FROM THE DESK OF RABBI RIGLER

During these summer months we will have almost 50 participants at our URJ camps: from Camp Harlam in the Poconos to those participating at our Science camp, Arts Camp or Sports Camp. We have a few teens headed to Israel and another who will be volunteering with Mitzvah Corps in Seattle working with refugees. We of course will continue our Friday night Shabbat services; a great chance to join with friends and relax! Our building will of course be open and busy, especially with our Preschool summer camp with children playing and lots of activity.

I will have the opportunity to travel to Poland with 60 teens to share the Holocaust history and lead a worship service with 500. I will then head to Barcelona to meet with leaders of the Jewish community, share Shabbat and explore the rich Jewish traditions of the city with the Reform Rabbi. We have already planned a full two days of touring together and learning! Following I get to spend several days at Camp Harlam as faculty. It is a good summer plan but, it is the way that I rekindle my flame and prepare for the busy year ahead! The summer is filled with opportunity for us and for our children!

When I went to our URJ summer Camp as a kid, I remember hearing a poem from Shel Silverstein that I think of as we begin the summer.

HERE COMES

by Shel Silverstein

*Here comes summer,
Here comes summer,
Chirping robin, budding rose.
Here comes summer,
Here comes summer,
Gentle showers, summer clothes.
Here comes summer,
Here comes summer—
Whoosh—shiver—there it goes.*

PARA PROGRAM

Our community is blessed to have Para clergy who do a beautiful job leading worship when the Cantor and I are with our families, at our URJ camps or at conferences. This coming summer is no exception. We are excited to have Rabbi David Levin and Arlana Gottlieb participating this year. We wanted to share with the community the summer schedule and who will be leading.

How will we find that time to slow down the passing time this summer? There is a beautiful Midrash about the giving of the Ten Commandments, one of my favorites. It imagines the precise moment before God spoke the words of Torah at Sinai as a moment of profound silence and stillness. A moment when the world became soundless. When even the endless waves of the sea stopped their incessant murmuring. When the entire world paused to listen. Sometimes there are no words. That is a hard thing for a rabbi to admit. In some ways, we are paid talkers.

What is the old joke? “Before I speak, I would just like to say a few words.” That is a joke made for rabbis. But sometimes, silence is better. Sometimes stillness allows us to think and feel, to understand more deeply, to sense more profoundly, to experience more fully. In our increasingly busy and noisy world, those moments are few and far between. But we should look for them, search them out. Often they are right there, waiting to be discovered, waiting for us to be still, waiting for us to listen. May the summer ahead bring time to listen and to be still. We are so excited to be back in full swing in the fall but feel blessed to breathe the air of the summer!

NOTES FROM CANTOR JAMIE MARX

Summer break has always felt to me like entering another world. Whether I was a kid hanging around my house all summer (that was still allowed back in the '80s), headed off to a day camp, or working at a summer job, that transition between the school year and summer held power and mystery in it.

The anticipation built up as we passed through the final weeks of school, until we burst through to the other side in an almost disorienting emotional and psychological transition.

Even today, though my job continues year-round and the freedom of summer isn't quite what it was when I was a kid, the awareness that change is coming feels weighty and powerful. Our tradition teaches that these transitions are opportunities for reflection, appreciation, and awareness. Rabbi Arthur Waskow talks about this idea using the word sh'ma ("listen"). He breaks it up that one word into three pieces: "shh," "mmm," and "ahh!" First we find quietude ("shh"), pausing from our daily grind to acknowledge that something is changing. Then we express our gratitude for what we have, what we see, for the gifts that the transition provides us ("mmm"). And then we take a piece of that gratitude and consider what it would mean to take it with us into this new phase of the year, bringing a childlike wonder and sense of awe for the mystery that is life ("ahh!").

No matter what your summer may look like, what plans you may have, rituals you may engage in, or trips you have scheduled, take some time to mark the passing time and give thanks for all the gifts and blessings that have come your way.

RECORDING SECRETARY'S REPORT

Temple Sholom Annual Congregational Meeting June 19, 2019

Once a year, our Constitution says that we have to meet as a congregation and do the Temple's business. And, so we do. On June 19, about 40 of our members met to do just that.

President Laurie Browngoehl called the meeting to order and asked Rabbi Rigler to start the meeting with a D'var Torah. He said that this week's parshah talks about being lamplighters, spreading light through the neighborhood. He asked how we can continue to be lamplighters? Many people pass through our doors over the year. We spread our light to all these visitors. We continue to do sacred work for our community, and we will continue this into the future.

Laurie's opening remarks noted that a year has passed in her term. Now we are entering a year of celebrating Rabbi's 10th year with us. We have 430 family units, about the same number that we have had during Rabbi's tenure. Other religious organizations are experiencing membership declines while we are holding steady. Each of these congregants has different interests, and this leads to our strength. The Tree of Life Synagogue attack in Pittsburgh has increased our sense of community and we received support from other religious organizations in the area and by local government. We increased security at our facility and asked for donations to meet the cost. A teacher in the Preschool found mold in the Annex, and we took action: we moved the children out and contracted with professionals for remediation. Thanks to a donor, the ceiling lights in the multipurpose room have been rehabbed. Now, we are looking forward to our Gala in October, and to additional social action activities during the year.

Recording Secretary Jim Meyer asked for approval of the minutes of the 2018 annual meeting. Bev Granoff made a motion for approval and Lawrence Husick seconded the motion. The minutes were approved unanimously.

He then introduced the candidates for Treasurer, Financial Security, VP-at-Large, and the seven candidates for Trustee. Then, the attendees voted.

While the votes were counted, a seven minute year-in-review slide show, created by our Community Coordinator Marissa Kimmel with background music by Cantor Jamie Marx, was shown.

Next, our auxiliaries reviewed the last year. Brotherhood President Dave Mendell could not be at the meeting but Laurie noted that the Brotherhood had activities over the year and are planning more for the year ahead. Hilltoppers President Cindy Meyer noted that Hilltoppers started 25 years ago. She reviewed the monthly meetings and book club and mentioned the plans for the upcoming year. She also presented a check for $750 for the Temple's General Fund.

