

SHARED HISTORY PROJECT EXHIBIT

December 6-19, 2022

December 6, 4-6 pm: Open House with Guides

December 7, 7 pm: Avi Wisnia* Evening of Music and Culture Club & Brotherhood sponsoring Jewish/German themed food, beer, and wine

December 8, 4-8 pm: Open to community

December 9, 7:30 pm: Shabbat Services with German inspired Oneg baked by Laurie Albert, Shannon Farmer, & Juliann Jaffe

December 13, 5:30-8 pm: Open Hours with Guide

December 14, 4-6pm: Open Hours with Guide

December 15, 1-5 pm: Open to Community

December 16, 7:30 pm: Shabbat Services including German-Jewish music with Cantor Marx and the Temple Sholom Choir; gift shop will be open prior to services

December 18, 12 pm: Sisterhood Latkes & Sufganiyot and "What's the best thing about making a book? Deciding how to fill it!" with Stephanie Krause* (open to families with students aged Kindergarten and up)

December 19, 7 pm: Rabbi Lance Sussman*: "A Glimpse of German-Jewish History"

Avi Wisnia is an award winning singer/songwriter who has performed at venues such as the Hammerstein Ballroom, Kennedy Center, and others across the globe.

Stephanie Krause is a teaching artist, museum educator and book artist with 25 years of experience teaching art classes and school residencies in NYC, including 23 years at the Metropolitan Museum of Art. She was the Featured Artist at NYC's Center for Book Arts in 1995, and loves sharing her passion for bookmaking with people of all ages!

Rabbi Lance Sussman is Rabbi Emeritus at Congregation Keneseth Israel in Elkins Park. He is also a renowned historian specifically around American Jewish History.