FROM THE DESK OF RABBI RIGLER

WHAT IS CONFIRMATION?

This past week our Confirmation class began the work of preparing for the service they will lead in honor of the day. We spent a good deal of time over recent weeks talking about what confirmation is and why we do it and I wanted to share that with you.

Confirmation is a Reform-originated ceremony for young men and women that is tied to the Jewish holiday of Shavuot. It constitutes an individual and group affirmation of commitment to the Jewish people. Confirmation, one of the "youngest" Jewish life cycle ceremonies, began less than 200 years ago. It was started by Israel Jacobson, a wealthy German businessman and a Reform Rabbi. In 1810, expending more than $100,000 of his own money, Jacobson built a new synagogue in Seesen, Germany. He introduced a number of then radical reforms, including the use of an organ and mixed male-female seating. Jacobson felt that bar mitzvah was an outmoded ceremony. Accordingly, when five 13-year-old boys were about to graduate from the school he maintained, Jacobson designed a new graduation ceremony, held in the school rather than the synagogue. In this manner, Confirmation came into being.

At first only boys were confirmed, usually on the Shabbat of their Bar Mitzvah. Because of the controversial nature of the Confirmation ceremony, the earliest rituals were held exclusively in homes or in schools. In 1817, the synagogue in Berlin introduced a separate confirmation program for girls. In 1822, the first class of boys and girls was confirmed, a practice that became almost universal in a relatively brief period of time. In 1831, Rabbi Samuel Egers of Brunswick, Germany, determined to hold confirmation on Shavuot, the festival of the giving of the Torah at Mount Sinai, also the widely accepted practice today.

We hope that you will join us as we continue the unique and important celebration of Confirmation on Saturday, May 19.

B'Shalom,

~ Rabbi Peter Rigler

RELIGIOUS PRACTICES COMMITTEE

Dear Friends,

On Wednesday, May 9th at 7:30 PM the Religious Practices committee will meet.

According to the by-laws of our community, the goal of this committee is to bring before the Clergy and Board those religious and spiritual matters that affect the welfare of the Congregation; to promote increased attendance at services; to review High Holy Day rules and regulations; to act in an advisory capacity to families experiencing life cycle events regarding Congregational policies established by Clergy and Board; to help make events meaningful and satisfying Jewish experiences.

Perhaps most important we see worship as a shared endeavor and want to partner with the community to continue to create meaningful, unique and special religious experiences. I hope you will join us!

NOTES FROM CANTOR JAMIE MARX

Getting Ready for God

There is just so much work getting ready for Passover. Maybe you've hosted a seder and you had a meal to plan, a haggadah to review, kid's activities to create, and invitations to send. Maybe you kept pesadic in your house and you had to go through the closets, switch out the dishes, and clean out all the corners of your kitchen. And we had our profound experience of metaphor and meaning in the Seder and a week of spiritual-humility-in-matzah ... and then it's gone and we went back to the rest of our regular, busy, oh -my-god three months till summer lives.

Passover isn't the end of the season of metaphor and meaning, it's just the beginning. Our tradition counts the days from Passover till Shavuot, fifty days of counting, marking the journey from the Exodus from Egypt until the day we meet God at the foot of Mt Sinai. Our ancestors made this journey and we are told to imagine as if we too were on the journey with them. And we do, at least at our seder. We were slaves in Egypt and now we are free. But what about the other end of the journey? What if we imagine that we also get to meet God at the end of fifty days?

You get to ask maybe one question of the Creator, the Divine Source, the Place, the Name — what do you ask? You have fifty days for the spiritual peak of your life, a moment that will shake the foundations of the world both literally and spiritually, that will transform almost the entirety of civilization in the future. Would you make different choices about where you spend your time, or with whom you spend it? Would you change your diet? Where would you go to prepare?

If you had one chance to meet God, what would you do to prepare?

