowledge that it's on us to improve -- it's our responsibility to change. But we also call on God to make the world better, to save us from ourselves. We ask God to write us in the Book of Life for the year to come, even though we are imperfect souls who have sinned. Our liturgy speaks to both ideas: that we're in control and that God is in control, because sometimes our lives feel very much in our control and sometimes ... well, they don't.

If any one day could be said to encompass the totality of a year's experience, it would be Yom Kippur. We are reminded of the highs and the lows, the rueful failures and the grace of good fortune, the birthdays we celebrated and the losses we mourned, the easy rest of a day and the heart-pounding struggle of a difficult few minutes. We take those twenty-four hours to remind ourselves not only of what we did wrong, but the reason why it matters that we do better. The world beyond us is a mystery -- but the here-and-now of life, the sheer difficulty of being alive, is something that all humanity shares. We can choose to make it better for ourselves alone, but the world is poorer for that choice. Our lives are made more difficult too with that choice too. We shouldn't promise that we will be good all the time -- no one can make that claim -- but we can strive to swing that pendulum ever closer towards perfection.

And through all of the ups and downs, we will continue to breathe in and breathe out.

FROM THE TEMPLE BOARD: SECURITY TASK FORCE UPDATE

As I write this, in the heat of summer, September is rapidly approaching with its shorter days, cooler breezes (I hope), back to school and Temple activities. As fall approaches, along with the holidays (coming this October), my thoughts turn to safety at the Temple. I am sad that our world today makes it necessary to think about this topic, but I am glad that we have a committee to address the issue.

Temple Sholom's Security Task Force meets regularly to discuss how we can maintain an adequate level of safety at the Temple while continuing to be the warm, vibrant and inclusive community we have always been. Over the past few years we have worked hard to beef up security. In addition to implementing our Fob system, we have written and been awarded a grant from Homeland Security. The monies from that grant have helped us to install some useful improvements and we are thrilled with the results.

If you are interested in joining our committee or would like to chat about safety and security, please contact me or Executive Directory, Abbey Krain.

A special thank you to those who have been an active member of the committee: Abbey Krain and committee members: Steve Granoff, Dan Haas, Nancy Hays, Cindy Meyer, Jim Meyer, Carl Miller, Hallie O'Shea and Mitch Wolfson.

On behalf of the Temple Board of Trustees, have a healthy and happy fall and Happy New Year.

~ Margaret Husick,
Executive Board Member at Large

DIRECTOR'S CORNER

Friends,

As the New Year approaches, I thank each and every one of you for making this past year an enriching, fulfilling and enjoyable year for our Temple. I look forward to all that comes to us in this New Year, and am thankful that we are a community that is really here

Please know that I am always available to speak with you in person, via phone and/or email. Whether you have a question, a comment, an idea, or just want to come in and chat, I look forward to listening and responding to you. Together, we strive to make Temple Sholom the best community we can be. Each year we learn, change and grow.

I am fortunate to be a part of this Temple community, and look forward to the coming year with all of you.

BRINGING OUR COMMUNITY TOGETHER

Wow! I cannot believe that summer is coming to a close and the New Year is beginning. I hope you had a wonderful summer filled with all good things.

Summer being over means back to school, back to a more structured routine, and back to cooler weather (which I could not be happier about)! The summer at Temple Sholom has been booming. We have been getting ready for the High Holy Days which kick off with S'lichot on September 24 (see page 8 for more information). We have been planning for what will be a very exciting year! September 15 starts our Introduction to Judaism Lunch & Learn with Rabbi Beth Janus. Page 32 has all the details. Don't miss the annual Bark Mitzvah on October 30 where your pet finally becomes a Jewish Adult! See page 33 for the particulars. I am excited to see everyone back at Temple Sholom. SANCTUARY MINHAG (CUSTOMS) AT TEMPLE SHOLOM

At Temple Sholom, we observe the following customs (minhag) regarding entering the sanctuary during services:

People are not permitted to enter the sanctuary when:

- the congregation is standing
- the ark is open
- the Rabbi is speaking
- the choir is standing up and singing
- or at times that would be disrespectful – at the discretion of the sanctuary usher.

It is recommended that children under 12 years of age attend Family Services which are held for those families with children younger than 12 years old and who wish to come as a family. We ask that parents be responsible for the behavior of their children.

