FROM THE DESK OF RABBI PETER RIGLER

Dear Friends,

As we enter summer I can't help but think about the year we are ending: the school year that is now just finishing and the winding down of our calendar. I am thinking about the programs, learning, volunteering, community and so much more. I think about the many B'nai Mitzvahs, weddings, baby namings, and, sadly, funerals we all shared. It was a year filled with a very real understanding of how strong this Temple Sholom family is.

I do look forward to summer vacation time for renewal and perspective. For me, that primarily means hitting pause to the work button this summer. I am always amazed at how many days it takes to stop automatically pressing the mail icon on the phone. But eventually, I do stop. Vacation is a blank canvas. In Alan Lew's Be Still and Get Going, he writes "... when we leave home, when we leave everything that is familiar to us, we leave convention, and most significantly, we leave habit..." It is this liberation from the typical conventions and habits, tools and instruments we use to fill the space in our days that is the most noticeable shift for me. No email. No television. No Facebook. Little cell reception. More exercise. More reading. More water. More sleep.

This liberation makes me feel more aware of myself, my surroundings, and how my actions and my surroundings made me feel. The point of these escapes is not actually the vacation itself. It is about returning and re-entering life in a fresh way. We have already spent months preparing for the next year of activities and services which we will share. How will you return? I hope that you will find ways to strengthen your soul here at Temple Sholom as you re-engage at the end of the summer. We have a full year planned but it is empty without you!

B'Shalom,

~ Rabbi Peter Rigler

NOTES FROM CANTOR JAMIE MARX

One of the most moving worship experiences of my life happened at a Green Day concert in Madison Square Garden. For those unfamiliar with Green Day's pop punk aesthetic, their music tends to be loud, profane, melodic, and concerned with being true to oneself. It might not sound like a medium for a worship experience, but it was undeniably a blending of music and message that created a connection among a community of friends and strangers and uplift in our spirits.

Rock music has always been derided for its mass market appeal (if everyone likes it, how good can it be?), and its melodramatic tendencies (teenagers are so emotional!). But its power and potential as worship music rests in exactly those areas. The best worship music speaks to us in a musical language that is familiar and evokes an emotional response in us, awakening our hearts to the world that surrounds us. And while hard rock may not be everyone's "native tongue," for those who grew up listening to Cream, Queen, Guns n' Roses, Green Day, or Foo Fighters, it has the potential to be a doorway into an uplifting, emotional experience.

On September 5, I'll be releasing a six-track EP of Jewish hard rock titled In Pursuit. As part of the lead up to the album's release, I'll be sharing my thoughts on the intersection of rock and spirituality (including the full story of that Green Day concert!). I'll be joined by contributors from across the country. I hope you'll join me as well for the journey, which you can do by signing up for my mailing list (www.inpursuitalbum.com/list), where you'll not only receive the blog series but other updates about the album's release, including a CD release party in November. The series starts on July 18 and continues through the summer. Come discover the possibilities for the transformative power of rock!

DIRECTOR'S CORNER

Friends,

The summer is such a wonderful season. The weather is warm, the sun is shining, and we are busy with a great deal of preparation for the High Holy Days and the coming School/Program year at Temple Sholom.

If you have a chance to come in and visit with us during the summer months, please do so. It is a nice time for all of us to take some time and reflect on the past year as we look forward to the next. Just to take the time to sit and chat is a true pleasure. If you are driving by the Temple of would just like to come in, please do so.

We are looking for new members. If you have prospective individuals or families, please let them know it would be our pleasure to welcome them. Also, if are able to send me their contact information, I will reach out to them on behalf of our community.

I wish you a relaxing summer, and look forward to seeing you.

Warmly,

~ Abbey Krain

BRINGING OUR COMMUNITY TOGETHER

Happy summer! I hope you are enjoying the longer, warmer days and are able to take some time to relax and reflect on the past year. At Temple Sholom, we are busy getting ready for the High Holy Days and the new year. We are excitedly planning for a year full of meaningful and interesting programs. Temple Sholom is a congregation filled with people of many talents, strengths, and interests. Do you have an idea for a program you think would appeal to the congregation? Are you looking for volunteer opportunities? Are you eager to help coordinate a Temple program? We are always looking for volunteers in the Temple office and to help with events. If you or someone you know is interested, please do not hesitate to reach out! Enjoy the rest of your summer!

MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD: TREASURER'S WRAP-UP

Dear Congregants:

It's hard for me to believe that a year has passed since I last wrote about the financial challenges and accomplishments of balancing the Temple budget. The years just seem to be flying by and we still face the fiscal challenges of providing the services that we have come to expect while fighting the ever-increasing costs of providing those services.

At this point, I'd like to thank the Finance Committee for all of your hard work in putting this year's budget together. They are: Marc Alberio, Rachel Amdur, Nancy Bloomfield, Robin Gall, Evan Gold, Mary Ann Gould, Steve Hendel, Emily Mendell, Jim Meyer, Art Zabell and our ex-officios, Mark Rubinoff, Margaret Husick and Abbey Krain. Thanks, too, to Betsy Blackburn-Goslin for your help.

In accordance with our Constitution and By-Laws, the Finance committee is pleased to present to you the budget for fiscal year ending June 30, 2018.

