

Temple Sholom in Broomall Civil Rights Journey

A Special Trip For Adults with Rabbi Rigler

HIGHLIGHTS of this Unforgettable experience Include:

The Rosa Parks Museum • Martin Luther King Center • Ebenezer Church •
Walking Across Edmund Pettus Bridge • AIDS Quilt •
Equal Justice Initiative Program • Memphis & Graceland • Much More!

- Meet inspirational leaders involved in the Civil Rights Movement
- Learn about the participation of the Jews in Civil Rights activities
- Hear about the uniqueness of the Southern Jewish experience

March 14 - 20, 2020

*The trip cost is $1425 per person for double occupancy (with a single supplement charge of $325)
A $400 non-refundable Deposit is due by October 16, 2019 (unless trip is cancelled because we didn't reach the minimum of 20 people).

Payment for the trip must be paid in full no later than December 19, 2019.

PLEASE NOTE: Spots are Limited!

The trip does not include Air travel to Atlanta on 3/14, the Air travel from Memphis on 3/20, the first night hotel stay on 3/14, and dinners. Transportation to Atlanta and home from Memphis is not included in these fees and needs to be arranged by each person. Please do not book travel until we are sure we have reached 20 participants. Communication will be made when we have reached 20.*

Price includes all hotels (other than March 14) with double occupancy, all breakfasts and lunches, all programming fees, admissions, speaker fees, and ground transportation in a coach deluxe bus.

Contact Marissa in the Temple Office to RSVP & with questions, community@temple-sholom.org.