CELEBRATING THE HIGH HOLY DAYS AT TEMPLE SHOLOM

Dear Temple Members:

Erev Rosh Hashanah begins on Sunday, October 2. In keeping with the recommendations of the Religious Practices Committee, the Board has developed the following Temple Policies regarding the High Holy Days. Please keep in mind that the High Holy Days are a time when most of our members attend services, and our space is limited. Further, they are a quiet and reflective time.

High Holy Days Policies and Procedures

To assist all congregants with questions or concerns, Ushers will be stationed throughout the Sanctuary, lobby and parking lot.

All congregants must bring your personalized, nontransferable tickets to each service. Your ticket is required for entrance. Tot Services on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, as well as the evening service on Rosh Hashanah do not require a ticket.

Our Temple building, as well as the doors to the Sanctuary will open one hour before the service begins. This allows us to prepare for your arrival.

You may hold seats for your immediate family only.

Once Services have begun, entry into the Sanctuary will be at the discretion of the ushers. It is our policy that no one is to be admitted while the congregation is standing, when the Ark is open or during the Rabbi's sermon or Cantor's Sermon Anthem.

If you bring cell phones, beepers and other electronic devices into the building, please make certain they are set to "inaudible."

Tickets for High Holy Day Services will be issued to members in good standing only.

A limited number of guest tickets are available to purchase for relatives who live outside of our service area. The fee for guest tickets is $200 each. Please contact the Temple Office to purchase guest tickets.

According to Temple policy, children of member families, 25 years and older, are independent adults. If adult children live outside of our service area, a guest ticket may be purchased for them. Children who are 24 years or younger may attend services as part of the family unit and will receive a ticket in the mail.

The Family Service is recommended for families who wish to attend services together with children under 12 years of age. So that the Family Services may be fulfilling for everyone, we ask that parents be responsible for the behavior of their children. It is recommended that Adult Services are for those congregants 12 years and older.

Babysitting is available during Adult services on Rosh Hashanah morning and on Yom Kippur morning. Registration is required in advance. Contact the Temple Office regarding the fee and to sign up.

Family and Tot Services

We invite all families with toddlers and preschool children to attend a special service in the Sanctuary on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. In order to allow us to set up for Adult Services, we will ask all to leave the Sanctuary when Tot Services are finished.

Parking on the Temple Grounds

Parking spaces are limited and are available on a first-come, first-served basis. When our property is full, you will be allowed to drop off your passengers at the door and then park in the Little League parking lot at the corner of Church Lane and Marple Road. Cars illegally parked in the neighborhood will be ticketed. All others may park in the large lot in the back. There will be no parking on the grass or on any blacktop that is not striped. When parking on the street, please be sure not to block our neighbors' driveways. The Marple Township Police will patrol, assist and help direct traffic.

Parking for People with Physical Disabilities

The smaller parking lot at the front of the Temple, spaces along the side and in front of the Annex will be reserved for physical disability and emergency parking. Spaces are limited. To request Disabled Parking, you must be a driver with physical disabilities and have a Person with Disabilities License Plate or a Disability placard to display in the car. Parking reservations will be honored up to 30 minutes before the start of services. After that time, the parking space will be released to other congregants. We appreciate your respect of our parking lot ushers and hope you arrive on time.

Wheelchair/Limited Mobility/Special Needs Seating

Requests for special seating will be accepted on a first-come, first-serve basis. These special seats will be honored up to 30 minutes before the start of services. After that time, the seats will be released to other congregants. Please be respectful of our ushers and arrive on time.

We will not be able to accept dues payments at High Holy Day Services. Please make all arrangements with Abbey Krain, Executive Director, at 610-356-5165, ext. 103 or Betsy Blackburn-Goslin, Temple Bookkeeper, at 610-356-5165, ext. 111 prior to September 11.

All area College Students are welcome to join us for all services. Please call the Office to register their name(s). College or university ID are required.

Best wishes for a happy, healthy and sweet new year.

The Lady in Number 6 tells the story of 109 year old woman Alice Holz-Sommer who is the world's oldest Holocaust survivor. To get her through the horrific time in the concentration camps, she was drawn to music and put on over 100 concerts inside the camps. Today, she spends hours every day at her home in London behind the piano. This is her story of survival and hope through a time of fear and anguish.