FROM THE BOARD

It is April and the gym attendance has begun to taper off and the well-intended New Year resolutions to eat healthier have been broken for weeks now. I would love to tell you the secret to diet and weight loss, but there is none. Honestly the best way to eat healthy and exercise is mindfulness. Being mindful in your everyday eating and lifestyle is the best way to keep you on track. Unfortunately, being mindful isn't always so easy. How many times are you watching a movie and without thought reach for the popcorn or candy? How many times do you eat a piece of pie or cake just because it is there and it looks delicious? How many times do you go to visit someone with no intention of eating a big meal, but they put out ten different fattening appetizers in front of you and there goes the diet, because you eat it without thought. We say, "let me just get through this holiday, just one more latke!" or "let me just get through this wedding, birthday, vacation..." and the list goes on. The fact remains there will always be a delicious event lurking around the corner. Ok, so we are doomed, right? Not necessarily. It does take some planning, good habits, a little bit of time, but it can be done. It is important for us to take care of our own bodies so that we can care for our loved ones and ourselves as we age.

Rabbi Moshe Ben Maimon (AKA Moses Maimonides or Rambam), was a scientist, physician, scholar, spiritual leader, and among the greatest rabbinical arbiters. Maimonides' clear understanding of the Torah explains the following: "Except for the treatment of diseases of the body and the soul with drugs, foods, physical exercise, etc., the Rambam believes that maintaining the health – of the body and of the soul – lies first of all, and probably exclusively, in observing the commandments and improving one's ways, morals and conduct up to their highest levels, toward all of the world's creatures." <https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov>

According to Rambam, it is a mitzvah for us to take care of ourselves. Therefore, Jewish law commands us to be mindful of the food we eat and we should exercise to keep ourselves healthy. I know for many of us this is not an easy task. Educating oneself and taking the time to learn mindfulness is a goal we can all strive to attain.

PREVENTING GUN VIOLENCE

What by all accounts can be an extremely polarizing issue - guns - became a unifying cause for many members of the Temple Shalom community who came together for an educational program one Tuesday evening in March. In the wake of February's Parkland school shootings, the Temple's newly-reimagined Social Action/Social Justice Committee quickly pulled together a panel discussion on gun violence prevention on March 13th. Although the stellar list of panelists had not even been announced, nearly 60 congregants came out for the event billed as a balanced, non-partisan program intended to provide some facts and answers to help make better informed choices in responding to current events.

The three panelists, each of whom is a gun owner, shared his or her personal and professional experiences:

Tom McGoldrick, Deputy District Attorney in Montgomery County, provided an in-depth look at various firearms and ammunition to paint a clear picture of some of the differences between handguns and assault weapons.

Tony Colgan, Marple Township Police Sergeant and long-time friend of the Temple, described challenges local police officers face in protecting both themselves and the communities they serve.

Marybeth Christiansen, Pennsylvania State legislative lead for Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense in America, provided chilling statistics about gun violence deaths and encouraged the audience to support the passage of PA SB 501, a long-lingering bill that would require defendants with final protection-from-abuse orders against them to properly relinquish their guns. (Important update: On March 21st, PA SB 501 unanimously passed the full Senate; the bill will next be taken up by the House in April.)

Following their individual remarks, the panelists took questions from the floor and offered perspective for those who wanted additional resources or information for how to take action, such as through Moms Demand Action <https://momsdemandaction.org>. In addition, the Social Action/Social Justice Committee provided handouts from the RAC (Religious Action Center) on gun violence prevention as a Jewish value <https://rac.org/gun-violence-prevention-jewish-values> as well as resolutions from CCAR (Central Conference of American Rabbis) <https://www.ccarnet.org/ccar-resolutions/ccar-resolution-gun-violence/>, URJ <https://urj.org/what-we-believe/resolutions/ending-gun-violence>, and WRJ <http://www.wrj.org/sites/default/files/WRJ%20R%26S%202013%20Gun%20Violence%20Prevention.pdf> each of which urges action, advocacy and specific legislative changes.

Stay tuned for more information on upcoming Social Action/Social Justice Committee meetings and events.