These are some of the major items that drive this budget:

Our Preschool will be expanding its early care program which, if successful, should provide sufficient funds to operate without Temple subsidy

Our Religious school reports decreased enrollments and in Bar and Bat Mitzvah class sizes projected through 2019. Personnel costs have been adjusted accordingly

Fund raising emphasis through November will be on the Gala. This event on November 5 at the Media Theater featuring the fabulous Neil Berg and 100 Years of Broadway is targeted to raise sufficient funds to replace our aging electrical panels and heating and air-conditioning systems. Any funds raised above the amounts needed for these replacements will go to offset the ever-increasing burden placed on operations by building repairs and maintenance.

We expect our auxiliaries to continue their support with their generous donations. More and more this coming year, Board Designated funds will be expected to reimburse Operations for expenses incurred on their behalf.

Rabbi Rigler will be serving us for the next five years under the terms of his new contract and the first year of these costs are reflected in this budget

We are constantly fighting the battle of keeping up the level of service that we have implemented over the years and the tide of rising costs and expenses while trying to remain competitive in our dues and fees.

I truly believe that we are fast approaching a crossroads in our ability to fund the operations of this institution and that, if we don't find more innovative ways to augment our dues and fees, we may well find out that much more of those costs must be passed to our congregants in the form of significant dues increases or that some of the services that we have come to expect may be reduced or cut. This is not a prospect that any of us would relish and it should be a clarion call to my fellow officers, board members and congregants to put our heads together to find new ways to weather the financial storm so that the future of our Temple is ensured for generations to come.

I've said it before in my remarks but it remains worth repeating. Our dues barely cover 47% of our operating expenses. Our religious and preschools operate with significant subsidies from operations and most other services we provide do not have any outside specific revenue sources. We need to rely on the generosity of our congregants to provide the resources necessary to keep us afloat. This is a tough way to have to make a living.

It's also important to note that we are not the only ones to face these challenges. Many congregations in all denominations are reporting decreased memberships, and with that, decreased revenues. We are fortunate in that our membership has remained fairly constant but unlike some of our sister congregations, we don't have benefactors that have provided legacies and endowments to sustain us.

Often in recent times many more congregants have relied upon the subsidies we provide to maintain their memberships. That's the primary reason that we have reserved 20% of our anticipated gross dues revenue so that we can continue our policy of never refusing membership for lack of financial resources. It is of primary importance to us as a community that we provide quality Jewish education for our children and to make all families welcome no matter what their financial situation.

In closing, let me say that I have tried to lay out blueprint for the challenges and innovations that must be made so that we remain a strong, vibrant community for years to come. We are not near collapse and certainly are not on the brink of closing. We are fortunate for the foresight of past and present leadership that has provided us with sufficient reserves to meet our fiscal obligations and I am confident that with your help, we can find new ways to meet any and all challenges in the future. I want to thank all of you for re-electing me as your treasurer and I look forward in developing these new ideas with you in the next two years.

Respectfully,

Steven L. Granoff, CPA, Treasurer

ANNUAL MEETING: RECORDING SECRETARY'S REPORT

Every year in June, Temple Sholom has an annual Congregational meeting as required by our Constitution. This year, on June 19, 36 of our congregants got together to hear the state of our congregation, approve the budget for the coming year, hear the news from our auxiliaries, and recognize those who have done an exceptional job.

We started with Rabbi quoting one of his professors that their congregations are not "your synagogue;" rather it is "our community". In the Torah, Korach was concerned that Moses was not "doing it right." He was only concerned about himself. The attendees care about every aspect of Temple Sholom. We should celebrate together.

Our President, Mary Ann Gould, looked back her first year in office: the Temple Sholom at 60 celebration, Temple membership of 441 family units, our membership is flat versus increasing costs, our Or L'Atid campaign achieved 80% more than its goal, we exceeded our goal for the L'dor V'dor program, the resignation of our Executive Vice President and reconstitution of our Executive Committee, renegotiating and approving a new five-year contract for our Rabbi, and the visit to Temple Sholom by the URJ President, Rabbi Rick Jacobs. Our groups have thrived. Our school was repainted. Our Religious School was selected for a fully-funded two-year program called Better Together. She encouraged us all to invite our friends and neighbors to join us.

Next, was the mundane task of approving the minutes of last year's meeting (unanimously). Recording Secretary Jim Meyer introduced the two candidates for Treasurer and Financial Secretary and the candidates for the Trustee positions. Ballots were collected and tallied.

A video followed showing all aspects of synagogue life during the last year.

Jeff Farhy is leaving the Board and he was recognized with a small gift.

The Brotherhood, represented by Steve Hendel, has a loyal membership that prepared the Scholar in Residence brunch and worked to make our Shabbat in the Park a success. He presented the Temple General Fund with a check for $1000.

Hilltoppers President Cindy Meyer reviewed the activities of the group and presented the General Fund with a check for $500.

Fran Epstein and Donna Hendel, past co-presidents of Sisterhood, reviewed all the group had done: Shana Tova cards (thanks to the dedication of Elyse and Daniel Endy), a Welcome Dinner featuring keynote speaker Maya Rigler, holiday gift wrapping at King of Prussia Mall, a game night, an educational program featuring Dr. Matthew Kerbel from Villanova University speaking about the outcome of the 2016 presidential election, the third annual Entrepreneurs Event, Holocaust Survivor Itka Zygmuntowics, and the Sisterhood Book Club, plus more. Sisterhood donated $3000 to the Life Center of Eastern Delaware County, and more than $1000 to our RIMON Religious School, nearly $600 in gifts to college students, more than $1000 to Jewish National Fund, $200 to the Temple Library, $236 for our Scholar in Residence weekend, $800 for presence for confirmands, $250 for Mitzvah Core, $500 to Rosh Chodesh, $1000 to Preschool, $56 to Temple's Tzedakah Fund, and finally $2000 to the Temple's General Fund.