Following the film, there will be a short discussion on how we can focus on the blessings and goodness in our lives even amidst our daily concerns and anxieties.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

"A Few Good Women"

The movie title was A Few Good Men, but Sisterhood could use a few more good women to volunteer on our various committees this upcoming year. Please pay your dues and join us for (what could be the only one of the year's) Sisterhood Planning Meeting on Thursday, September 22 at 7:30 p.m.

That evening, we will finalize our programs and fill in our slate for committees. This will be a very important meeting, so please make it your business to attend.

After you mark your calendar for September 22, be sure to jot down Thursday, October 20th for the Welcome Dinner. This event is offered free by Sisterhood to all paid up members. For details, see flyer on the next page.

Sisterhood Book Club dates should be noted carefully, too, because the selections are sure to provide fantastic discussions. On Thursday, September 8 at 7:30 p.m., we will discuss The Bridge Ladies hosted at Lori Rowling's home. Other Book Club dates are November 10, January 12, March 9, and May 11. See page 14 for a list of this year's Book Club selections.

While you're planning your Sisterhood year, put yourself into a game playing mode for the Second Annual Game Night on Sunday evening, November 13th. Last year, we played Bridge, RummyCube, and about five other games. Competition was fierce but the refreshments were delicious.

The Closing Dinner will take place on Thursday, May 25, 2017, so you might as well reserve that calendar date, too!

The New Front Cover

Just wait until you see the colorful and newly-designed Happiness and Memorial Cards being offered by Sisterhood this upcoming year! They are awesome. Only $5.00 (which includes postage!), they will be personalized to fit your specific needs by Shirley Birenbaum, mailed out by her and also acknowledged in The Temple Tidings. You can also order Jewish National Fund Trees, circles of trees and groves in Israel. Contact Shirley at surabassa@aol.com or call her at 610-328-2171.

Thank you, everyone, for participating in Sisterhood's major fundraising project of the year: Shana Tovah greetings.

What a wonderful way to wish Happy New Year wishes to others! With great appreciation from Sisterhood, this project is ably handled by Elyse (and Daniel) Endy and others.

The Gift Garden is open during regular hours and by appointment by contacting Temple Shalom's office.

Sisterhood members receive a special 20% discount, so be sure to purchase all your Jewish gift-giving needs at the Gift Garden. Manager Linda Phillips and her assistants look forward to serving you.

Celebrating a special event? Why not make it really special by purchasing invitations and other paper goods necessities? All our invitations and related products are offered to you at considerable discount. For your Bar/Bat Mitzvah or wedding needs, please contact Nancy Hays at haz@comcast.net.

Sisterhood needs your support. Please become involved if you can! Also, please understand that by becoming a member and attending our programs, that truly IS a way to support Sisterhood.

Your involvement and commitment for Sisterhood is imperative this upcoming year. Any Sisterhood questions? Email sisterhood@temple-sholom.org. Your issues will be addressed and resolved.

INCLUSION AND SPECIAL NEEDS COMMITTEE

Because Everyone Has a Right to Belong!

As the chairperson of the Inclusion and Special Needs Committee, I look for inspiration everywhere I go. Whether it is attending the Delaware Valley Special Needs Consortium where I meet representatives of other temples and Jewish organizations who share their achievements and struggles, or finding people who share our vision to make our beloved Temple family as inclusive as possible, I feel blessed to learn from others. Lisa Friedman writes a blog about Jewish special needs issues, and has a voice that I admire. She states, "We do not 'do' inclusion 'for' people with disabilities. Rather, it is incumbent upon us to figure out how all the things we do can be inclusive." This statement speaks to Temple Sholom's mission to be as fully inclusive as possible so that anyone can participate in our services or programs. This is not the "work" of the Inclusion Committee, but rather it is the "work" of the TS community.

Someone recently shared that in addition to making physical changes, like building ramps or installing hearing assistance systems, we also strive to make attitudinal changes, so that each member and guest accept the responsibility of being inclusive and respectful to people with disabilities. This can be as challenging as thinking about all possible participants when planning a program in a manner that assures that anyone with a disability can fully participate. Something we can all do!