SECOND NIGHT SEDER - FUN FOR ALL

Our annual 2nd Night Seder was so much fun for all. Over 100 people participated with great readings from some of the kids (and adults). Rabbi Rigler found a great hiding place for the afikomen and everyone was rewarded with frog prizes. Many thanks to our guest cantor, Daniella Forstater, who added much to the evening's Passover celebration. Thanks to my co-chair Beverly Granoff, Cindy and Jim Meyer, my husband Robert and special shout out to my close friend Annetta White whose salmon was fantastic! Mark your calendar to join us next year!

SISTERHOOD WRAPS UP OUR SEASON WITH EGG-CITING FOOD & ENTERTAINMENT

We're excited to bring you Sisterhood's Closing Dinner on Thursday, May 31 at 6:00 PM at the Temple, featuring Breakfast for Dinner, the very best in top-notch entertainment (if we do say so ourselves!), and plenty of more surprises to thank you all for another successful year. See the flyer on page ?? for more details, and we'll be communicating with you more as the date approaches. But don't be surprised if we tell you that the fashion of the evening is so casual as to be pajama-like ... hint, hint!

The Sisterhood Book Club has one more book to discuss for this season: This Is How It Always Is, by Laurie Frankel. Mark your calendar for the facilitation of this fantastic selection, to take place on Thursday, June 7 at 7:30 PM. Location will be announced.

Recapping a bit, we want to make sure you know that the Sisterhood Plant Sale won't be happening the week before Mother's Day. Maybe next year!

Our Theatre Outing in March to see The People's Light Theatre production of The Diary of Anne Frank was such a success! Nearly 40 Sisterhood Members joined by some Temple Sholom B'Yachad members not only enjoyed the show, but were treated to a discussion afterward, led by our own Rabbi Peter Rigler. Thank you, Rabbi!

Snow and power outages tried to cancel our HIAS-PA event but we were finally successful on April 8th, when more than 20 Sisterhood members organized toiletries for nearly 40 of Philadelphia's refugees. We listened raptly to HIAS-PA's Executive Director Cathryn Miller-Wilson speak to us about the current, local immigrant situation, and we also had the opportunity to recognize the work of HIAS-PA volunteers from Main Line Reform Temple Linda Brock and Adele Margulies. A delicious catered dinner from Hymie's rounded out our evening.

In April, Sisterhood held its annual Budget Meeting and Planning Meeting, so we are set to go for 2018 to 2019.

Even though summer is rapidly approaching, you will still have the opportunity to purchase Sisterhood's Happiness & Memorial cards, as well as Jewish National Fund Trees. Simply contact Shirley Birenbaum by phoning her at 610-328-2171, or email her at surabassa@aol.com. She will guide you through your purchasing choices.

Sisterhood's invitations and paper goods orders will also continue to be available during the summer. Where else will you find the expert knowledge of Nancy Hays, who is also able to provide you with a nice discount? For high quality stationery supplies at a reasonable price, contact Nancy at haz@comcast.net.

The Sisterhood Gift Garden will also remain open by appointment during the summer. Contact the Temple Office or Linda Phillips, or check out the Temple Sholom website for current featured items. Linda has expert knowledge of Judaica, and is able to guide you through gift buying selections. And remember, Sisterhood members are entitled to discounted prices!

Sisterhood continues to function because of YOU! Please stay involved. There is no such thing as too many volunteers! Do you have any questions? Ask away! Contact sisterhood@temple-sholom.org and a response will quickly be on the way!

SISTERHOOD BOOK CLUB

The Sisterhood Book Club has one more book to discuss for this season: This Is How It Always Is, by Laurie Frankel. Mark your calendar for the facilitation of this fantastic selection, to take place on Thursday, June 7 at 7:30 PM at 7:30 PM at the Athertyn Clubhouse, Parkview Drive, Haverford, PA.

Book Summary: This is how a family keeps a secret...and how that secret ends up keeping them. This is how a family lives happily ever after...until happily ever after becomes complicated. This is how children change...and then change the world.