Treasurer Steve Granoff discussed financial matters and our Budget for 2017-2018. He started by thanking the Financial Committee and our bookkeeper, Betsy Blackburn-Goslin. The Preschool has expanded coverage but now has lower registration; the next Gala is scheduled for November 5 to fund the replacement of the heating, cooling, and electrical systems that are showing signs of their age; Board Designated Funds will be using their funds to pay for their expenses rather than taking the money from the General Fund; we are looking at additional ways of raising funds since annual dues only contributes about 47% of our costs; we have no benefactors and we depend on the generosity of our membership; and, thanks to Financial Review, we are there for those among us not so fortunate. He moved for the acceptance of the new Budget. It was seconded by Nancy Bloomfield, and approved unanimously.

Mary Ann presented our Treasure of Sholom award to Donna Hendel for volunteering for so many things, including Sisterhood President and Sisterhood Co-President – a real Treasure of Sholom. Mary Ann also presented the Makor Hayim (Source of Strength) award to Ted Farmer who is always volunteering and fixing and working with the Buildings and Grounds Committee – he lives Tikun Olam (healing the Earth).

Finally, Jim announced the election results:

Treasurer	Steve Granoff
Financial Secretary	Nancy Bloomfield
Trustee (2017-2019)	Mark Albero Evalyn Elias Evan Gold Donna Hendel Ira Kedson Robin Stevens
Alternate Trustee (2017-2018)	Nancy Hays Michael Galvin

Cantor's closing prayer was based on Scripture which says that the Ark of the Covenant was made of acacia wood. That tree is full of branches requiring many small pieces to comprise the Ark. It takes many small efforts to make our Temple community.

~ Jim Meyer, Recording Secretary

SHABBAT IN THE PARK

On a warm and sunny Friday in June, the members of Temple Sholom came together to connect with friends, eat, pray, sing and celebrate the wonder of nature that envelops us every day. We drew closer through the experience and left in a better place than when we arrived, the essence of Shabbat.

For more than a decade, Mitch Wolfson leads the behind the scenes work that makes Shabbat-in-the Park so special. He buys the food, arranges the volunteers, and together they prepare all that is necessary and transport everything in a van he has rented. Shabbat-in-the Park will go on, however after his lengthy leadership, Mitch is handing his fire starter over to a new leader.

Night-Seders, Budget Committee and House and Grounds committee member. Temple Sholom is dear to Mitch, a place where his wife, Eileen and their daughters Rachel and Jessica, sons-in-law Charles (Chaz) and William participate in every aspect of synagogue life. He is proud that his grandchildren Ari, Jordon, Aaron, Brendon and Julia attend(ed) our school program. He is the quintessential volunteer. He is a man who gathers others around him to work for the good cause.

Mitch is an essential “fixture” at Temple Sholom, serving as Temple President, Trustee, Brotherhood President, coordinated Second-

Along with Mitch, please think about the wonderful volunteers who lead the charge, the volunteers who donate their time and the congregants that make it all worthwhile.

MAYA'S BAT MITZVAH CELEBRATION

Temple Sholom loves to celebrate; however, few occasions draw attendance that rivals the High Holy Days. Temple Sholom, KI, family and friends of the Rigler family joined early in June to celebrate Maya Rigler's Bat Mitzvah. Maya was determined to lead both the Friday and Saturday services perfectly. She succeeded beautifully. Mazel Tov to Maya, Peter and Stacy Rigler from a grateful congregation.

into the Kiddush area. We wish to thank Terri Watson, Jen Isayev, Lisa Lacio, Rebecca Schwamm, Melissa Shusterman, Howard Cylinder, Lisa Pottiger, Marissa Kupersmidt, our Youth Group, the Amdur (Rachel, Brett, Jeremy & Haley) family, Peri Leavitt, and so many individuals for your yeoman's service. A special thank you to Sisterhood and Temple Sholom for your financial support.

Our Staff, lay leadership and volunteers were essential to making Maya's day special. Planning started over a year ago, led by co-chairpersons: Rachel Amdur and Mindy Haenn who assembled key committee members: Evalyn Elias and Nancy Hays who with our Executive Director, Abbey Krain thought through every part of the celebration. Participants were amazed at how quickly the Multipurpose Room was transformed

Also, thanks to all our congregants who just stepped in to help that morning.

Maya's Celebration highlights our success as a kehillah. Our community is proud of a young woman who strives to be the best, her family who supports her vision and our Temple Sholom community who always rises to the challenge.

CONVERSATIONS WITH MEN

We Have Another Great Year of Conversations in Store!
The Conversations with Men group started in response to Women's Spirituality. So, you could also call this group "Men's Spirituality."

This coming school year will be the 6th year for Conversations with Men!

Each year we center our conversations around a particular aspect of Judaism. This past year at our monthly meetings we discussed a wide variety of subjects through the perspective of the Zohar, or the book of Divine Radiance. We learned about the history of the Zohar and how it was a catalyst for Jewish Mysticism or Kabbalah.