Sisterhood is running without a president so Barbara Barr, Sisterhood's representative on the Temple Board, Fran Epstein and Donna Hendel, Sisterhood's former co-presidents, reviewed all the group's activities. And these are just some: Shana Tova cards, Sisterhood Shabbat, a trip to the Media Theatre to see Saturday Night Fever and then to dinner, WRJ Heritage Day at the National Museum of American Jewish History, a book club that reviewed 5 books, Bimah baskets that raised money to support the Life Center of Eastern Delaware County, raised about $600 for the Jewish National Fund, sent gifts to college students, ran the Gift Garden, did holiday gift wrapping, gave holiday gifts to our employees, and Sisterhood gave $2,500 to the Temple's General Fund. Barbara, Fran, and Donna serve as the hub around which the other members of Sisterhood revolve.

Outgoing Treasurer Steve Granoff thanked his Finance Committee for the work they did creating the Budget that he was presenting. He also thanked our bookkeeper, Betsy Blackburn-Goslin for her help over the years. The proposed 2019-2020 Budget includes a $50 per family security charge and a 2% cost-of-living increase. It also includes $11,000 to repair the Annex because of the mold. He noted that we spend $56,000 per year for interest on our mortgages. The in-house mortgage will be paid off at the end of 2019, but we will still obligated to pay $45,000 per year to Bryn Mawr Trust. The Gala is aiming to eliminate this annual expense. He also thanked Marc Albero for his help working on the Budget. Steve made a motion to approve the proposed Budget. Marc seconded that motion and it was approved unanimously.

Next, volunteer appreciation awards were handed out. Our librarian, Mary Ann Gould, presented the David Lefcourt Library Service award to Honore Poch and Susan Farber for their work preparing and maintaining the books. Laurie presented Marie Gould with the Makor Hayim (Source of Our Strength) award for her work on behalf of the Preschool. The Treasure of Sholom award was presented to Nancy Bloomfield for her many years of service as, among others, President and Financial Secretary. She said that "it has been an honor to serve" and "I will still be active." She was presented with a print by recent artist-in-residence, Mordechai Rosenstein. Steve Granoff was presented the Volunteer Appreciation award for his eight years serving as Temple Treasurer, and leading our targeted fundraising: two Galas and heading our third. He was presented with a Shehecheyanu serigraph by our 1996 scholar-in-residence Sam Maitin.

Jim Meyer came back with the election results (all terms are for 2 years, 2019-2021):

Marc Albero was elected Treasurer
Emily Mendell was elected Financial Secretary
Michael Galvin and Steve Granoff were elected VP-at-Large

Evalyn Elias, Evan Gold, Donna Hendel, Henry Jaffe, Ira Kedson, and Lisa Pottiger were elected Trustees

Blake Robinson was elected Alternate Trustee

To close the meeting, Cantor Marx taught a song: Hazak hazak venit-hazek (from strength to strength).

And an hour after the Constitution-mandated meeting started, all business having been addressed, the meeting adjourned.

~ Jim Meyer, Recording Secretary

TREASURER'S YEAR-END WRAP-UP

In this, my last report to you as treasurer, I need to thank my Finance Committee members for making the past eight years a memorable experience. We've argued, laughed and deliberated for many months as a unit, always with the deepest respect for one another and with a common love for the Temple and a deep commitment to its fiscal well-being.

Among the committees that I have chaired in my synagogue life you rank at the very highest level. It has been a pleasure working with you and I appreciate all of your efforts more than I can say. You have made the budgetary reporting that this office requires very easy to fulfill.

This year's members are: Marc Albero, Rachel Amdur, Nancy Bloomfield, Robin Gall, Evan Gold, Mary Anne Gould, Steve Hendel, Margaret Husick, Eric Lieberman, Emily Mendell, Jim Meyer; our ex-officios, Abbey Krain & Laurie Brown goehl and of blessed memory, Mitch Wolfson. My deepest and dearest thanks to you all.

Thanks also to the staff at Temple Sholom, particularly Betsy Blackburn-Goslin, for your help and cooperation in making this position a relatively easy job to fulfil for the past eight years.

In presenting this year's budget for your approval, I would be remiss if I didn't point out several key factors that drive it.

REVENUES:

After the rash of murders in houses of worship in this country and throughout the world, the Finance committee felt a need to continue the enhanced security put into place at the Temple this past fiscal year. Rather than, as in the past, seeking private donations to fund this program, a fee of $50 per congregational household has been budgeted. This fee, when implemented, will cover the expense of a security guard for the coming year and may provide some extra funds to put in some other security enhancements.

Preschool increased enrollments and increased costs awareness have helped make this year's projections the most optimistic in many years

Dues increase matches area cost of living increase projections of 2%. A view to competition and a sensitivity to affordability area always used as guidelines

EXPENSES:

- Mold remediation in the Annex is expected to cost between $15,000 and $20,000. The repairs expense reflects that projection
- The aforementioned enhanced security expenses are expected to cost $21,000
- Administrative costs have been adjusted to reflect a new austerity program
- Non-contractual payroll has been increased by 2%, reflecting a cost of living adjustment, except for the Preschool administrator. In her case, her increase is greater in order to bring her compensation into competitive status

Our Temple currently has two mortgages which cost us approximately $56,000 annually. One is an in-house mortgage which will be retired in December ($11,000) and a primary mortgage with Bryn Mawr Trust. The mortgage with Bryn Mawr Trust continues to cost operations approximately $45,000 in negative cash flow yearly and yearly there are a good many maintenance projects or innovative programs that go unfulfilled simply because we have run out of money to fund them.

Retiring this primary mortgage will go a long way to resolving those issues.