When Rosie and Penn and their four boys welcome the newest member of their family, no one is surprised it's another baby boy. At least their large, loving, chaotic family knows what to expect.

Laurie Frankel's This Is How It Always Is is a novel about revelations, transformations, fairy tales, and family. And it's about the ways this is how it always is: Change is always hard and miraculous and hard again; parenting is always a leap into the unknown with crossed fingers and full hearts; children grow but not always according to plan. And families with secrets don't get to keep them forever.

Look forward to seeing you! Please RSVP to Michele Cooperstein - teachercoop@aol.com so we can plan for seating and refreshments.

HAVDALAH IN THE HOME

Havdalah group of Temple Sholom met at the Home of Kavita Goyal. We had the pleasure of welcoming two new couples and four children to our group.

Gloria Kresch started us with a discussion of counting Omer and we used Hodu, from psalm 150 as a looking forward to Passover song. Birchot Havdalah, Shavuatov and Eliyahu all followed. Good food and good company was shared by all and we hope to have a few children friendly Havdalah in the future.

All are welcome to join our group or form their own.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS: AN INTERESTING DISCUSSION

On the morning of April 4, Temple members and guests (around 35 people) attended an insightful, informative, and entertaining lecture by Paul Finkelman, Ph.D. the newly appointed President of Gratz College and a renowned expert on American legal history, constitutional law, and race and the law.

Dr. Finkelman's comments were focused on the common theme of the 10 Commandments. However, his talk was sub-divided into three arenas of thought.

First, he told us about his experience serving as an expert witness in the case of the legal challenge to Judge Roy Moore (former Chair of the Alabama Supreme Court and recent losing candidate to fill the vacant Senate seat in Alabama) and his effort to post a statute of the 10 Commandments behind his seat in the State Supreme Court. Dr. Finkelman served as an expert witness for one of three agencies that were party to the ultimately successful lawsuit to remove the statute as a violation of the separation of church and state. His talk noted how he took apart the opposing lawyer's attempts to get him to "agree" that the commandments were the moral foundation of US Law and thus "not a religious, but historic icon." At one point even the presiding judge grew frustrated with the repetitive and useless questioning of Dr. Finkelstein's sound rebuttals and arguments to the contrary of Judge Moore's defense of his position.

This led to the second element of whether the 10 Commandments are the moral (or legal) foundation to U.S. Law. He argued eloquently that they are not, and would be impractical to enforce if we tried to make them so. He points out Commandment by Commandment that only the Commandment dealing with murder is reasonably applicable, and even with that commandment there is the controversy since the Jewish word for the subject translates to "murder," not "kill." He cited the fact that some religious groups see the commandment as "kill" (the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) for example, and become conscientious objectors regarding war or any defense of person and property with lethal force.

The third and final aspect of Dr. Finkelstein involved discussing how many different versions of the 10 Commandments exist using a handout that showed four of the major ones; Jewish (Exodus, Chapter 34), Catholic, Protestant (King James version), and Lutheran. Jewish alone has two widely recognized versions (Exodus 34 and Deuteronomy 5) but the former is the most cited as authoritative. Even that said, he notes that he can find a potential 17 Commandments within the context of the so called 10 we widely recognize. To point this out he cited the fact that the one requiring us to "Honor thy father and mother" can be interpreted as two separate commandments; one for each parent.

Those attending received new insights on the topic of the 10 commandments, and the role they play in current and historic times.

CONVERSATIONS WITH MEN

Please join us for our LAST conversation of the '17-'18 school year.

May 6 - Modern Day Law Compared to Talmudic Law

How well does the logic of Talmudic law hold up to modern standards?
Surprisingly well in many cases.

Each meeting is on Sunday from 9:30 to 11:00 AM in Classroom 4 of the Rimon school wing.

The Conversations with Men group started in response to Women's Spirituality. So, you could also call this group "Men's Spirituality."