This coming year of 2017-18 our conversations will center around the Talmud. The word Talmud means 'instruction' and it is the collection of Jewish law and tradition from both the Mishnah and the Gemara.

The Mishna is the core of the Talmud and consists of the collection of oral laws compiled and written down around 200 A.D. by Rabbi Judah ha-Nasi. The Gemara is the main body of the Talmud, consisting of a record of ancient rabbinical debates about the interpretation of the Mishna and constituting the primary source of Jewish religious law.

Our planned schedule and discussion subjects will be announced later this summer after the Temple Schedules are finalized.

See you in September!

Inclusion Committee Members.

INCLUSION AND SPECIAL NEEDS COMMITTEE NOTES

This is the 5th year of the Inclusion and Special Needs Committee whose mission it is to enhance inclusion for people of all abilities in the Temple Sholom community. Temple Sholom has always been committed to inclusion having the goal of being a warm, vibrant, and welcoming community. Inclusion continues to be an important goal for all Jewish organizations and synagogues, and we are proud that our community is in the forefront. Our Temple continues to be an active member of the Delaware Valley Special Needs Consortium. Our clergy and school administrators work diligently with families to assure that any child can feel at home in Temple Sholom's Religious School, and become a bar or bat mitzvah. We have student volunteers who have trained to work as aides for children with special needs to assure that these children can participate in our programs. Our clergy and administration, along with the Inclusion Committee, are always available to discuss what accommodations a member, or guest, needs so that s/he can fully participate in our programs, events, and services. Most importantly, all of our auxiliary groups are sensitive to the needs of people with special needs, and try to be sure that their programs are accessible and accommodating.

This is a learning process for all, so we encourage our members, potential members, and the guests of our members to reach out and let us know what we can do to be more inclusive and accommodating. Did you know that we offer Braille and large print prayer books? Did you know that we always have reserved seating for people with hearing, visual, or mobility challenges at services? We are proud that this past year, we have introduced Visual Tiflah into some services, and plan to increase this in the coming year. This really enhances the services for all, but especially people with a hearing disability.

While we will provide an ASL interpreter upon request, we are excited to announce that we will have a sign language interpreter at adult services for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, in addition to our annual Jewish Disabilities Awareness and Inclusion Month ("JDAIM") Shabbat Service in February 2018. At this JDAIM celebration each year, we welcome a guest speaker to address an interesting issue about inclusion. The children and teens in the Religious Schools also participate in a presentation by a guest speaker. Our library has been adding books for both children and adults to enrich our understanding of people with special needs. We are especially proud that our annual Shabbat in the Park, held each June, moved to a new venue this year to assure safe accessibility for people with mobility challenges. Temple Sholom believes strongly that we all benefit when our community welcomes, includes, and accommodates people of all abilities, which reflects the Jewish values we all hold dear. Inclusion is a process, not a destination, so we are always learning about how best to assure that we are accommodating and welcoming people of all abilities. This is a group effort of our entire community!

Our community benefits from the full participation of all of our congregants, including those with special needs. Please remember that you can always request an accommodation, and we will do our best to provide this for you, a family member, or guest. Please contact Inclusion and Special Needs Committee Chairperson, Regina Levin, at 610-715-1745 or email: inclusion@temple-sholom.org, or contact the Temple Sholom office if you are in need of assistance.

SISTERHOOD ANNOUNCES FULL SLATE OF PROGRAMS FOR NEXT YEAR

Sisterhood members met in late May and signed up for many programs and events for next year. As you all know, we always say how Sisterhood is for YOU, and we're so pleased that you've stepped up and signed up to be on committees for the upcoming season.

Sisterhood actually begins at the end of summer when your Welcome Packets are sent to your home. About this time, you will have the opportunity to send Shana Tovah Greetings to your fellow congregants. This is such a nice way to connect with old friends and reach out to new Temple friends. Many thanks to Elyse and Daniel Endy who run this program from beginning to end (even contributing the stationery!), and who make sure that Temple Sholom friends have the opportunity to say Happy New Year in this special way. See page 14 for details.

The first actual Sisterhood program begins on Wednesday, October 18 at 6:00 PM, with the Sisterhood Welcome Dinner. We know who the keynote speaker will be ... but we're not divulging that information quite yet. This dinner is free of charge to all Sisterhood members and women of Temple Sholom who are first-year members. So please be sure to send in your membership papers and dues, because we are so looking forward to all of us being together again!

We'll follow up next with the ever-popular Game Night on Sunday, November 19 at 7:00 PM. Find out who's competitive or who plays Mah Jong or who likes word games!

Hooray for Chanukah! Join the whole congregation (and extended family, too, if you want) to celebrate together at Sisterhood's Chanukah Dinner on Friday, December 15 at 6:30 PM. This always-sold-out event is very special to everyone.

We then look forward to an Education Program on Sunday, January 21, 2018, at 1:30 PM. Be sure to mark your calendar for that and details will follow soon.

Just in case of poor winter weather, our next event will take place closer to the Spring. Please join us for a movie and a social service/education program on Sunday, March 4, 2018, at 4:00 PM for a program on Immigration & Philadelphia.