As you already know, we have launched a major fundraiser culminating in a Gala celebration the weekend of October 25-27. This Gala weekend will celebrate Rabbi Rigler's 10th Anniversary as our spiritual leader and all proceeds from fundraising opportunities will go directly to burning the Bryn Mawr Trust mortgage ($250,000) in his honor and to help fund those projects and ensure Temple Sholom's financial stability and future. More information on these fundraising opportunities are forthcoming.

Before I make the motion to approve this coming fiscal year's budget, I want to acknowledge my successor as treasurer, Marc Albero.

Marc, this office is one of the most rewarding experiences you will ever have and I know that I'm passing the torch to someone who is more than qualified to continue the stewardship that it implies. I wish you great success and know that I am always willing and available to assist you if any issues arise that you need me for. All you need do is reach out and I'll be there.

Finally, I want to thank you, my fellow Temple Sholom congregants, You have honored me by allowing me to serve as your Treasurer for the past eight years. I am forever grateful for your trust and confidence in me and I only hope that I have lived up to it.

Respectfully,
Steven L. Granoff, CPA

Editor's note: And MANY Thanks and a Todah Rabah to Steve for all of his many hours of dedicated leadership and caring stewardship of our finances.

DIRECTOR'S CORNER

Dear Friends,

Shortly, you will receive your Welcome Back Membership Packets/High Holy Day information in the mail. The general information will be on line and in our weekly e-news as well.

Your membership commitment makes a big difference to our Temple community. When you receive your membership renewal information, please review them carefully and return the forms that we request.

Please know that we value your continued support: both financial and volunteer efforts.

This year's membership information includes a line for our Security Fee. This fee, $50 per household, will help us strive to cover the cost of our guards who are here on Friday evenings, Saturdays when there are services, Sundays during the school year and at other special times. We continue to utilize the fob system at Temple Sholom for security reasons as well. Please let me know if you have any questions at any time.

Below you will see our budget graphs: a snapshot of this year's Temple budget.

If you have financial challenges, please let me know. We have financial scholarships available, and will work with you to make your membership commitment one that is feasible.

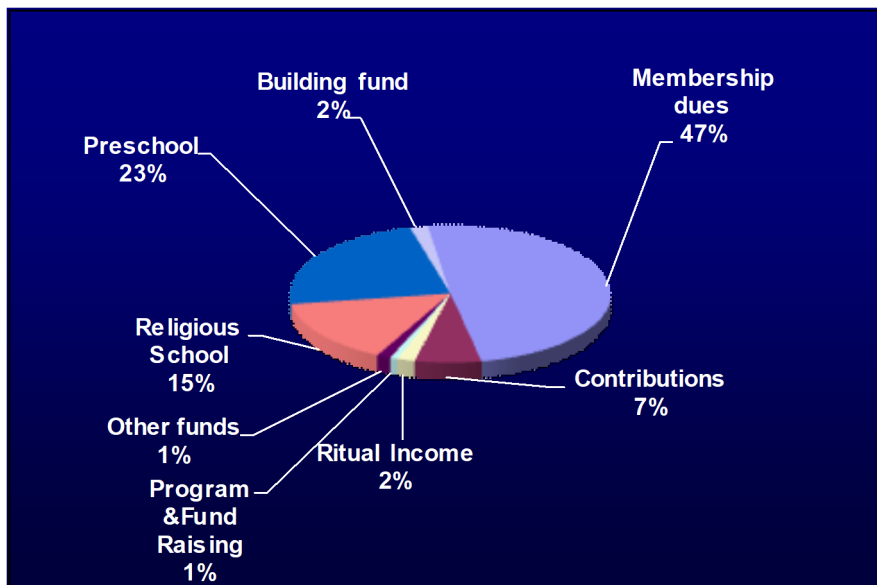

Please remember to let me know if you have any prospective members in mind. Together, we will get the word out that we are seeking new members.

Thank you for another wonderful year. I am looking forward to the new year with each and every one of you.

STEP UP, STEP OUT & CELEBRATE FAQ

Q. What is Step Up, Step Out and Celebrate?

A. Step Up, Step Out and Celebrate is a weekend-long series of events both to recognize the tenth anniversary of the investiture of Rabbi Peter Rigler as our spiritual leader and to raise much-needed funds that will allow us to retire our principal mortgage and so ensure the fiscal future of Temple Sholom. Events begin on Friday evening, October 25th with Shabbat dinner, services and an elaborate Oneg, and they continue on Sunday, October 27th with a cocktail party and performance by the Capitol Steps.

Q. What is this mortgage and how much do we need to raise for its retirement?

A. Our mortgage is with a commercial area bank and, at the time of Step Up, Step Out and Celebrate, its balance will be approximately $250,000 with seven years until retirement. By raising the $250,000 in this campaign, we will save approximately $45,000 in principal and interest payments per year.

Q. Will eliminating the mortgage payments allow congregants to reduce their annual Temple commitment fees?

A. No. Savings generated by not having this mortgage burden will be used to fund projects we have already identified as well as invest in new and innovative services for the continued growth and stability of our Temple community. While our congregation is getting younger each year, our building continues to age. With its aging, many smaller and routine projects require either the use of operating funds or private donations or just wind up getting put off.

Q. Will there be Step Up, Step Out and Celebrate events available for those who can't afford the various commitment levels?

A. Yes. The committee is always sensitive to the Temple community at large and has planned several opportunities that are available at little or no cost. For information about these opportunities, see the details elsewhere in this issue of the Tidings or contact the Temple office

Q. Besides the performance by the Capitol Steps, what else is planned and what are the costs?

A. There will be a number of ways to participate and express appreciation for Rabbi Rigler's 10 years' of leadership:

- Congregants and community supporters will have the opportunity to honor Rabbi Rigler with a submission to the Tribute Book for as little as $18;
- There will also be an opportunity to upload a personal tribute online for $36;
- A special Shabbat dinner ($54 per person) will be held at the Temple on Friday, October 25th, and
- Following what promises to be a moving and inspirational Shabbat service there will be an expanded Oneg Shabbat during which the Tribute Book will be distributed to all attendees.
- Further details about each of these opportunities will be forthcoming.