If you want a copy or other information about the group, email Bob at bobnmarians@aol.com. The real periodic table has been set to music and is a hoot. You can Google periodic table the song and listen yourself. I had set this periodic table to the tune of These are a Few of My Favorite Things. WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY

We welcome all women members from Temple Shalom in Broomall to join us on Thursday, May 17 at 10:00 AM when Women's Spirituality travels to Ridley Creek State Park in Media - rain date is Monday, May 21.

This is the fifth year that we are planning to be together in Ridley Creek State Park. We look forward to traveling together in the wonderful outdoors as our program unfolds . . . L'dor V'dor from Generation to Generation and from Season to Season. What connections can we find from the past and in to the future? What will we discover as we take time to embrace our memories in the beauty of nature? Please join us for these discoveries and more as we share this special time in Ridley Creek State Park.

Plan to meet at the park entrance at 10:00 AM (the bridge near Bishop Hollow Rd. and Chapel Hill Rd.) Please see directions that follow.

Our program will take place near the Fisherman's Pier, about a 20 minute walk from the entrance. There is handicap parking near our program location. People who cannot walk the 20 minutes from the entrance of the park to the meeting location (less than a mile) and/or have a handicap tag may be able to drive to the handicap parking area and join us for the meeting. Please indicate that in your RSVP so we can make arrangements for you.

After we meet at the entrance at 10:00 AM, we will walk together to our program location. There is a picnic table that can seat 8 people. Beyond that we need chairs. Please bring a light folding chair. Chairs will be transported by one car to the handicap parking area near the meeting place. You will not be walking the 20 minutes carrying your chairs.

IMPORTANT: Please plan to arrive a few minutes earlier to find a parking place, transfer the chairs and be ready to start walking to our program at 10:00 AM.

If you need a ride to the park, indicate that in your RSVP. We will try to match you up with someone else going from your area. Wear comfortable clothes and walking shoes. You will also need a pen; so please remember to bring one.

RSVP to Linda Tarash (with phone number and email) by Friday, May 11, so we know how many are planning to come, and are able to contact you in case of any change in plans. Those who RSVP will be notified by email of any changes in case of rain or other problem.

RSVP: linda.tarash@gmail.com with phone number and email by May 11th

DIRECTIONS to the entrance of the park where we will meet at 10:00 AM:

From Broomall, go west on West Chester Pike toward Newtown Square. Pass Rt. 252. LEFT at the next light onto Bishop Hollow Rd. Note: Bishop Hollow Rd makes a sharp right turn after a few feet. Go 3.3 miles on Bishop Hollow Rd. RIGHT at the bridge at the intersection of Bishop Hollow Rd and Chapel Hill Rd. Entrance to the park is at the end of the bridge on your right.

Note: Bishop Hollow Rd ends at Chapel Hill Rd. and the name changes to N. Ridley Creek Rd.

An alternate route from the Temple: Go up Media Line Rd to Gradyville and take Gradyville to Bishop Hollow Rd. Turn left on Bishop Hollow Rd. till you get to the bridge where you turn right for the parking lot and entrance to the park.

PARKING: You can park near the entrance, if there is space. If not, look for parking on Chapel Hill Rd. The car needs to be on the dirt area on the side of this road, not on the paved area. There is no parking on N. Ridley Creek Rd. or Bishop Hollow Rd.

Carpooling is strongly recommended due to limited parking.

Those interested can join us for lunch after our program.

Mark your calendars as Women's Spirituality meets in Ridley Creek State Park to explore L'dor V'dor from Generation to Generation and from Season to Season on Thursday, May 17 at 10:00 AM. Rain Date - Monday, May 21.

Please remember to RSVP by May 11th to linda.tarash@gmail.com.

Watch your email; you can also check with the Temple office.

We look forward to sharing this special time with you in the outdoors and in the beauty of nature.

Please note: Our June meeting has been changed to July 25 with Rabbi Leah Berkowitz.

When we gather on July 25th, Rabbi Leah will be presenting her program on "Sacred Time: How the Jewish Calendar Gives Shape and Meaning to Our Lives."