Although we'll be working together beforehand in a nearby greenhouse, we know you will look forward to Sisterhood's inaugural "Gift Garden/Greenhouse/Herb Mothers' Day Sale". The sale will take place Sunday, May 6 at 11:00 AM in the Temple Lobby. The planting and gardening will take place prior. Let's get our hands dirty together!

Since you're marking your calendars, you should write in Wednesday, May 23 at 7:00 PM for the Planning Meeting for the 2018-2019 Sisterhood Year. And then, to cap off what promises to be a busy and successful year, we look forward to the Sisterhood Closing Dinner on Thursday, May 31 at 6:00 PM.

Some of these events do not have adequate committee members yet. Please ... get involved, help out with a Sisterhood program ... and make some new friends or re-ignite old friendships. Sisterhood needs YOU! Watch for details of book selections from the Sisterhood Book Club. It will continue for yet another successful year.

Remember to contact Shirley Birenbaum at surabassa@aol.com or call her at 610-328-2171 for Happiness and Memorial cards (recently redesigned!) and for Jewish National Fund trees, circles or groves. Our Temple Sholom Sisterhood is able to offer these to you at a discounted, competitive rate. The Gift Garden is open throughout the summer by special appointment. Your gift needs can always be met! And remember, Sisterhood members receive a nice discount off the price of already fairly-priced merchandise.

Any questions or concerns? Ready to sign up to join a committee? Direct your correspondence to sisterhood@temple-sholom.org. Your response will arrive shortly.

REMEMBER, OUR SISTERHOOD IS YOUR SISTERHOOD.

WITHOUT YOU, WE ARE ONE WOMAN SHORT.

HILLTOPPERS EXCITED TO ANNOUNCE NEXT YEAR'S PLANS

Two committees within Hilltoppers met in late Spring to plan the programs and the Book Discussion Group selections for next year. What a lineup – we're really excited!

Nine books and one alternate were selected for discussion in the 2017-2018 season. We will begin our discussions on September 14 and end on May 10. The books include both fiction and non-fiction, older titles and new. All can be bought in every format possible, and they are also all available within the library systems. What's more, two copies of every book have been purchased and will be ready for checkout on the special Temple Library shelves near the windows. (Thank you so much, Cindy and Jim Meyer, for your generosity in buying these books!) The Hilltoppers Book Discussion Group meets on the second Thursday of the month at 1:30 PM in the Temple library. Specific book titles and authors can be viewed elsewhere in this issue of The Temple Tidings.

Our programs range from live music to thoughtful, educational presentations. There will be a program on the provenance of art and there will be a sing-a-long, as well as a professional re-enactor. Do you like live dance performances? We've got that, too!

This year's Closing Dinner was quite a success, with well more than 50 attendees. We were delighted to honor Sara Shapiro with our Third Annual Righteous Person Award. Then, that delicious deli dinner catered by Mrs. Marty's preceded the live entertainment of FiddleKicks. Six dancers astounded us with their Appalachian clogging repertoire, as they performed to three live musicians. Check out our photos from that event. What a night!

Please join us next year for our Hilltoppers Board Meetings. We meet in the Temple Library at 10:30 AM, usually on the first Thursday of each month, from September through May. Our first meeting will be September 7. By the way, all Temple members are welcome to attend our Board members. We value input from everyone.

We have added two new Board Members to our lively board. We are pleased to announce that Honore Poch and John Barr have joined our Board. Welcome, you two!

Be sure to sign up for Hilltoppers as a member. It's only $20, and this guarantees regular reminders of all our events. Please make your check payable to The Hilltoppers and send it to Judy Zon, Hilltoppers Membership Chair, at the Temple, 55 N. Church Lane, Broomall, PA 19008. However, if you prefer to attend our programs as a non-member, you are also welcome. Our programs cost $5 per person and are open to the general public.

If you have any questions, please contact Hilltoppers President Cindy Meyer at CFrogs@aol.com or phone her at

HILLTOPPERS HONOR SARA SHAPIRO AWARDING HER THE RIGHTEOUS PERSON AWARD AT THE ANNUAL CLOSING DINNER FEATURING THE FIDDLEKICKS

I am honored and delighted to receive the Hilltoppers "Righteous Person Award" this evening. I am truly a Temple Sholom elder, having joined the congregation in 1959, some 58 years ago! Temple Sholom didn't have a special program for older adults at that time. However, twenty-five years ago, after I was invited to a neighboring synagogue to attend a group call "Prime Time," I wrote to the Temple Board suggestion that we should have a program here for our elder members (now that I was elderly!). The Board agreed, and the Hilltoppers were born!

I was an active Hilltoppers Board member, serving as Program Chair for 10 years, having fun and fundraising, baking, baking, baking and contributing wherever I was needed, often behind the scenes.

During the 58 years of membership, Temple Sholom has awakened and nurtured my love of Judaism and Jewish spirituality. Rabbi Mayer Selekman and Cantor Patty Kaplan were an integral part of my education during those years, and pillars of strength as well, supporting me during the difficult times following the loss of my dear husband, Irving, after 50 years of loving marriage.

My Bat Mitzvah at the age of 76 years was a personal achievement and highlight of my involvement and dedication to Judaism.

My years at Temple Sholom have brought me great joy and fostered a strong sense of community. I participated in the stimulating educational programs. I perpetually volunteered, from planting annuals yearly to serving on the Temple Beautiful committee. I helped redecorate the sanctuary twice!