Q. This sounds like a lot of work to put Step Up, Step Out and Celebrate together. Is there any way I can help make it a success?

A. Absolutely! There are many ways to join or support the work of the Planning Committee. Call the Temple Sholom office or Steve Granoff, Committee Chair, for more details.

Q. What else can I do to help?

A. Achieving the tremendous fundraising goal of $250,000 requires the cooperation of every Temple member. Please dig deep and support this effort at whatever level is comfortable for you.

For further information about these or other questions, contact Temple Sholom office or Steve Granoff, 10thanni@temple-sholom.org

SISTERHOOD FINISHES SPRING WITH A BANG

Summer Offers One More Event!

Wow, the women of Sisterhood have been so busy this Spring! And we have (some) pictures to prove it!

A nice group of us went to Media Theatre's Saturday Night Fever, and then all went out to dinner together. Fortunately for us, the restaurant was mostly empty, considering the fairly high noise level we enjoyed while dining!

What a flour-filled mess we were after learning how to prepare and bake our own challah. Rikki Altein of Chabad in Broomall patiently led our group through all the steps, provided us with the ingredients, fed us refreshments ... and we went home with two challahs ready for baking. Along with the ceremonial breads, we each received a laminated placemat that spelled out all the recipe steps and an apron to wear for the next time we decide to bake challah at our own homes. It was so much fun!

Sisterhood's Closing Dinner was a delicious evening at Cascata Caffe. We were a most-congenial group of 24, taking time out from talking to each other only to play a fun Yiddish game and to eat the scrumptious Italian food. We lingered and enjoyed each other's company.

And, as if that wasn't enough, seven of us participated in the Women of Reform Judaism (WRJ) Area Day at the National Museum of American Jewish History in Center City. Our docent-led tour featured Women in American Jewish History. The day included a lovely lunch, some excellent camaraderie with Sisterhood women from area congregations, a keynote address from Rabbi Marla Feldman from New York City, and some fun raffle prizes.

Our final Sisterhood Book Club meeting took place in June with a rousing discussion of The First Love Story – Adam, Eve and Us. We are all looking forward to learning what next year's selections will be.

Finally, we are all ready to mark our calendars for an outing this summer, when we will go on a private docent-led tour of the Brandywine Museum.

This has been another successful Sisterhood year, and we have YOU to thank for making that happen. The Sisterhood of Temple Sholom in Broomall functions because EVERY ONE of you has agreed to take the helm and serve on a committee. Maybe we don't have a current President or Co-President, and maybe we don't have Chair people for events, but what we do have are women who are willing to step up and make these programs happen.

And, if all you're able to do is support and attend Sisterhood programs – well, that's a way of making Sisterhood flourish, as well. So the Sisterhood board members thank you from the bottom of their hearts!

Possibly the very best way to stay in touch with Temple Sholom friends and family is through the Shana Tova greeting card program. You should have already received your letter, list and order form in the mail. Thanks to the generosity (and hours of hard work) by Elyse and Daniel Endy, this Sisterhood program provides an easy and thoughtful way for you to say "Shana Tova" to your Temple Sholom family. You can send to the individuals you choose, opt for a reciprocal sending method, or send to everyone -- because you love your entire Temple family. See page ?? for details. Don't miss out. Place your order today!

Over the summer, your gift-giving needs will probably continue. You don't need to go far to find that perfect gift for a wedding or upcoming Bat or Bar Mitzvah, or any Jewish occasion. The Gift Garden, under the auspices of Sisterhood, can be opened by appointment, or, during the summer, the office staff is available to help you shop. Sisterhood members receive a nice discount on the wonderful merchandise.

Looking for the perfect way to mark a Jewish lifecycle event? Be sure to take advantage of our wonderful Happiness and Memorial greeting cards ... or purchase a Jewish National Fund Tree for a lasting impression. The cards are only $5 (and include postage!), and Temple Sholom's prices for JNF Trees are lower than anywhere around. Just contact Shirley Birenbaum at surabassa@aol.com or call her at 610-328-2171.

We look forward to women of ALL AGES joining us in the upcoming year. Do you have suggestions for programs that you'd like for us to offer? Let us know! Be sure to sign up for Sisterhood when you receive the Temple's Welcome Back Packet during the summer.

We can't wait to welcome back old friends and also form new friends. Please direct all your questions to sisterhood@temple-sholom.org, and a response will be sent immediately.

REMEMBER, OUR SISTERHOOD IS YOUR SISTERHOOD.
WITHOUT YOU, WE ARE ONE WOMAN SHORT.

HILLTOPPERS HAS PLANS FOR YOU!

In addition to enticing programs for the upcoming year, and wonderful books to share at the Book Discussion Group, Hilltoppers is holding a congregation-wide contest. The winner will receive one free year of Hilltoppers membership dues.

Wow, what is this contest? All you have to do is submit your suggestion for a new title for our Hilltoppers organization. You may submit as many ideas, and as often as you like, just be sure to include your name with your submission. Send your well-thought out suggestions to Hilltoppers@temple-sholom.org. The Hilltoppers Board will judge your entries and will award the winner with free membership dues worth $20.00. What have you got to lose???

The Hilltoppers year concluded with our annual Closing Dinner. Shirley Chalick, last year's recipient of the Righteous Persons Award, gave a beautiful presentation to the honorees for this year: Cindy and Jim Meyer. Cindy and Jim spoke a few words and were presented with a plaque acknowledging their well-deserved honor. Another plaque of current and past recipients of the Righteous Persons Award hangs in the hallway outside the Temple Office.

Our fabulous Deli Dinner, catered by Mrs. Marty's, did not disappoint. The more than 30 dinner attendees enjoyed the meal, as well as the dessert reception after the entertainment, a highlight of which was a lovely cake inscribed to Cindy and Jim. The sanctuary was the setting for Jeff Dershin Entertainment, a one-man band who had everyone singing along with him with great enthusiasm. It was truly a grand evening that capped off an excellent year of diverse programming.