God's final act of Creation is to establish a day of rest. The first commandment the Israelites receive when they leave Egypt is to start counting the months. Through daily rituals and weekly Sabbaths, seasonal festivals and life-cycle ceremonies, the Jewish tradition helps us give shape and sanctity to time. Come explore the mysteries of the Jewish calendar, the challenges of living life in "Jewish time," and the meaning that we bring to our lives by establishing a system of 'Sacred Time'.

TEMPLE SHOLOM PRESCHOOL HAPPENINGS

Once the matzah dust settled and the Passover ended, our students in the Temple Sholom Preschool began studying Israel. This year, Yom HaAtzmaut celebrates Israel's 70th birthday and we have fun planned! The students will be using their 5 senses to experience the sights and sounds of the country.

The students will be grabbing their passports and heading on a flight to Israel. When they land, they will visit different cities and historical sites in Israel, immersing themselves in the culture and land. They will take a trip to the Kotel to put a prayer in the wall (and have the opportunity to see and hear the live feed) and then they will head to Tel Aviv to eat and taste some Israeli food. They will take a visit to an archaeological dig to search for buried treasure, using their sense of touch. The students will all be making and waving their own flags – each class designing them in a child-friendly way. The kids will then head to the Dead Sea for some salty science experiments; what objects sink and float. The day will culminate in a special Israel is 70! Banner that all of the students, from infants to kindergarten, will have a hand in making.

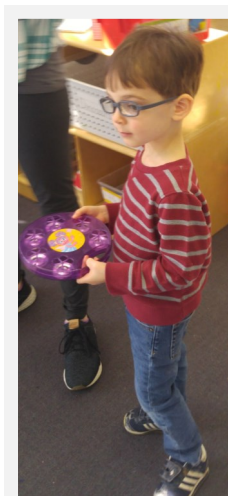

As the year ends, we get ready for our camp season. Another great year of Camp Menschy will begin; this year camp is open for early care and late care and will be on for 8 weeks instead of 6. Our summer will once again have special weekly themes and programs from Outer Space to Under the Sea. The children will have a chance to play in the sprinklers and have fun in the sun.

Our registration for camp and school are open and we are always ready to give a tour! Come on by and check us out, we look forward to hearing from you soon.

AROUND RIMON

Rimon learning is a beautiful testament to the founders of Temple Sholom. In 1956 a group of committed dreamers began this congregation. Their desire for a Jewish community that embraced the ideals of Reform Judaism, came together to worship and celebrate, and build a school that would educate future generations not only became a reality, but is flourishing 62 years later.

This year over 200 children ages 5 – 18 came into our temple home to discover their heritage, history and Jewish values. They wrestled with big ideas and the language of our people, and made the lessons their own. Celebrating the Jewish holidays, engaging in social action, wrestling with social justice issues, celebrating 70 years of Israel Statehood and more bring pride to us all.

Education does not occur in a vacuum. It takes love and commitment from our lay leadership, our professional and support staff ... and our faculty. We at Rimon are blessed to have had these amazing individuals share their talent, energy, and love of Jewish learning with our students each week. To our teachers/learning guides and to our 23 madrachim ... Todah Rabbah – Thank You!

Last summer Rimon applied for and was awarded a grant funded by a prominent national Foundation – "Better Together". This grant funds programs that bring together teens and senior citizens to facilitate conversations, share stories, and foster connections among the generations. B'Yachad is the name of Temple Sholom's "Better Together" program and is comprised of 10 teens and 10 senior adults ... all from Temple Sholom.

Partnering with Rabbi Rigler and me, our lead facilitator, Robin Matthews, has guided, nurtured, and inspired this inter-generational group. Not only have the teens and seniors learned and shared together throughout the year, they have developed deep, caring relationships with each other. Focused on social justice our group wrestled with issues of immigration, engaged in a letter-writing campaign to local and national politicians, and shared deep discussions about their own family and personal own histories. It has been a fabulous year and both the teens and seniors are looking forward to the second year of this program in 2018-2019/5779.

Participants of B'Yachad are...