Along the way, I developed lasting friendships with an extraordinary group of fellow congregants who inspired and motivated me by sharing their talents and by performing mitzvot.

It is said that an acorn doesn't fall far from the tree, and so it is with me ... my "righteousness" was passed down to me from my parents, Mary and Joe Young. I didn't have my own bed until I was 15 years old. Instead, I slept on several dining room chairs with an old European feather quilt (a perineh), not because there were no beds available but because my parents constantly took in homeless relatives who had emigrated from Europe or who otherwise needed a place to sleep. So it comes naturally that I wanted to perform mitzvot, and I am grateful that this tradition has continued with the generosity of my children and grandchildren, who thankfully have their own beds. I recognize how fortunate I have been in my lifetime and I am pleased to be able to "give back" by sharing in the performance of mitzvot.

Thank you, Rabbi Peter Rigler and Cantor Jamie Marx for your inspired continuing leadership of my beloved Temple Sholom. Thank you to the Hilltoppers for bestowing this honor on me. ~ Sara Shapiro

MEMORIAL DAY: TEMPLE SHOLOM CONGREGANTS REMEMBERS

On Memorial Day, two of our congregants (I am sure you can tell who we are) spent the day honoring the Fallen Jewish American members of our Armed Forces holding a service/ceremony in five Jewish Cemeteries in Delaware County as we do every year. We do so on behalf of the Jewish War Veterans Post 305. In one case, Ohev Shalom comes out as a Congregation to mark the occasion. For those of us who are Vets (and Jewish) it is important to know that those who came before us and those of us who are still here are recognized for our service and, for some, their sacrifice.

CHAIMEN!

As the calendar turned to April, the Chaimen, Temple Sholom's competitive men's softball team, laced up their cleats, took the glove out of their bags, put on their #18 jerseys and prepared to play ball. Each Sunday throughout the spring and into the summer, we played against other synagogues in the area. Founded by Howard Cylinder years ago, Temple Sholom's team has moved up and down the standings, even playing in the finals on Labor Day three years ago.

We play modified fast pitch, which means that a pitcher may not windup before pitching, but may deliver a pitch as hard as he is able. This year's team was filled with 23 players. Thanks to all of our players. If you have a love of competitive softball and the skill to match that love, contact Dan Lipowitz at theseus1@verizon.net.

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY

Who are we? We are a group of women who are Temple Sholom members. We invite all Temple Sholom women to join us whenever it is convenient. Every session is a separate program and no prior attendance or experience is necessary to enjoy and get a great deal from each program. All women members of Temple Sholom are welcome to share in the friendship and learning with Women's Spirituality.

What do we do? We meet once a month, usually on a Wednesday evening between 7:30 PM - 9:00 PM. While most of our meetings are in the Temple library, sometimes the location, day and time can change.

A recap of the year 2016-2017 began with our Director of Education Lori Green's interactive and creative program, "Make For Me a Blessing." We explored deep inside ourselves and examined what values spoke to each one of us. In November Rabbi Shelly Barnathan presented Chayei Sarah and The Lessons of Our Ancestors. December was our Book Discussion - "Chapters of the Heart." In January our own members Kavita Goyal and Barbara Barr brought us their Rosh Chodesh program "Reflection on Renewal and Rebirth." As our year progressed we learned more about "Mother Knows Best: A Look at the Critical Role of the Jewish Mother" presented by Anna Marx. In the spring Artistic Director Teya Sepinuck brought to us from her Theater of Witness productions a program on Tikkun Olam and Spirituality. Theater of Witness is creating change one story at a time. As our year drew to a close we Journeyed Through Nature During the Omer Period in Jewish Life when we gathered in Ridley Creek State Park. We took a short walk to find something to bring back that had the spiritual qualities of gratitude, thankfulness or humility. We discussed about making our presence felt in an area of concern in the many causes that affect us today. We ended with a wonderful lunch together. We concluded the year with Rabbi Leah Berkowitz's program "Women's Voices on the High Holy Days." How do women's voices speak to you? Join us, to listen, learn and share with our warm and welcoming group of women. A thank you to all our leaders for sharing their talents and gifts with us.

As we bring this year of learning, sharing and spiritual growth to a close, we would like to take this opportunity to thank Temple Sholom Sisterhood for their generous gift and the generous donors who acknowledge special occasions with a donation to the Women's Spirituality Fund at Temple Sholom.

Looking ahead for 2017-2018 our calendar is filled with exciting and new learning experiences with our very dedicated friends and teachers. We hope you will plan to be a part of our group. You can choose to join us as often as you wish.

RIMON LEARNING AT TEMPLE SHOLOM IS THE BEST!

Rimon Sundays, Rimon Hebrew, and Rimon Noar engage all of our Kindergarten through 10th graders in authentic, hands-on learning that offers voice and choice, community-building and...joy! Our children and teens explore how learning from the past informs the present and, helps us to look towards through future! By delving into core topics under the pillars of Torah, Am Yisrael, and God and Spirituality students focus on areas of understanding that are important to them! Through technology, discovery, research, and the use of interview techniques students make connections between Jewish topics and how they inform their lives today and, present their learning to an authentic audience.