And now we're ready for our upcoming year! All our programs and book selections are voted upon by committees of our members. Please let us know throughout the year if you hear of programs that may be of interest to our active 55+ constituency, or if you learn of books that we might want to discuss.

We'll just provide you with a sample of our beginning programs and books. Our Opening event will take place on Thursday, October 17 at 7:30 p.m. when we will welcome the fabulous Klezmer music of Ken Ulansey. Ken is a favorite of Temple Sholom, and we are so fortunate that he is able to entertain us for our opening festivities.

Our other programs are still "in the works," but we're happy to share the dates, so that you can mark your calendars right now! In addition to the opening event in October, be sure to reserve time to be with Hilltoppers on November 14 at 7:30 p.m., January 16 at 1:30 p.m., March 26 at 1:30 p.m., and May 14 at 7:30 p.m. Those programs are all on Thursdays, and will feature a mix of serious, educational topics, mixed in with music and lightheartedness.

All our events are free of charge to Hilltoppers members. Annual dues are a bargain at only $20. Non-members are welcome for a donation of $5 per program. We always provide refreshments at the conclusion of programs.

Do you love to read? Please join our Book Discussion Group, which meets generally on the second Thursday of the month at 1:30 p.m. in the Temple library. We will meet for the first time on September 12 to review A Place for Us, by Fatima Farheen Mirza. This novel is about an Indian-American Muslim family living in California, and features the dichotomy of Old World values and modern Western culture. Our second selection is Michelle Obama's memoir, Becoming, which we will discuss on October 10.

Two copies of every Hilltoppers selection will be available in the Temple library, thanks to the generosity of Cindy and Jim Meyer. There are multiple copies of every book in the public library system, as well. Our discussions are led by selected facilitators who do careful research prior to our meetings.

Our monthly board meetings usually take place on the first Thursday morning of the month at 10:30 a.m. in the Temple Library. Everyone is welcome and we value the input of all attendees. Please join with us for our first two meetings on September 5 and October 3.

Please direct all questions about Hilltoppers to President Cindy Meyer at Cfrogs@aol.com, or phone her at 610-359-1133

CELEBRATING CULTURE CLUB

What's Stopping YOU from Exploring, Dining and Socializing with Culture Club?

What do tango lessons, walking tours in Philly, karaoke and wine slushy festivals have in common? They represent a small sampling of the social activities Culture Club members have experienced since our inception one year ago.

The upcoming fall will bring some repeats of Culture Club favorites and a crop of new activities – a pinball arcade party, latke tasting contests, a visit to a Roman Jewish restaurant, outdoor concerts, seasonal hikes and more.

While Culture Club was originally created to provide social activities for Temple Sholom members who grew up in the 1980's (hence, the fact that we are named after a popular eighties band), we are starting to draw a crowd of any members who are young at heart and eager to try out a new adventure – whether that adventure be a walking tour, a wine tasting event, or a music jam session.

Why not give Culture Club a try? We are a fun and social group of couples and super solos! Keep your eyes open for upcoming events in the weekly Temple Sholom e-newsletter. If you wish to be added to our Culture Club e-mail blast list, simply send a message to Leza@comsolutionsgroup.com with the subject line "Add me to Culture Club email list."

Have a great summer!

Sincerely,

~ Grace Gherovici, Leza Raffel and Penny Toren,
Culture Club Co-Chairs

“FIRE AND RAIN: A CONCERT FOR A CAUSE” COMES TO TEMPLE SHOLOM AUGUST 17

James Taylor once said, “A concert is always like a feast day to me;” so if you’re hungry for good music, come out to our concert! Join us in the Temple Sholom Multipurpose room on Saturday, August 17th at 7:30 p.m. for Fire and Rain: A Concert for a Cause - a nostalgic sojourn through 20 years of James Taylor’s most memorable songs performed by Dave Binder. Dave Binder, a note-for-note tribute singer, has been honoring Taylor for over 36 years by touring clubs and colleges with his show Fire and Rain. For which, he was a Campus Entertainer of the Year nominee for ten years running.

Binder performs Taylor’s most memorable songs including “Fire and Rain,” “Shower the People,” “Country Road,” and “You’ve Got a Friend.” According to Broadway World, when Binder is singing, “you close your eyes and you’re sure James Taylor is in the room.” Enjoy an evening of entertainment as Dave Binder delights audience members with his tribute to this iconic musician. Until then, you can catch a glimpse of what to expect by going to <https://tinyurl.com/y66nm6jn>.

Tickets are $20 per person and include a wine and cheese reception. All proceeds benefit Jewish Family and Children’s Service and Temple Sholom Financial Assistance.

Preregister at <https://temple-sholom.org/james-taylor-concert/> or by calling 610-356-5165

CONVERSATIONS WITH MEN

Each school year we line up 9 monthly meetings where we gather to learn and discuss different aspects of Judaism and Jewish studies. We have covered topics from Maimonides, to the Zohar, to the Talmud and everything in between.

We meet on Sunday mornings
9:30 a.m. to 11:00
a.m. during Religious school hours so you can join us after you drop off your kids at Rimon.

This coming 2019-2020 year we will look ahead to see how our long history can help us see the likely future of Judaism and faith in general.

Stay tuned for more details!

BROTHERHOOD' NEWS

As the year concludes, I would like to thank everyone in the Temple Sholom community for your patience and support as we relaunched Brotherhood! This past year we started what I hope will become some new Temple Brotherhood traditions. In the coming year, we look forward to an even bigger Eagles Tailgate party as well as a few different opportunities to play poker! We are also hoping to add some new events and outings as well as see a return of a few classic Brotherhood functions.

Above all else, the most important thing to remember about Brotherhood is in our name! It is the support and volunteering of our members, that makes all of our events possible. Please stay tuned for a planning meeting in the next few weeks and if you have an interest in helping organize one of our events, please let me know!