The Inclusion Committee is very proud to currently be working on a more inclusive friendly site for Shabbat in the Park 2017. We are also excited to share that thanks to your donations to the Inclusion and Special Needs Fund, money has been given to the Preschool, Rimon and the Temple Sholom Library to provide books either about special needs or books that reflect the diversity of people of all abilities. Also, there will be books available in the Library that are resource materials for parents with children who have special needs.

Educating our children to be respectful and empathetic towards others with special needs is a major goal of our committee, and is reflected in our Jewish values. As adults, we are positive role models for all adults and children at Temple and live inclusively every day.

NEWS FROM THE LIBRARY

Our summer has been filled with books: donations, Sisterhood Book Club, Hilltopper Book Group and Preschool books. We have been busy ordering, processing and displaying new books for our Temple year 5777.

Over the summer our rugs and chairs were professionally cleaned and a new runner was ordered to protect our rug. Check us out; we have copies of our Book Club selections in the back of the library ready for your reading.

Cindy and Jim Meyer have worked in the library cleaning, covering books and sending out reminders. We are forever grateful to them. As if they didn't have enough to do, they have spent many weeks in the Preschool organizing their books into logical categories for easy retrieval.

A special thank you goes to Abbey Krain who arranged for the professional cleaning, ordered the runner and fixed our AC.

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY

As Women's Spirituality begins another year of gathering together, we welcome all women members of Temple Sholom. We meet once a month, usually in the Temple library on Wednesday evenings between 7:30-9:00 p.m. Sometimes the location, day and time can change. Some of our topics might include women's concerns, culture and holiday observances. They are interactive, thought provoking and fun. Come and enjoy the programs, the friendships and the sharing that takes place once a month with Women's Spirituality.

The year 2016-2017 starts on Wednesday, September 28 at 7:30 p.m., when we meet in the library with our very own Education Director, Lori Green. She will be presenting "Make For Me a Blessing!"

As we enter the Days of Awe, we take time to reflect on how we have lived our values during the past year and how we hope to live them in the year to come. During our session together we will explore deep inside ourselves and examine what values speak to each one of us ... and how we want them to speak to others. Please plan on joining us on September 28 when we examine Lori Green's provocative subject of "Make For Me a Blessing!"

On October 26, Rabbi Stacy Rigler will be bringing her interesting program "Bereshit - The Spirituality of Hebrew Letters" for us to explore together. Don't miss this opportunity to learn from Rabbi Stacy Rigler.

On December 21 our Book Discussion will be on Chapters of the Heart: Jewish Women Sharing the Torah of Our Lives, edited by Sue Levi Elwell and Nancy Fuchs Kreimer.

Here is a little preview about Chapters of the Heart. It is a beautiful, profound, and deeply touching addition to the body of spiritual writing that heals and reveals ourselves to us in our full humanity. Nothing moves us more than women telling the truth about their real lives, their families, their relationships, choices, inspirations, losses, transformations, survival, their histories and their immersion in the now. And these writers are a stunning gathering of women, a quilt of rich, wise voices. The stories are not ours alone. Reading them, you may recognize yourself or someone you know.

Chapters of the Heart can be found in our Temple library as well as on Amazon.com (and don't forget to sign into Amazon through the Temple Sholom homepage – temple-sholom.org).

This year promises to be another year of exciting and new learning experiences with our much dedicated friends and teachers. We hope you will plan to be a part of our group. You can choose to join us as often as you wish.

Women's Spirituality would like to take this opportunity to thank the Sisterhood for their generous and continuous support of our program. We also would like to thank all of the donors to the Women's Spirituality designated Temple Fund that enables us to provide the programming we offer.

We look forward to exploring "Make For Me a Blessing!" with Lori Green on September 28 at 7:30 p.m. in the Temple library.

Here is our calendar for the coming year. Please mark your calendars and watch The Temple Tidings and Temple Announcements for monthly details.

Our Rabbi Leah Berkowitz dedicated and donated a copy of the book The Sacred Calling. It's about four decades of women in the rabbinate to the Temple Sholom library Women's Spirituality shelf. Her chapter references the Women's Spirituality groups' modern interpretation of the Woman of Valour that we created with her a decade ago. This is Leah's inscription in the book she donated to our library: "Proud to be back teaching the Women's Spirituality Group at Temple Sholom in Broomall, PA for my 15th year. Tonight, I presented them a copy of The Sacred Calling with this inscription: "With gratitude and love from the first woman rabbi your beautiful community has created."