Summer is a time when we, as educators, reflect on the past year and look to a new year of learning and discovery. We listen to what our students have said about their past learning, what questions they still have, and what areas of further exploration that they would like to see in the future. Student feedback from the past year was both thoughtful and provocative! Based on faculty reflection, student reflection, and parent feedback I would like to share a “sneak peek” of some of our early planning for the 2017-2018/5778 Rimon year:

Rimon Sundays (K-5)

- ❖ Torah Unit – through the lens of the Jewish Holidays
- ❖ God & Spirituality – sacred responsibility to our spiritual home
- ❖ Am Yisrael – Israel...Past, Present, and Future
- ❖ Family & Community
 - Havdalah Family programming
 - Social Action
 - Holiday Celebrations

Gesherim Sundays (6th grade)

- ❖ Pre-B'nai Mitzvah family program
 - Monthly meeting for 6th graders only
 - Monthly meeting for families
 - Social action trips

Rimon Hebrew (K-6)

- ❖ Hebrew Through Movement – Kindergarten, 1st, and 2nd grade (Sundays)
- ❖ Introduction to the Hebrew Alef-Bet – 3rd grade (Sundays)
- ❖ Hebrew Decoding, Early Prayer mastery – 4th grade (Midweek)
- ❖ Reading, Chanting, Personal Connections to Friday Evening, Home & Holiday Prayers – 5th grade (Midweek)
- ❖ Reading, Chanting, Personal Connections to Saturday Morning & Torah Service, Home & Holiday Prayers – 6th grade (Midweek)
- ❖ Class-led Shabbat services
- ❖ Long-distance, one-on-one learning option

Rimon Noar (7th – 10th grades)

- ❖ Holocaust and Modern Israel (7th gr./2 trimesters)
- ❖ Myriad of Electives based on student interest (3 trimesters)
- ❖ NEW! (9th, 10th, 11th grades)
- ❖ B'Yachad Intergenerational Leadership Program! Two – year program (by application only!) bringing together teens and senior citizens to learn, do, and grow through the lens of social justice!

Wishing you a fun and safe summer full of family, love, and opportunities to do mitzvot wherever and whenever you can! I can't wait to welcome you to Rimon in September and remember...share our amazing and unique program with your friends!

SEVEN PRINCIPLES OF JEWISH LEADERSHIP

In preparation for the recent Sisterhood Planning Meeting, Donna Hendel added comments pertaining to Sisterhood based on Rabbi Lord Jonathan Sacks' Seven Principles of Jewish Leadership. Please take a few moments to read. It's well worth it.

There are seven principles of Jewish leadership, according to Rabbi Lord Jonathan Sacks, international religious leader, philosopher, award-winning author and respected moral voice. The phrase "Jewish leadership" is ambiguous. It means leadership by Jews, but it also means leadership in a Jewish way, according to Judaic principles and values.

All seven principles easily apply to the Sisterhood of Temple Sholom in Broomall.

- 1) Leadership begins with taking responsibility. In other words, willingly take on the work involved, but by all means recruit others to work with you, because ...
- 2) No one can lead alone. In fact, nobody should need to lead alone, especially with an organization like our Sisterhood, which counts more than 80, sometimes more than 90, members. Leadership means teamsmanship.
- 3) Leadership is about the future. It involves an understanding of vision. In order to have a successful Sisterhood year, it's important to understand that this will involve future planning.
- 4) Leaders learn. Nobody knows everything. And the opportunity is indeed an opportunity. By leading together we learn from each other.
- 5) Leadership means believing in the people you lead. This is perfectly appropriate for our Sisterhood membership. We are so proud of the many members who turn out to support our programs. It's very clear that we like each other. We also need to have confidence that with careful programming, we can count on our members to show up.
- 6) Leadership involves a sense of timing and pace. That's exactly why Fran Epstein, Donna Hendel and Nancy Hays are always willing and available to help chairpeople with their events. They can't do it "all," but they can help individuals carry out successful programs.
- 7) Leadership is stressful and emotionally demanding. However, leaders lead because there is work to do, there are people in need, there is injustice to be fought, there is wrong to be righted, there are problems to be solved and challenges ahead.

SISTERHOOD BOOK CLUB

Back by popular demand, Sisterhood will be reading together over the summer! Our next gathering will be at Temple Sholom on July 11th at 7:30 PM. We will meet in the library. We will be reading Kitchen Table Wisdom Stories That Heal, by Rachel Naomi Remen, M.D.

Enthusiastically praised by everyone from Deepak Chopra to Daniel Goleman to Larry Dossey, Rachel Remen has a unique perspective on healing rooted in her background as a prominent physician, a professor of medicine, a therapist, and a long-term survivor of chronic illness. In the form of a deeply moving and down-to-earth collection of true stories, this prominent physician shows us life in all its power and mystery and reminds us that the things we cannot measure may be the things that ultimately sustain and enrich our lives. Kitchen Table Wisdom addresses spiritual issues: suffering, meaning, love, faith, courage and miracles in the language and absolute authority of our own life experience.

We will be trying something new! This book is composed of many beautiful stories. Feel free to read the entire book but we are asking you pick one story to read and talk about. Find one that resonates with you that you would like to share. If there is overlap, that is fine.

Please RSVP to Michele Cooperstein at teachercoop@aol.com so we know who to expect.
Hope to see you there!

TOASTY

ToaSTY has had overwhelming success in the past couple months. In May, ToaSTY went on a nature walk in Manayunk, open to 8th graders, to give them a taste of NFTY.

Participants had loads of fun, and the nature walk will definitely be on the radar for next year!