CHAIMEN

The ChaiMen, the Temple's softball team, plays in the Main Line men's softball league. We've been playing in the league for 17 years. The team is open to any male (sorry women) Temple Sholom member over 18. We are always looking for new players to join us.

There have been a bunch of players that have been with the team for a long time, including: Jeff Krinsky, Brian Vance, Ken Weiss, Jay Prager, Harry Gottlieb and myself. We also have some newer players on our roster: Dan Lipowitz, Rob Brand, Jacob Gottlieb, Israel Sannes and Andy Hurwitz.

We play on Sunday mornings at fields in Lower Merion. We've had some good seasons though the years and actually played for the championship a few years ago. If interested in joining our team please contact me, Larry Segal at larkimseg@gmail.com or 215-694-3431.

LIBRARY NEWS

We are the People of the Book and the Temple Sholom library is available to all members, clergy, staff and faculty. Thanks to Rabbi Rigler, we have joined the Jewish Book Council Network Program that provides books published between June 2018 and December 2019 to our congregation. We have received over 80 new books by Jewish authors and/or having Jewish content that we are processing for our collection. Some books are ready to be taken out now and our goal is to have all of the published and pre-published books ready for you to read by the end of this summer. Ready to read new books are found on the book cart in the library.

Your library is nurtured by a wonderful and loyal group of volunteers who devote their valuable time to process materials, remove old materials and clean the library. A big Todah Rabah to Cindy and Jim Meyer who devote one to two days every week to assuring our collection is new and organized.

This year, Honore Poch and Susan Farber received the David Lefcourt Library Service Award. Both Honore and

Susan are counted on to work every week in the library and do whatever is needed to cover books, dust, write thank you notes, shelve books and keep the library organized and welcoming. Both award winners are active Hilltoppers Board Members, Book Club participants and prepare Bima Baskets for our B'nei Mitvah students for Sisterhood. In addition Honore has volunteered in the Preschool. Susan is Corresponding Secretary for the Hilltoppers, participates in Women's Spirituality, Sisterhood holiday gift wrap and the Blood Drive. Congratulations to both our David Lefcourt Library Service Award recipients!

Thank you to Karen Willcox our newest library volunteer for the hours of expert work. Sincere thanks to Gloria Kresch for helping to weed out older books to make room for newer treasures.

Your Library Committee is always looking for new volunteers to help improve and maintain our library. Take pride in your library, it's one of the best synagogue collections in the area. We are always looking for new volunteers who can donate time on a weekly basis to improve our library experience.

INCLUSION NEWS

The Temple recently enjoyed their Shabbat in the Park which took place in Merry's Place in Havertown, a park that was built for people with disabilities, and is fully accessible for adults and children with mobility challenges and other special needs. It may not be our ideal location, but this is "inclusion" at its best. We don't have to provide equipment and helpers and monitor the grounds to assure the safety of those folks with walking challenges. The park was designed and built to serve everyone, and the needs of people with challenges are part of the park, not an afterthought.

In February, Temple Sholom, along with most other synagogues and other Jewish organizations, celebrated Jewish Disability Awareness and Inclusion Month. We welcomed one of our Temple members who spoke about "Supporting Loved Ones with Hearing Loss." The speaker was very moved by the number of folks who approached her to express their gratitude about how much they had learned.

The young teens enjoyed a presentation by a local author and employee of Jewish Learning Venture (which leads and supports the Delaware Valley Special Needs and Inclusion Committee) who shared her experiences and memories of her beloved great uncle who was a man with dwarfism. He never let his disability limit him, and lived his life as a successful business man with a fantastic hobby of taking photographs with famous people, before anyone ever heard of the term, "selfie."

We continue to provide information about programs in the community that are thoughtfully attentive to the needs of people with special needs with the goal of providing inclusion so that everyone can benefit from the participation of each person. The Inclusion Committee remains committed to assist any Temple Sholom member, family member, or guest with a disability who is seeking an accommodation that will enable him/her/them to fully participate in any Temple program, service, or activity. Please contact the committee chair, Regina Levin, at 610-715-1745 or email her at: inclusion@temple-sholom.org or Abbey Krain, Executive Director at director@temple-sholom.org.

Let's share our happy occasions, milestones and good news with one another. Please submit your information (anniversary, birth, graduation, new job, etc.) by Tuesday of each week to our Temple office: director@temple-sholom.org.

ARE YOU A TEMPLE TENDER?

Temple Sholom is looking for members who are ready to give some time and elbow grease to making Temple Sholom ... a Temple Beautiful.

Projects may include silver polishing, storage shed overhaul, garden planting, small painting projects, among many others.

Do you have specific skills that can help the Tenders? We have projects that need woodworkers, painter, DIYers and all-around handy-folk. Let us know where you can help. We are also looking for your input on projects. What do you think needs tending to?

RELIGIOUS PRACTICES COME JOIN US

The Religious Practices Committee (RPC) met last year several times to discuss and make recommendations on such issues as High Holy Day honors, a new, large-sized congregational tallit, Jewish holiday observances, Shabbat candle lighting and Kiddush honors, and more.

This is an active committee that coordinates ritual decisions, working alongside Rabbi Rigler and Cantor Marx.

A reminder from the RPC: Shabbat services will begin at 7:30 p.m., as of July 1. Family services will remain at the 7:00 p.m. start time.

If you would like to join the RPC, or if you have concerns of religious practice that you believe should be discussed, please contact Donna Hendel at DonnaHendel@gmail.com.

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY

Who are we? What do we do? Where have we been?
Where are we going?

Who are we?

We are a group of women who are Temple Sholom members. We welcome all women members to share in the friendship and learning with Women's Spirituality.

What do we do?

We meet once a month, usually on a Wednesday evening between 7:30 p.m. - 9 p.m. While most of the meetings take place in the Temple Library, sometimes the location, day and time can change. We explore themes of Jewish content and their relevance to women's lives. The sessions are free and open to all women members of Temple Sholom. You can choose to join us as often as you wish.