PRESCHOOL WELCOMES OUR STUDENTS BACK

The beginning of school is always a special time for all students. Whether your child is going for the first time or moving up to a higher class, there is always excitement anticipation and eagerness to get started. What is true in general about the beginning of school is particularly true for Preschool students and their families. When you are one, two, three, or four years old, Preschool plays a huge role in your life. Your teacher becomes one of your primary adult caregivers. Your friends help you define your world and your school activities are your personal great adventures.

Simply put, the beginning of preschool is a magical time for students, parents and staff. Gathering together, getting the school going again, decorating the rooms and the halls, reviewing the schedules, planning out special programs, practicing safety procedures, opening new learning materials and rearranging the furniture are all part of the new school year at school. But most of all, is the arrival of students and helping them learn about their new classrooms, which makes the start of the school year so special.

Every child brings magic of his or her own to our program. For our part, we try our best to create a safe, nurturing, Jewish environment for our students. The sounds of laughter, the intensity of drawing and painting and the words of familiar songs are all part of the special mix of sounds and sights which combine to create a school community. For me, these moments are truly a few of my favorite things.

The Preschool staff is ready to get started and soon enough, the rooms and halls will be filled with the sounds of children! We're very excited about the addition of our new Baby room! Classrooms 5 & 7 have been updated with new paint, carpet, blinds and furnished specifically for the youngest members of our Preschool starting at 3 months of age.

Save the Date for Saturday evening, November 19th. The Preschool committee is hosting a fund raiser, an 80's Themed Adults-Only Party to help improvement of all classrooms in the School wing. More details to follow.

The year ahead promises to be a very special one for the Temple Sholom Preschool. It will be filled with wonderful moments, love and growth for our students and our school. I want to wish everyone at our Preschool and at Temple Sholom a Happy and Healthy New Year. May 5777 be for all of us a year of peace and happiness!

Welcome back to school and have a great year!

MITZVAH MEALS PROGRAM WELCOMES NEW (AND OLD) VOLUNTEERS

Through the Mitzvah Meals program, Temple Sholom has the wonderful opportunity to offer tangible help to people who are truly in need. Six times a year, we take a turn preparing a hot meal for hungry and homeless people in our area at the Life Center of Eastern Delaware County (63rd and Market St. in Upper Darby). Meals are served there 365 days a year, and open to all who are hungry; men, women and children line up outside the door of the shelter every evening, and local churches, synagogues, and schools are responsible for buying and preparing the food for the meal.

Our turn is usually the second Tuesday of every even-numbered month, although this year, the October meal would fall on Erev Yom Kippur, so we are working to change that date by switching off with a congregation from a different religious tradition! We will keep you posted about the new October date.

To sign up to help, please go to the Mitzvah Meals site on SignupGenius.com. The link is here: <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c044da5ac22aaf85-life>

Please note that the October date is not yet correct! However feel free to sign up anyway if you can be flexible. And you can sign up ahead of time for future meals in December, February, April, June, and August.

Please understand that only 6 to 8 people are needed to serve the actual meal. There are many jobs that can be done ahead of time, and won't involve a Tuesday night at all: purchasing paper goods and plastic utensils, purchasing and preparing ingredients for salad and casserole (recipe to be provided), buying rolls & butter, beverages, etc. We serve about 100 people or more each time; we prepare for 200, and usually, everyone has seconds (or thirds!) It is truly a mitzvah, a blessing as well as a commandment, to experience the warmth and gratitude of the people who are able to eat because of our efforts.

Or call Adam Weinstein at 610-446-1113 or email him at ab_weinstein@yahoo.com.

William Zamsky, son of Robert and Sharon Zamsky, will become a Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, September 10th. He will celebrate his Bar Mitzvah with his brother Dylan and sister Laura (she is coming from NYC where she attends college). He is especially excited to have his aunts Miriam and Olwyn, uncles Niall and Karl, and cousins Alex and Liadh coming from Ireland; for some of them, it will be their first Bar Mitzvah and he is looking forward including them in the service and celebrating with them. His grandparents Toby and Shelly from Philadelphia; grandparents Richard and Louise and great aunt and uncle Ronnie and Buzz from Florida will all attend. Other relatives and friends are traveling from New Jersey, Maryland, Washington DC, and all over Pennsylvania.