In early June, ToaSTY held its biannual shul-in, a momentous success. We did two social action projects. In one, participants brought piles of gently used clothing to donate, and we had loads of fun in an activity with them! We also made bagged lunches for Marple Presbyterian Church which was providing housing for the homeless, and enjoyed Havdalah in the middle of the baseball field.

Looking forward to next year, the leadership has undergone great change. We have shrunk the board down to 4 members, and created 3 "chairs," each with a different job to help benefit the youth group. This structure change will make the group more efficient at planning events, and will hopefully facilitate the growth of the group! The new board is eagerly getting ready for the next school year and can't wait to welcome new members! Contact our adviser, Marissa, for information on how to join. ToaSTY is open to all 9th-12th graders! Enjoy your summer!

DOING MITZVOT

CBENT Sisterhood Knits Hats for IDF Soldiers
By Andy Gotlieb, JE Managing Editor

The soft sound of clacking knitting needles rings out, sometimes twice a day, every other Thursday at Congregation Beth El-Ner Tamid (CBENT) in Broomall.

But this is no ordinary knitting club: the participants are knitting for the Hats for Israeli Soldiers project, a worldwide effort to help keep soldiers warm during the colder months.

The hats are basic black ski caps in one stretchable size. After the hats are shipped to Israel, Channah Koppel, who oversees the Hats for Israeli Soldiers, sews a label inside indicating that they were handmade. The hats are given to the soldiers with a personal note wishing them warmth and safety, Bamash said.

About 35 different women have participated, with 15 to 20 people attending a typical knitting session. Depending upon interest, there sometimes are two sessions per day. Knitters start as young as 12 and run a full spectrum of ages.

“Everyone pitches in and helps everyone else,” Bamash said. “It has nothing to do with age. We have some older people who wanted to learn how to knit.”

Elizabeth Mellman, 78, of Ardmore ranks as the group’s most prolific knitter, producing 105 hats on her own. Although she’s actually a member of Temple Sholom in Broomall, she enjoys the camaraderie with her newfound friends. “It’s been so much fun,” she said, noting that she was honored by CBENT for her production. “I’ve had such a good time.”

Mellman was first taught to sew as a preteen by a neighbor she babysat for and is now able to complete a hat a day.

Taken from an article written about CBENT Sisterhood by Andy Gotlieb, Jewish Exponent Managing Editor, with permission.

DISCUSSION GROUP

The Temple Sholom Discussion group has been meeting for over 5 years on Sundays. Meetings are now bimonthly with a break over the summer. The topics vary from social issues to archeology, and politics to science.

We set our own agenda, approach from both the individual and Jewish perspective and provide equal time for all to share opinion and perspectives. We add an occasional movie that generates conversation. All are welcome. We meet at a member's home, or occasionally the Temple, and share food conversation and opinion. For information contact Bob Slater at altrok@aol.com.

HAVDALAH IN THE HOME

The Temple Havdalah at home group has been meeting for about 4 years on late Saturday afternoons. We share song, Birchot Havdalah and then a shared meal with conversation and friendship. All are welcome. I would also encourage groups of friends to add this to your Jewish life and expand your circle. To join our present group or for help forming your own contact Bob Slater altrok@aol.com.

A Friendly Reminder:

DO A MITZVAH!

B'nai Mitzvah students have the opportunity to perform hands-on mitzvot in the months leading up to their important life cycle event. What about our adult members at Temple Sholom?

There is a group at our Temple that could really use your help - become part of the Mitzvah Core team!

We need volunteers to add their names to the list, to be ready for a phone call or an email when another congregant needs help: a ride, a phone call, a visit, a meal, or shiva help.

Please contact Mitzvah Core coordinator Barbara Barr at bbooker628@aol.com or 484-412-8066.

Temple Shalom in Broomall invites you to a SPECIAL TASHLICH EXPERIENCE

Thursday, September 21, 3:45 pm

(Immediately after Rosh Hashanah services)

Merry Place Park

599 Glendale Road, Havertown, PA 19083

Bring your family and experience the Tashlich service together with other members of our Temple Shalom family. This is a great hands-on ritual for children and adults of all ages that is meaningful and fun!

Families will join Rabbi Rigler and Cantor Marx for a brief service followed by arts & crafts, singing, snacks and free time on the playground!

Tashlich is the ritual during which previous year's sins are symbolically "cast away" into a natural body of flowing water.

Stop by & have an ice cream on us

THE SHABBAT SUITE AT LANKENAU MEDICAL CENTER

PROVIDING COMFORT

When you or a loved one needs the care or services of a hospital, it's comforting to know that a premier medical center in your region offers a peaceful space for families to observe Shabbat and holidays.

At Lankenau Medical Center, our specialized medical and surgical teams are skilled in providing advanced care. We also understand the importance of helping patients and families through their physical, emotional, and spiritual journey.

Our comfortable and convenient Shabbat Suite features:

- Two private bedrooms, each with two beds and a private bathroom with shower*
- 24/7 private kitchen and stocked pantry
- Spacious lounge and private space for minyan

At Lankenau, providing compassionate care has been a tradition for more than 150 years.

To learn more about Shabbat services or to visit the Shabbat Suite at Lankenau Medical Center, call 484.476.2020 or visit mainlinehealth.org/shabbat. We look forward to helping ensure a comfortable Shabbat environment.