Where have we been?

In the past some of the highlights from our programs have included

- May in the outdoors at Ridley Creek State Park
- Meditation with Women's Spirituality
- Book discussions - Some of the books have been:
Einstein & the Rabbi: Searching for the Soul
Our Dance With God
Chapters of the Heart
Surprisingly Happy
Hope Will Find You
The Dovekeepers
Unorthodox

There is a special bookshelf in our library for Women's Spirituality

- A Jewish Mindfulness Retreat—A day with Rabbi Yael Levy
- Soul Stories . . . How have the stories of our ancestors influenced our own spiritual journey? A presentation and workshop with Teya Sepinuck, Founder & Artistic Director 'Theater of Witness.' This was a Special Program open to all Temple Sholom members

- Almost 30 years of exciting and new learning experiences - Our very dedicated friends and teachers have included: Lori Green, Rabbi Shelly Barnathan, Rabbi Stacy Rigler, Rabbi Leah Berkowitz, Anna Marx and many others through the years.

A special thank you to all our leaders for sharing their talents and gifts with us. We would like to thank Temple Sholom Sisterhood for their generous gift and the generous donors who acknowledge special occasions with a donation to Women's Spirituality Fund at Temple Sholom.

Where are we going?

2019-2020 begins the 30th year of Women's Spirituality. Our calendar will be filled with many exciting and new learning experiences. Every session is a separate program and no prior attendance or experience is necessary to enjoy and get a great deal from each program. You are welcome to join us whenever it is convenient. We hope you will plan to be a part of our friendly and welcoming group of women.

Look for our Calendar of Events in the September/October Tidings which will begin September, 2019 and close on June, 2020. Watch The Temple Tidings and Temple Announcements for monthly details.

Women's Spirituality wishes everyone a wonderful summer. We hope to see you in September as we begin our 30th year together.

SISTERHOOD BOOK CLUB

Another wonderful year of reading has come to an end for the Sisterhood Book Club. We have read some unique books, had some interesting discussions and grew friendships. Book selections for next year as well as meeting dates will be decided in the near future and shared as soon as possible. We always welcome new readers! Hope you will join us soon!

SUMMER TIME IS FUN TIME AT CAMP MENSCHY

Camp Menschy (Temple Sholom's summer camp program) is in full swing! On a daily basis, 25 to 30 children can be found climbing, jumping and running around the playground, riding bikes and chasing friends.

They will be experimenting with water in the water play area, dumping and pouring, running through the sprinklers and cooling down to get wet. The campers will be playing sports in the fields, throwing and kicking balls, running bases, and having a great time.

And as the summer starts, we have the opportunity to look back at the year gone by. The children who have started with us and those who just graduated after 1, 2, 3 or 4 years here; the families who joined us anew; and the teachers who make this a special place. And we look back at all of the special events we have had.

We start the year each August with Popsicles in the Park, a chance for families to meet or re-new their friendships. We move into Pizza-in-the-Hut, with a special preschool family dinner in the Sukkah outside (and the weather held out!) We had our class Hanukkah programs, Purim programs and Passover Model Seder Programs. Muffins with mom and Doughnuts with Dads were so much fun – and the dads enjoyed the fun more than the kids!

We had Nature Jack who came to do special science programs (yay slime!), Dancing with Donna and her fabulous dance programs. And 2 new programs this year, Yoga with Lauren and Mr. Rob the Music Dude are 2 new favorites! And the purple and red classes had special visits from Ms. Andi the librarian. Add in our regularly scheduled Havdallah with Cantor Jamie and Tot-Shabbat with Cantor and Rabbi Rigler.

And now we are gearing up and preparing for another great year ahead!

"Only that which is good for all (people) is good for every (person) ... Those who (are) blessed, (are) a blessing for others." – Abraham Joshua Heschel

In my role as Education Director summer is a time of thoughtful reflection and opportunity. At the end of the year our Rimon team reflects on lessons learned from guiding our learners throughout the year. What worked? What was challenging? Did our learners embrace their learning and have fun while doing so? The answers to these questions (and more) guide the learning and goals for the coming year.

At Rimon we are guided by the tenets of Reform Judaism as well as an educational program that is learner-centered, builds relationships, and is pluralistic. Our team embraces opportunities for growth that are aligned with the principles and values that guide us. Guiding our families on their learning journey enriches not only our program, but our community in countless ways. What is good for our children is good for the broader community, and it is truly a blessing to be able to reflect and set goals that benefits our entire Temple Sholom community

Have a wonderful summer! We look forward to seeing everyone at the opening day festivities on Sunday, September 8.

YOM HASHOAH: TEMPLE SHOLOM REMEMBERS

For 24 hours members of our community read the names of hundreds of victims from the Holocaust in our tribute to the six + million souls whose lives were so senselessly cut short. Many thanks to the following congregants who took the time to volunteer to stand on the bimah and read the names.

Editor's note: As one of the readers, I will say, it was a powerfully moving experience.

ToaSTY

Hello! My name is Sydney Zilch, and I'm the president of ToaSTY for the 2019-2020 school year. For those who haven't heard of ToaSTY, it's our temple's youth group for high schoolers. We do various activities throughout the year, from service activities to activities that focus on just having fun. This year, our leadership has been restructured. Instead of the traditional board structure, we have a leadership committee. High schoolers often have busy schedules, which makes it hard for them to do a specific job for every ToaSTY event. Instead, leadership committee gives teens the opportunity to work on planning and marketing events when they have the time. It also gives teens an opportunity to try different jobs, like planning service projects, encouraging new members to come to events, and planning activities for events. This year's members of leadership committee are Ben Kedson, Shana Deitz, Julia Thomas, Leah Isayev, Jess Gusdorff, and Maya Rigler. I can't wait to see where our new structure takes us, and I know that this year is going to be a lot of fun!