William is in the eighth grade at Radnor Middle School. He is a lover of all sports, especially soccer, basketball, and baseball; sneaker fan and collector!

Will's project was to power-wash and re-stain the Temple Sholom Annex building. Will wanted to do something practical for Temple Sholom and our community. The annex was in need of a facelift, and Will thought that restoring the building where he learned about Judaism and learned to read Hebrew and Torah would be symbolic of his appreciation of all that went in to preparing him for this day and beyond.

Raina Farmer, daughter of Ted and Shannon Farmer, will become a Bat Mitzvah on September 17th. Her brother, Galen and her grandparents Marlene and Edward McPherson, and Virginia and Rod Farmer, along with other family and friends will be sharing in her special day.

A Drexel Hill Middle School, 8th grader, Raina plays travel soccer with Upper Darby FC, enjoys creating art, fashion design and singing with her school choruses.

For her Mitzvah Project, Raina has been volunteering with Jewish Family and Children Services' LGBTQ outreach initiative. She has participated in a variety of inclusion projects and will be assisting in bringing their programming to Temple Sholom later this year.

Eva Leah Gans-Crocker, daughter of John Crocker and Susan Gans, will become a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, September 24th. She will be joined by her sister, Hannah Gans-Crocker (who had her Bat Mitzvah on almost exactly this date 3 years ago, since they share the same birthday); grandparents Gail & Paul Gans, coming from Brooklyn, New York; Mary and Bill Crocker, coming from Englewood, Florida; and many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends from all over the United States and beyond!

Eva attends Radnor Middle School and is in the 8th grade. She loves animals and nature, and computers (especially games). Eva also loves to make things in three dimensions (sculptures, but also building machines that work).

For her Mitzvah Project, Eva is volunteering with PALS, an organization that takes in and fosters cats. They keep cats on display at our local pet store, Pet Supplies Plus, in Wayne. These cats need to be cared for twice a day. They have their food and water changed, they are checked for illness or injury, and their litter boxes and cages are cleaned. The cats also need to be handled so they know they are cared for. They are put out into a corral several times a day so that they can run around and get exercise and meet people who are shopping in the store.

Volunteers with PALS do all of these jobs, and make notes so that the people who run PALS know what is going on. They also accept applications for people to adopt cats or kittens and talk to people about what they want in a pet. There are many more cats available than the ones that are shown in the store. They are fostered in homes around the area. This volunteer work is helping the cats, but also helps the people who run PALS, because many of them and their volunteers want to take breaks in the summer, or need to take breaks for other reasons, and Eva can fill in when they can't be there. Each time Eva volunteers she is there for 1-2 hours. She would like to continue to volunteer with this group after her Bat Mitzvah is over.

We have had a mildly challenging year, which included 5 months living in New York City, with Eva attending public schools there. It was an adventure, and it required many people to be flexible so that they could support Eva's efforts to prepare for her Bat Mitzvah. Eva did a great deal of her work via Skype from New York City, far from her friends and all things familiar. We are proud of her work, and we are very grateful to everyone who worked with us to keep Eva on track (especially Cantor Marx and tutor Shelley White), and those who have made a special effort to come and be with us to celebrate.

OCTOBER B'NEI MITZVAH

Jessica Leigh Gusdorff, daughter of Jonathan Gusdorff and Jaime Gusdorff, will become a Bat Mitzvah on October 1st. Jessica is sharing her special day with friends and family, including her sister Olivia, maternal grandparents Ellen and Bob Pludo; paternal grandparents Rick Gusdorff from Scottsdale, Arizona and Rosalind Fundell; along with aunts, uncles and cousins from both coasts.

An 8th grade honors student at Radnor Middle School, she enjoys tennis, skiing, traveling, hanging with friends, camp, and reading.

Jessica has been volunteering on a regular basis for a number of years at the JCC Mitzvah Pantry with her grandmother. She works to pack up donated food and help arrange bags for delivery, seeing firsthand the large number of people in our own community who need help on a regular basis. She will also be collecting from friends and family food that she will donate to the Mitzvah Pantry for it to distribute to local families.