Teens	Seniors
Anna Danowitz	Barbara Barr
Raina Farmer	John Barr
Meredith Forman	Shirley Chalick
Tamar Galvin	Evalyn Elias
Leah Isayev	Cindy Fastman
Sofia Isayev	Gloria Kresch
Abigail Kanes	Brook Levin
Jack Lacianca	Arline Lieberman
Erica Watson	Warren Lieberman
Anna Weinstein	Carol Rubin

AND...as part of the Better Together program, our teens are tasked with writing an essay relating to their involvement, interaction, and relationship with a senior adult. We are so proud of Tamar Galvin for submitting the winning Temple Sholom essay! Tamar will be awarded a significant prize from the "Better Together" Foundation as well as having her essay entered in the national contest. GO TAMAR! Her winning essay will be featured in the summer issue of The Temple Tidings.

B'NEI MITZVAH IN MAY & JUNE

Samantha (Sammy) Rosin, daughter of Rachel and Roy Rosin, will celebrate her Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, May 5. Sharing in this special day will be brothers Doug and Andrew, grandmother Berte Rosin, Carl, Kate, Ellie and Cassie Rosin - all who belong to Temple Sholom. Other relatives and friends will be joining us from near (Lower Merion) and far (San Francisco, California).

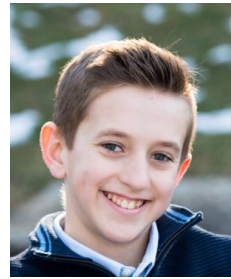

A 7th grade student at Radnor Middle School, Sammy is an enthusiastic member of the Baldwin Swim Club and of the Radnor Middle School girls track team. This year at Radnor Middle School, she also participates in Watershed, a special integrated program for 7th graders that focuses on sustainability and the environment. Sammy is also an avid reader and likes nothing more than to curl up with a good book and her dog, Dash.

Sammy participated in several mitzvah projects this year. She has spent multiple Saturdays helping to serve and clean up meals to those in need at the Broad Street Ministry (BSM), a church in downtown Philadelphia that practices "radical hospitality" and works to promote a more just and equitable world. In keeping with the spirit of her torah portion, which discusses Shmitah, Sammy decided to ask for donations to BSM in lieu of Bat Mitzvah gifts. In addition, Sammy serves as a unified swimmer with the DELCO Special Olympics. Lastly, Sammy will be spending a week in West Virginia this summer helping at a summer program for young children in Appalachia.

Sammy is grateful to everyone who has helped her prepare for this important milestone and especially thanks her grandmother, Berte Rosin, as well as Shelley White, Abbey Krain, Cantor Marx and Rabbi Rigler.

numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends from around the country and Canada.

Quin is a 7th grade student at Springton Lake Middle School, where he enjoys playing sports; including baseball, volleyball, and soccer. His volleyball team is competing in the Boys Junior National Championships in Phoenix this summer and he is in the US Olympic pipeline for volleyball. He is currently playing on three baseball teams - Little League, School, and travel and loves every minute of his time on the field and the court.

Quin's grandmother passed while he was preparing for his Bar Mitzvah and she was an ardent knitter. During Shiva, several friends and family members noticed that he was interested in her knitting and offered to teach him. He has been learning to knit with a group at Temple Beth El Ner Tamid in Broomall and will be donating knitted hats to Israeli soldiers and to the Domestic Abuse Project of Delaware County - a great organization that his sister volunteered with when preparing for her Bat Mitzvah.

Gavriayla bat Mordecai, גבריאלה בת מרדכי, daughter of Randy and Valerie Pritzker will celebrate becoming a Bat Mitzvah on May 19 with Adam, Rachael and Jaime Pritzker, along with many other friends and family.

Gabi is an 8th grader at the The Baldwin School, where along with her regular studies, focuses on basketball.

Quinten Bradley Zilch, son of Pamela and Bradley Zilch, will celebrate his Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, May 12. Joining him on this special day will be his sister Sydney, grandparents Marsha & Jim Zilch, and in our hearts, recently passed grandmother Judy Saltz,

Over the past few years, my love of basketball has taken on many forms. Over the past year, I focused my Mitzvah project through a contribution of time and energy as a coach in the Malvern Basketball League. This project has provided me with the opportunity to contribute my knowledge and love of the game, to young girls now beginning their pursuit of this game and team sports.