HAVDALAH IN THE HOME: BRINGS YOU PEACE FOR THE WEEK

The Temple Havdalah group met on Saturday, April 27th at the home of Susan and Eric Thomas. We had a Minion, Susan discussed the significance of the Havdalah ritual items and we started with Hodu (Psalm 150) in honor of Passover, Birchot Havdalah, Shavua Tov and Eliyahu followed. We feasted on a variety of foods brought by members and kibitzed for several hours. We are looking into possibly a visit to a museum followed by Havdalah in the future.

If you are interested in joining or forming your own group contact bob at bobnmarians@aol.com.

DISCUSSION GROUP

The Discussion Group met at the home of Bob and Marian Slater on April 29. A long presentation of the history of Zionism was presented and insightful discussion followed. The discussion provided inspiration to reduce the written statement to a power point discussion/presentation making it more suitable for verbal as opposed to written presentation. However, good food a company more than made up for any timing problems. No one left hungry!

We will likely pick up in the fall after high holidays. If you are interested in attending, hosting, or have suggestions for topics contact Bob Slater at bobnmarians@aol.com.

DO A MITZVAH!

B'nei Mitzvah students have the opportunity to perform hands-on mitzvot in the months leading up to their important life cycle event. What about our adult members at Temple Sholom?

There is a group at our Temple that could really use your help - become part of the Mitzvah Core team!

We need volunteers to add their names to the list, to be ready for a phone call or an email when another congregant needs help: a ride, a phone call, a visit, a meal, or shiva help.

Please contact Mitzvah Core coordinator Barbara Barr at bbooker628@aol.com or 484-412-8066.

When you brighten someone's day, you brighten your own life! Guaranteed!

MITZVA

JNF TREES AND WATER FOR ISRAEL

Sisterhood encourages you to support Jewish National Fund by planting trees in Israel and/or contributing to the JNF Parsons Water Fund to alleviate their severe water shortage. Planting trees helps to create green forests in previously barren land. Contributing to the Water Fund helps in the building of water reservoirs and dams which provide life-giving water to more than 1.2 million Israelis. Tree purchases are $18.00 each and contributions to the water fund also begin at $18.00. This is the perfect opportunity to honor and/or remember a family member, loved one, etc. The honoree will receive a lovely certificate which can be framed for an additional nominal fee. Consider acknowledging birthdays, wedding anniversaries, graduations, bar & bat mitzvahs, confirmations, and other occasions in this very special way. This is also a way to honor and/or remember the memory of dear friends and loved ones.

Two trees were planted by Evalyn Elias in celebration of Laurie Berson's Special Birthday.

Two trees were planted by Eileen Wolfson in celebration of Laurie Berson's Special Birthday.

For further information on contributing to JNF by planting trees or contributing to the water shortage in Israel, call Shirley Birenbaum at 610-328-2171 or surabassa@aol.com.

MITZVAH MEALS

On the second Tuesday of every other month, Temple Sholom provides approximately 150 meals to those who come to the Life Center of Eastern Delaware County, located in Upper Darby. Many of those who come for a meal are the homeless and the disadvantaged among us. These people need our extra support and this hearty, nutritious meal, definitely lifts their bodies and spirits. Our Temple Sholom community is so fortunate to have such a generous and dedicated group of volunteers that donate food, paper goods and/or their time to serve the meal at the Life Center. If you are interested in joining this group and making a difference in the lives of those who are less fortunate, please consider signing up to help.

Here is the link to the August 13 Mitzvah Meal:

New Link!

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c044da5ac22aaf85-august>

If all the slots are taken for August 13, feel free to contact me if you are interested in me signing you up for future meals on October 1 (Note: this is the 1st Tuesday of the month because the second Tuesday is Kol Nidre) or December 10.

HEADING HOME

THE TALE OF TEAM ISRAEL

Starring MLB's Cody Decker,
Ryan Lavarney, Ike Davis,
Ty Kelly, Josh Zeid and more!

A stirring story of sports, patriotism, and personal growth, HEADING HOME charts the underdog journey of Israel's national baseball team as it competes for the first time in the World Baseball Classic. Its lineup includes several Jewish-American Major Leaguers, most with a tenuous relationship to Judaism, barely any ever having ever set foot in Israel. Their odyssey takes them from the Holy Land where they are greeted as heroes to Seoul where they must debunk their reputations as has-beens and wannabes. With their Mensch on a Bench mascot by their side, the team laughs, cries, and does much soul-searching, discovering the pride of representing Israel on the world stage.

ONGOING AND LOBBY COLLECTIONS

Toiletries are needed for the Life Center of Delaware County - bring to the Temple Office.

Canned Goods are always needed to help with empty pantries - a donation box is located in the coat-room closet.

We continue to collect pots/pans/kitchenware items, glasses, dishes, gift cards & comforters for the Nationalities Service Center. This organization provides comprehensive services to refugees and immigrants from around the world.
<https://nscphila.org/stories>.

NOTE: We have two knitters (yeah) so it's time to start collecting wool again. Please leave your wool in the Temple office and Amy Berkowitz will make sure it gets into the capable knitters hands.

Thanks to all who have donated wool over the years. Your generous contributions have warmed many people.

TOP SPECIALISTS. WORLD-CLASS TEAM. Here at Lankenau Medical Center.

John Marks, MD COLORECTAL SURGEON

Whether you need a screening, initial consult or second opinion, the team at Lankenau Medical Center, part of Main Line Health, is known for its expertise in colorectal care. A heritage built by Dr. John Marks—one of the world's foremost colorectal surgeons whose experience includes more than 3,000 minimally invasive colorectal procedures—and his father before him, whose techniques remain the gold standard in colorectal surgery. What's more, with his partner Dr. Henry Schoonyong, sphincter preservation here at Lankenau is achieved 93 percent of the time vs. the national average of 40 to 60 percent. Which means most of our patients avoid a permanent colostomy bag.

So whatever your colorectal concerns, let's face them together. Here at Lankenau Medical Center. Visit mainlinehealth.org/markscolorrectal or call 610.645.9093