Jordan Pakuris, son of Christopher and Joan Pakuris, will become a Bar Mitzvah on October 8th. Celebrating with him will be his brothers, Justin and Ethan, grandparents Doris and Edgar Freudenberg, aunt, uncle and cousins from Pittsburgh: Joseph, Susan, Samuel and Julia Freudenberg; aunt Evalena Pakuris; and godmother Patti Mallas Eaton coming in from Florida.

A 7th grader at Springton Lake Middle School in Media, Jordan enjoys many activities, including ice hockey, lacrosse, skiing and surfing.

For his Bar Mitzvah project, Jordan held a charity skate for the benefit of the National Kidney Foundation. He chose this charity because kidney disease runs in his family. He wanted to honor his family members affected by kidney disease by raising money for this great cause. It was held at IceWorks Skating Complex in Aston, Pennsylvania and he raised $2,120 for the NFK.

Any other information you would like to share? Jordan started playing ice hockey when he was six years old. After playing for the Delco Phantoms for five years, he is now playing for the Philadelphia Little Flyers, as well as for his middle school check team. He also plays lacrosse for Optimist Lacrosse in Media.

Benjamin Miller-Wilson, son of Laval and Cathryn Miller-Wilson, will become a Bar Mitzvah on October 15th. Joining in this celebration will be his older brother, Elijah, grandparents Constance and Laval Wilson from Clifton, New Jersey; grandparents Marjorie and Matthew Miller, from Ossining, New York; along with aunts and uncles Lisa and Patrick Hotung, from Buffalo, New York, Nicole and Steve Richer from Jamaica Plain, Massachusetts and Shawn Wilson from San Antonio, Texas.

A 7th grade honor roll student at Bala Cynwyd Middle School, Ben enjoys track, swimming, canoeing, white water canoeing, and just generally being outdoors.

Ben's Bar Mitzvah project is working with the HIAS Pennsylvania Refugee Resettlement Program. He will be doing a housing set-up for an incoming refugee family, a donation drive for refugees and an educational piece such as a photo exhibit about refugee resettlement that is TBD.

Any other information you would like to share?

Ben is an outdoor enthusiast. This summer he finished his third year attending Camp Pathfinder, a wilderness summer camp, in Algonquin Provincial Park, Ontario, Canada. This summer he took 14-day and 17-day canoe trips outside the park with other young men from the U.S., Canada, Europe and South America.

In addition to his current adventure, this Spring Ben and his dad went on a 40-mile bike tour with "Bike NY," which took him through the five boroughs of the Big Apple. He loved touring the boroughs by bike - even though it was pouring rain the whole time!

All of these physical feats - trekking through pouring rain, canoeing through unknown territories, portaging a heavy canoe with fellow camp-mates and racing in the hot sun during track season - should be good preparation for the mental feat of learning his Bar Mitzvah portion and teaching his friends and family about what it means to him. We (his parents) are very proud of him and look forward to celebrating his many accomplishments in October!

AJ Nordone, son of Ron and Wendy Nordone, will become a Bar Mitzvah on October 22nd. Sharing in his special day will be his sister, Lainey, grandparents Connie and Larry Levin, aunt, uncle, and cousins Rich, Marci, Erica and Josh Falk, along with other family and friends.

AJ is a 7th grader at the TE Middle School. He enjoys playing soccer, guitar, golf, running and going to the beach.

AJ describes his Mitzvah Project: I volunteered at Upward Basketball at Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church throughout the month of July. Upward Basketball is a positive sport experience for children with special needs ages 8-19. It focuses on the fundamental skills of basketball while incorporating gross motor, communication, and teamwork skills into the program. I enjoyed helping the younger children warm up and learn to dribble, pass and shoot.

I am hoping to continue volunteering at Upward Basketball through the fall months.

Jeanine Albero, daughter of Marc and Stephanie Albero, will become a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, October 29th. Many family and friends will be sharing in her special day, including her younger brother Adam, Great Grandma Elaine, and grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins coming from Florida, Ohio, Minnesota, Vancouver, Canada and Israel.

A 8th grader at Garnet Valley Middle School, Jeanine enjoys playing field hockey, softball and the clarinet. She is also a Girl Scout Cadet.