This project has become the chance to help others develop the self-confidence and awareness that pursuing this sport has offered me. Two to three days every week, I work with our head coach to teach our team new skills. I am there to not only teach, but to help create a learning environment that will help them grow as athletes and good teammates.

The team is led by my Aunt Steph and includes my cousin Mia. So in addition, to the above, it has also served as a way to get closer to members of my family and strengthen our love for each other.

This is a Mitzvah project that will extend well after my Bat Mitzvah is complete.

Joshua Sannes, son of Israel Sannes and Filomena Sannes, will celebrate his Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, June 16. Friends and family members, including brother Matteo, will share in this special day.

A Paxon Hollow Middle School 7th grader, Josh shares: I am interested in blogging with my friends on our shared YouTube account, watching other blog channels, playing games on the Xbox and also enjoying outdoor activities such as hiking and fishing.

My Mitzvah project is based around helping the community. I volunteer at the Providence Animal Shelter and plan on continuing, I help clean up the parks and backyards of my area doing a weekly clean up, and I also pack boxes of food for others less fortunate. I will have my family help me with my work to make my community a better place.

As the calendar turned to April, the Chaimen, Temple Sholom's competitive men's softball team, laced up their cleats, took the gloves out of their bags, put on their #18 jerseys and prepared to play ball.

Each Sunday throughout the spring and into the summer, we play against other synagogues in the area. Founded by Howard Cylinder years ago, Temple Sholom's team has moved up and down the standings, even playing in the finals on Labor Day four years ago.

We play modified fast pitch, which means that a pitcher may not windup before pitching, but may deliver a pitch as hard as he is able. This year's team is filled with 17 players. Opening day was April 15th.

ToaSTY

It has been another successful month for ToaSTY. On March 17th, ToaSTY hosted the 2018 NFTY-PAR elections. We welcomed the other youth groups from around our region to vote for the next NFTY-PAR board. We were honored to host and so happy to have everyone join us. Then, later that night, we had a Shul-in in the Multipurpose Room. We played getting to know you games, due to the fact that students from other Temple youth groups joined us. After everyone was introduced, we held a Havdalah service outside, played some games, watched a movie, and hung out. The event was fun for everyone involved!

In the upcoming months, we will be choosing next year's ToaSTY board, and we will also be holding a ToaSTY Shabbat service on May 4. The service will be led by ToaSTY participants, and we will also honor the graduating seniors. We hope you can join us.

We always welcome new and familiar faces to all events! For any questions, please email Marissa at toasty@temple-sholom.org.

JNF TREES AND WATER FOR ISRAEL

A quick and easy way to honor and/or remember a friend, relative or event is to have one or more trees planted in Israel. Or a donation may be made to help meet the water needs there. In either case, a lovely certificate is sent to the honoree and/or family. Tree Certificates are $18.00 each.

Two trees were planted by Barbara & David Smilk in memory of Arline Wolansky, beloved sister of Mrs. Sandy Michels.

A tree was planted by Elizabeth G. Mellman in celebration of the B'Nei Mitzvah of Jim and Cindy Meyer.

A tree was planted by Elizabeth G. Mellman in memory of George and Dorothy Gaul, beloved mother and mother-in-law and father and father-in-law of Art and Martha Shupard.

There is one very special way to mark a sad or happy occasion and benefit Israel at the same time. All you need to do is purchase a Jewish National Fund tree that will be planted in Israel.

- * The cost of one JNF tree is $18
- * A Ring of three trees is $54
- * A Circle of five trees costs $90
- * An Orchard of ten trees is $180
- * A Garden of 100 trees is $1,800

With each purchase, the recipient receives a beautiful (and frameable!) certificate noting the gift size. You can even visit the trees when you go to Israel. The purchases receives acknowledgement in The Temple Tidings.