Jeanine's Mitzvah Project is volunteering at the Delaware Humane Association. She is learning what it takes to care for and socialize the dogs and cats at this animal care center. This includes washing food/water bowls, litter pans and laundry. She is also learning how important it is to adopt because there are so many cats and dogs that need homes.

Jr. ToaSTY GEARS UP FOR SECOND YEAR!

Welcome back Temple Sholom friends and family.

Jr. ToaSTY Mission Statement:

To engage and enrich the lives of all Jr. ToaSTY aged children and families. Members of Jr. ToaSTY are exploring Jewish values, making social connections and building leadership skills through social and religious events.

Jr. ToaSTY Vision:

We envision members training to become community leaders and as future members of ToaSTY. Through Jr. ToaSTY children will be inspired to commit to making Jewish connections guided by positive values.

Jr. ToaSTY is hitting the ground running this year with some great events for children in the 6th, 7th, and 8th grade. Please join us for Free pizza and games at our Kick Off Event on September 11th from 12:30-2pm (see page ?? for the flyer with all the details). We have a fun filled calendar of events ready to go, so please make some room in your busy scheduled this year to party with us. Calendar is available at the Temple Sholom Website under Jr.Toasty. Highlights include building a Purim carnival booth, Hot Chocolate Havdalah, and much more.

Sunday, October 16th Jr. ToaSTY is teaming up with the Brotherhood to build and decorate the sukkah. We will be having a lunch, PIZZA in the Hut for the event. Start time will be in the morning. RSVP is extremely important for this event.

New this year is a membership form and dues. Please email or send your form into the office as soon as possible. Please remember to RSVP early and often to all events. At the conclusion of each event you will receive a Google Form asking for your child's feedback. Please help this year to be successful by helping to maintain the values of Jr. ToaSTY.

If any parents would like to support Jr. ToaSTY please contact me Galen Newman at Galen.newman.3@gmail.com.

Is it HOT IN HERE ... OR IS IT JUST ToaSTY?

We as a board are just starting to plan out our year together and we can already guarantee it is going to be a lot of fun. The Facebook page is up where you can find all the latest info on all things ToaSTY. We are looking forward to another amazing year together and are always looking for new members to join us. Any high school student, grades 9-12, is welcome to an event and we hope to see some new faces.

ToaSTY is extremely excited to start off another year with our Philabundance Food Drive! As we have done in previous years, we will be collecting canned food items at our High Holy Day Services, and once again we can hopefully #fillthetruck on Yom Kippur!

Members of ToaSTY are always encouraged to attend NFTY PAR regional events. It is an incredible opportunity to meet people from all over the Pennsylvania area and make lifelong friends! The upcoming event is Fall Kallah which will take place November 18-20 at URJ Camp Harlam and the event is open to all high school students. We hope to achieve the highest ToaSTY attendance at a regional event so far this year.

We cannot wait to get the year rolling and if you have any questions feel free to contact us toasty@temple-sholom.org.

Chase Mendell, Co-President and Sydney Goldberg, Social Action Vice President

Jr. ToaSTY Values:

3. Joy and Humor - Our positive, caring Jewish culture supports students and families. We like fun. We love to laugh.

TEMPLE SHOLOM TRAVELS TO ISRAEL

SAVE THE DATE

Save the date as we plan for two special trips to Israel with Rabbi Rigler and your Temple Sholom community!

Family B'nei Mitzvah Trip,
August 2017

Adult Trip, late Fall 2017
(still in the early planning stages)

There is one very special way to mark a sad or happy occasion and benefit Israel at the same time. All you need to do is purchase a Jewish National Fund tree that will be planted in Israel.

- * The cost of one JNF tree is $18
- * A Ring of three trees is $54
- * A Circle of five trees costs $90
- * An Orchard of ten trees is $180
- * A Garden of 100 trees is $1,800

Your Voice in Israel

With each purchase, the recipient receives a beautiful (and frame-able!) certificate noting the gift size. You can even visit the trees when you go to Israel. The purchases receives acknowledgement in The Temple Tidings.

What's more, it's very easy to make these thoughtful purchases -- which also benefit Temple Sholom's Sisterhood, by the way. Either call or email Shirley Birenbaum and she will help you through your purchases. Contact her at surabassa@aol.com or phone her at 610-328-2171.
